Dr. Lindahl, of the Francis Crick Institute in London, was honored for his discoveries on base excision repair – the cellular mechanism that repairs damaged DNA during the cell cycle. Dr. Modrich, of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute in Chevy Chase, Md., and Duke University Medical Center, was recognized for showing how cells correct errors that occur when DNA is replicated during cell division. Dr. Sancar, of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, was cited for mapping the mechanism cells use to repair ultraviolet damage to DNA.

Awarded to ... The crash happened around 5:53 p.m. in the Richmond Hill area and involved a white S.U.V. and a black Kia, the police and fire officials said. The S.U.V. was traveling west on Atlantic Avenue when the driver ran a red light at 108th Street, the police said. The Kia struck the S.U.V. as it passed through the intersection, officials said. The impact of the crash sent the S.U.V. careering onto the sidewalk, where it struck the girl, her 48-year-old mother and her 52-year-old aunt, the police said. The three pedestrians and the drivers of both vehicles were taken to Jamaica Hospital Medical Center, where the girl's aunt was pronounced dead, the police said. The girl was in critical condition and her mother was in stable condition on Tuesday night, the police said. The driver of the S.U.V., a 43-year-old woman, and driver of the Kia, a 23-year-old woman, were both in stable condition, the police said.*

10-7-2015 Nightly News From Key West with Greg + Wives... 4 MD Wives Coup D'Etat "BBC Casts Doubt on Claims of British Pedophile Ring" There is of course no shortage of sordid tales that have proved true: Jimmy Savile, the veteran entertainer and BBC star who was friendly with Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and Prince Charles, used his celebrity to gain access to young women and men and children in hospitals, schools, care homes and his television dressing room for as long as four decades. His crimes were covered up and his victims ignored. He died in 2011, one year before the police identified him as a prolific sexual predator. Another prominent case involved a Liberal member of Parliament, Cyril Smith, who reportedly abused boys in a care home in his constituency. He, too, died before an investigation could be concluded. Indeed, the revelation only last year that 1,400 girls, some as young as 11, were raped, mostly by Pakistani men, from 1997 to 2013 in the northern city of Rotherham while the authorities looked away showed that until recently the police here have sometimes done more to undermine victims than to go after their abusers. The BBC investigation suggests that the pendulum might now have swung too far the other way.

10-7-2015 Nightly News From Key West with Greg + Wives... 4 MD Wives Coup D'Etat Simchat Torah. At 10 p.m. last night, close to 50 students visited the Yale Daily News crosscampus@yaledailynews.com at 202 York and included us in their celebration of Simchat Torah – a holiday celebrating the Jewish people receiving the Torah. Visit again: We're here for production five nights a week. Simchat Torah - the Torah scrolls are taken out of the ark and read at night. In the morning, the last parashah of Deuteronomy and the first parashah of Genesis are read in the synagogue. On each occasion, when the ark is opened, the worshippers leave their seats to dance and sing with the Torah scrolls in a joyous celebration that can last for several hours. In Judaism, the theological importance of Genesis centers on the covenants linking God to his chosen people and the people to the Promised Land. 52 Nearest Stars take on a New Reality for Judaism!

10-7-2015 Nightly News From Key West with Greg + Wives... 4 MD Wives Coup D'Etat Yale research PHD's didn't take the kids to the ICU or Surgery or even a walk through the Yale Medical School in this study. Kids may not be able to keep their hands out of the cookie jar, even if they know the treat is bad for them, according to a new study. Yale Research released by the Rudd Center for Food Policy and Obesity at the University of Connecticut found that children can accurately assess food products' healthfulness, but often choose to ignore that information, instead making selections based on flavor. Researchers created a virtual grocery store for children aged seven to 12 to use. The store included both healthy and unhealthy items, and children were asked to rate the health benefits of each food item before putting it into their cart. Although children accurately rated the healthfulness of each item, the biggest factor in their selections was perceived tastiness of product. Not what happens when it hits your pancreases... etc. Junk food, on the other hand, is designed to be extremely palatable, incorporating large amounts of fat, salt and sugar to create products that appeal to a majority of people, she said. Hell not even Steve Jobs with all his computers has a simulation of fat, salt, and sugar in anatomy + physiology. An expert in DNA repair says the amount of damage caused to our DNA each day is astounding - an estimated 50,000 lesions per cell, per day. Did Yale show the kids this DNA damage... Hell no!
