9-16-14 SALT LAKE CITY (ABC 4 Utah) - A former Utah man who admitted to killing his girlfriend may have done it again. He was just arrested in Indiana for what appears to be gruesome murder. A police report states that the suspect consumed parts of his victim after he killed her. It's possible he should have been locked up before the crime ever happened. A former Utah inmate who killed his girlfriend 16 years ago in West Valley City has now allegedly killed again. "There was violence done to her body. Officers noticed that immediately," said Todd Hollis, Jeffersonville Police Dept. Police believe Thursday 33 year old Joseph Oberhandsley murdered his new girlfriend in Indiana. According to court documents, police found her body in bathtub "with a large portion of her skull missing." Oberhandsley was carrying a brass knuckle knife with blood all over it. "Right now we believe there was some trouble that had started in the last day or two with them," said Hollis. It's possible Oberhandsley shouldn't have been allowed out on the street. Back in 1998, he pled guilty to shooting this girlfriend Sabrina Elder in West Valley City. He also shot his own mother and then tried to kill himself, but he wasn't convicted of murder. Instead he got 15 years for manslaughter. "I thought the sentencing was too light. You know, because it was a plea down, to me it was first degree premeditated murder," said Alfred Irmer, victim's grandfather back in 2000. Oberhandsley was released from prison early in 2012. He moved to Indiana, while on parole he was charged with strangling a person and this past July, he was arrested after a high speed chase and was illegally carrying a gun. But none of that information got back to the Utah parole board. "Certainly if he had any new charges or arrests while on parole the board would've wanted to know that," said Greg Johnson, Administrative Coordinator, Utah Board of Pardons and Parole. Right now the Utah Board of Pardons and Parole is looking into why they weren't notified of Oberhandsley's arrests. There was also a mix up about his release from jail after one of those arrests. Somehow someone set his bail lower than prosecutors had asked, and it would've made it more difficult for him to get out of jail and kill again.

9-16-14 "Gen. Martin E. Dempsey to Seek Combat Troops if Airstrikes Can't Stop ISIS" By JEREMY W. PETERS and MARK New York Times as both Dempsey + the NY Times know ISIS has $777 Trillion in $4 gas in its "War Chest" witch will last a trillion years, a Godsend from Dempsey + the Pentagon for not Leaking the Electric Windmill Ford Escort 1980 Model to 2014 Model. Pentagon Generals shot themselves in the foot on 9-11 as the money the Saudi terrorist got was from suppressing the Electric Windmill car. Mecca would of had millions of homeless if gas was .10 cents a gallon in 1980. Pentagon made Saudi + Mecca rich with $777 Trillion in $4 gas money!
