9-14-14 Mandy Miles @ the Citizen Today. On a similar but not entirely related note, I think all household lights should be installed as dimmer switches. Why are these little technological treats reserved for the upper-middle class in their higher-end homes? It's apparently relatively simple nowadays to adjust the brightness of lights, so why are we even given the choice of the more primitive, on-off switches?

9-14-14 Mandy I know you love the Russian Ballet Swan Lake (Russian: Lebedinoe ozero), is a ballet composed by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky in 1875-1876. The scenario, initially in four acts, was fashioned from Russian folk tales[1] and tells the story of Odette, a princess turned into a swan by an evil sorcerer's curse. The choreographer of the original production was Julius Reisinger. The ballet was premiered by the Bolshoi Ballet on 4 March [O.S. 20 February] at the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow. Although it is presented in many different versions, most ballet companies base their stagings both choreographically and musically on the 1895 revival of Marius Petipa and Lev Ivanov, first staged for the Imperial Ballet on 15 January 1895, at the Mariinsky Theatre in St. Petersburg. For this revival, Tchaikovsky's score was revised by the St. Petersburg Imperial Theatre's chief conductor and composer Riccardo Drigo.

9-14-14 Mandy Miles... ultra-whitening toothpaste brightened my teeth! When freed 1,001 Invention Projects on a CD and my web page
Very slowly, the church under the guidance of Pope Francis is facing the fact that many Catholic couples cohabit before marriage, use contraception freely and divorce and remarry without seeking an annulment, says the BBC's David Willey in Rome.

When freed 1,001 Invention Projects on a CD and my web page
He said in his homily that families are "bricks that build society", but also believes that the church should forgive those who have sex outside marriage or who don't obey church teaching to the letter.

When freed 1,001 Invention Projects on a CD and my web page
It was the first marriage Pope Francis has conducted in his 18-month papacy. The last wedding to be presided over by a pope took place under John Paul II in 2000.
