5-8-14 Yale Research Shows People with a Mental Illness are More Likely to Smoke... Yale researchers from the Yale School of Medicine, smokers with mental illness consume nearly half of all cigarettes in the United States, despite making up a substantially smaller proportion of the population. Researchers and policy makers are increasingly calling attention to this important public health issue, and this study helps point to a need for interventions and policy that directly help individuals with mental illness quit smoking. Carolyn Mazure of Yale also contributed to the study.
