9-24-14 "Key West" disabled veteran Mills not "Windmills... grin" arrested in road rage incident! BY ADAM LINHARDT Citizen Staff alinhardt@keysnews.com Florida Highway Patrol troopers arrested a Summerland Key motorist Sunday accused of intentionally hitting another car on U.S. 1 in a road rage incident. Kristopher David Mills, 35, of Summerland Key, faces a charge of felony aggravated battery with a deadly weapon without intent to kill. The driver of the other car and a woman passenger were injured in the incident and were taken to Lower Keys Medical Center, reports state. Troopers say Mills was driving a 2008 Dodge at Mile Marker 10 on Big Coppitt Key northbound when he was passed by Andres Rojas Velasquez, 34, of Miami, in a 2007 Honda. Mills then sped up and allegedly struck the rear of the Honda. Velasquez then began to lose control of the Honda when he was again rear-ended by Mills, reports state. There were two passengers in Mills' car -- a 24-year-old woman and a 3-year-old child. Troopers arrived to find both vehicles still in the northbound lane. Witnesses on the scene told troopers Mills intentionally rear-ended the Honda. Both Velasquez and passenger Katherine Lopera, 21, of Naples, were injured in the incident, but were not airlifted, reports state. The passengers in Mills' car were not injured. Mills was taken to Monroe County Detention Center on Stock Island, where his occupation was listed as disabled veteran. He remained in jail on Monday under no bail.
