Charlie Hebdo's instant transformation from a relatively obscure, parochial French publication to an international symbol, celebrated by free-speech advocates. Its two dozen cartoonists and writers, who previously enjoyed some degree of anonymity, moved this month to a new, heavily fortified newsroom with bulletproof windows, a panic room and a labyrinth of safety doors – security measures that cost 1.5 million euros, or $1.65 million.

Jimmy Carter pulling charred bodies from all the fiery wrecks he drove by without stopping will Haunt him... charred remains from the burned-out bus, which had been involved in one of France's worst road accidents ever. At least 43 died, most of them older people out for a day's excursion of ham-tasting and sightseeing in the soft and undulating countryside. In the mist-shrouded early morning on Friday, the bus, traveling Departmental Road

"Threats to Pakistan's Women Journalists" By Kiran Nazish - "A story involving the influence of intelligence agencies on civilians" CIA is not Moslem, Pakistan Intelligence Agents are all Moslem. So Moslem Women Journalists have the advantage. Women Pakistan Journalists can drive a car in Pakistan but not write stories of women in Saudi Arabia whipped for driving. CIA Women in Pakistan know the H-Bomb assembly lines is running full speed and wonder if the Pakistan Men will really launch a first strike against a Paris Cartoon HQ or are they just running the H-Bomb assembly line full speed for the Hell of it, to scare the Hell out of the USA. It was surprising the New York Times ran the story on the front page last week too! Kiran writes about a young teenage Christian girl who faced the death penalty under blasphemy law... Allah in a gay wedding at the Hemingway House in Key West... Kiran needs to tell us why Moslem Men

10-24-2015 Nightly News From Key West with Greg + Wives... Steve Jobs Movie last night at Regal Cinema was 30 minutes late starting... Jobs's perfect final line to his daughter reminds us of why we spent two hours here. In the movie, Lisa plays her father two different versions of Joni Mitchell singing "Both Sides Now", recorded years apart in 1969 and 2000. While he doesn't mention where Jobs first heard the songs, Isaacson noted that Jobs had the songs on his iPad in 2011 and reflected on how the different performances show the way people age.

"Both Sides Now" poison gas exhaust on Duval Key West vs Electric Windmill Ford Escort...

I've looked at love from both sides now From give and take, and still somehow It's love's illusions I recall I really don't know love at all

Tears and fears and feeling proud To say "I love you" right out loud Dreams and schemes and circus crowds I've looked at life that way

But now old friends are acting strange They shake their heads, they say I've changed Well something's lost, but something's gained In living every day

I've looked at life from both sides now From win and lose and still somehow It's life's illusions I recall I really don't know life at all

I've looked at life from both sides now From up and down and still somehow It's life's illusions I recall I really don't know life at all

One more thing... did Jobs really conceive the iPod to replace his daughter's Walkman? Steve Wozniak and Steve in the garage dialog could have been turned into a computer hardware tutor but was cut short. Chrisann Brennan Lisa's mother sex with Jobs would have spiced up the movie. She was Apple co-founder Steve Jobs' high school girlfriend, an early employee of Apple before it went public, and the mother of his first child, Lisa Brennan-Jobs. Brennan documented this relationship in her 2013 memoir, The Bite in the Apple. The Bite in the Apple: A Memoir of My Life with Steve Jobs Hardcover - October 29, 2013 by Chrisann Brennan she starts off the book with Steve's father working on cars in his garage with 100's of tools, he bought junk cars fixed them up and sold them. I had to add this as the Orwellian Comments from Steve Job's on his death bed, I never read any about the ElectricWindmillFord Escort, I wonder what year 1980 - 2015 Steve learned about its suppression by our 1984 II Dictators?

The pilots of a Black Hawk helicopter that crashed in March, killing all 11 service members aboard, had disobeyed direct orders by flying into worsening weather, according to an investigation. The military said in June that the crash occurred when the pilots became disoriented at night off the Florida coast. The training took place as fog rolled in from the Gulf of Mexico. The full report, obtained by The Associated Press through a public records request, said that the pilots had not been authorized to fly in such bad weather and that others had failed to challenge the overconfidence of the lead pilot. The report was the product of a joint investigation by the Louisiana National Guard and United States Special Operations Command. The training involved two Black Hawks from the Louisiana National Guard taking teams of Marine Special Operations members over water so they could rappel into the sea. Both crews "disobeyed a direct order," the report said.

*10-24-2015 "Shelter From the Storm of Brain + Breast Cancer"
By Bob Dylan MD*

'Twas in another lifetime, one of toil and blood When blackness was a virtue and the road was full of mud I came in from the wilderness, a creature void of form "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

*And if I pass this way again, you can rest assured I'll always do my best for her, on that I give my word In a world of steel eyed death and men who are fighting to be warm "Come in,"
she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"*

Not a word was spoke between us, there was little risk involved Everything up to that point had been left unresolved Try imagining a place where it's always safe and warm "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

I was burned out from exhaustion, buried in the hail Poisoned in the bushes an' blown out on the trail Hunted like a crocodile, ravaged in the corn "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

Suddenly I turned around and she was standin' there With silver bracelets on her wrists and flowers in her hair She walked up to me so gracefully and took my crown of thorns "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

Now there's a wall between us, somethin' there's been lost I took too much for granted, got my signals crossed Just to think that it all began on a long-forgotten morn "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

Well, the deputy walks on hard nails and the preacher rides a mount But nothing really matters much, it's doom alone that counts And the one eyed undertaker, he blows a futile horn "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

I've heard newborn babies wailin' like a mournin' dove And old men with broken teeth stranded without love Do I understand your question, man, is it hopeless and forlorn? "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

In a little hilltop village, they gambled for my clothes I bargained for salvation an' they gave me a lethal dose I offered up my innocence and got repaid with scorn "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"

Well, I'm livin' in a foreign country but I'm bound to cross the line Beauty walks a razor's edge, someday I'll make it mine If I could only turn back the clock to when God and her were born "Come in," she said, "I'll give you shelter from the storm"
