Fits of this seemingly irrational generosity, called a universal basic income or U.B.I, Judith knows there are 800 battered women's shelters in the New York Town or City she lives in so money, Payback Time for Women has nothing to do with 800 euros a month. Judith and the New York Times editors are light years from 800 battered women shelters pay back time for women! $800 a month hell, it probably cost each of the 800 battered women's shelters in Judith's town $8K a month to house each women there. 1-10-2016 "Sex and the Saudi" by HASSAN New York Times Sunday - Thankfully, it worked out O.K. It was the first time for me, but I knew what to do. How? Every single young Saudi guy watches porn. I'm not joking. I mean all of them. Afterward, I told her that it was my first time. She said she didn't believe me. I didn't want to say I learned everything from porn, but she probably guessed. This kind of thing goes on a lot in private in my country. There are young people who have sex before marriage, drink or use drugs and don't care about religion. I grew up with religion all around me, and I'm still Muslim, but I don't believe that Islam is like this. Sure, we broke the law, but I didn't feel guilty. I was actually happy, as if I could do this every day. I was like: "Screw the police. I don't give a damn." She felt the same way. She hated the police, too. It really sucks to live in a place where it's against the law to fall in love. Hassan, 23, lives in Qatif, Saudi Arabia, and works in the tech industry. He asked for his surname to be withheld because of the risk associated with telling his story. Being alone with an unrelated woman and having premarital sex are banned in Saudi Arabia. Ending of the article was Hassan meet another girl, didn't mention mom + dad are in a polygamous marriage as everyone else is. His girlfriend he had sex with left him over his meeting another women in a nation founded on polygamous marriage and Hassan never mentions polygamy... shock and awe of the end of this article is... His invention was subsequently issued as US Patent #1,773,079, marking the beginning of today's frozen foods industry. Birdseye took out patents on other machinery, which cooled even more quickly, so that only small ice crystals could form and cell membranes were not damaged. In 1927, he began to extend the process beyond fish to quick-freezing of meat, poultry, fruit, and vegetables. In 1929, Birdseye sold his company and patents*

A white woman, 18, Thursday night in Brooklyn was with her father inside a park in Brownsville, near the intersection of Lott Avenue and Osborn Street, when five men approached them, the police said. One of the 5 black men, who was armed, pointed a gun at them and ordered her father to leave. The authorities said the father left the woman with the group of men, who then each raped her at gunpoint. The men fled the scene when her father returned a short time later with two uniformed police officers, the police said. The Police Department released surveillance video that it said showed the men in a bodega before the rape.
