The terrorist attacks in Paris on Friday, along with twin bombings in Beirut on the day before and the downing of a Russian jetliner over the Sinai Peninsula on Oct. 31, show a new phase in the Islamic State's war against the West, a readiness to strike far beyond areas it controls in Iraq, Syria, and increasingly, Libya.

The challenge for threatened countries is huge. The sort of attacks the Islamic State, or ISIS, has launched are hard to anticipate or prevent, yet in Europe each one intensifies the raucous xenophobia of far-right nationalists ever ready to demonize Muslim citizens, the crude oil it has been producing in Syria, American officials said. According to an initial assessment, 116 trucks were destroyed in the attack, which took place near Deir al-Zour, an area in eastern Syria that is controlled by the Islamic State. The airstrikes were carried out by four A-10 attack planes and two AC-130 gunships based in Turkey. Plans for the strike were developed well before the terrorist attacks in and around Paris on Friday, officials familiar with the operation said, part of a broader operation to disrupt the ability of the Islamic State, also known as ISIS or ISIL, to generate revenue to support its military operations and govern its territory. American officials have long been frustrated by ability of ISIS to generate tens of million of dollars a month by producing and exporting oil.

11-16-2015 Nightly News From Key West with Greg + Wives... New York Times today, What Will Come After Paris By THE EDITORIAL BOARD - 10 cent gas didn't begin this New York Times Editorial... Why, because the New York Times had taken $ Trillions in BP Oil kickbacks $$$ In Versailles on Monday. France already has some of Europe's most intensive antiterrorist policing; adopting draconian measures of the sort demanded by far-right nationalists like Marine Le Pen of the National Front can only further alienate France's Muslim population of five million... Pakistan's Population of 1 Billion Moslems should have been in the Times Editorial right after 10 cent gasoline! Walter Reed MD's have not cured the New York Times owners of Brain Cancer + Syphilis in the Brain and none are working with Los Alamos today on a Rx Overnight Cure brainstorming today. Masterminds are for War, Masterminding. Chemical Weapons must include LG lobotomy Gas today. Not in the Times Editorial.

*Editors write "Pouring fuel on the passions" of $777 Trillion dollars in French Oil Revenues, no the Times Editors just wrote "Pouring fuel on the passions" they censored out $777 Trillion in Oil Revenues and the 2015 Electric Windmill Ford's coming off the assembly lines. But the Times did break the story of 120 H-Bombs coming off the assembly line in Pakistan in 2015. Moslem Men have demonstrated that there is no limit to its reach, and no nation is really safe until they all come together to defeat this scourge. This scourge in the Times is paid for by $777 Trillion in Oil Revenues as they all own "Oil Fields"... Glut of Oil is nothing, as $777 Trillion in Swiss Banks will buy MIT War Toys for until gas is 10 cents a gallon in the USA. PARIS — Three teams of Islamic State attackers acting in unison carried out the terrorist assault in Paris on Friday night, officials said Saturday, including one assailant who may have traveled to Europe on a Syrian passport along with the flow of migrants.

"It is an act of war that was committed by a terrorist army, a jihadist army, Daesh, against France," President François Hollande told the nation from the Elysée Palace, using an Arabic acronym for the Islamic State. "It is an act of war that was prepared, organized and planned from abroad, with complicity from the inside, which the investigation will help establish."
