12-20-2015 Jewish Aliens at each of the 52 Nearest Stars. One of these Jewish Aliens will Rule Israel. Key West Mandy Miles the Sunday before Christmas writes Hell + Star Travel via Google's memory is both terrifying and awe inspiring. Google knows what you are going to type before you finish typing. Google linked to Los Alamos and all the Rx Recipes for Brain + Breast cancer which it would have been if this would our 2015 Electric Windmill Ford Christmas not another "Gasoline" Christmas from BP Oil and Putin's Oil. Google would have had the Beau + Jimmy Carter Rx Recipe before Mandy Miles had finished typing. Ha! Instead Jimmy Carter bought his wife a Nuclear Submarine with 120 H-Bombs all out of date for Christmas 2015 and Mandy Miles only had her Christmas Cookie Recipes not Beau's and Breast Cancers Rx Recipe Cure under the tree and around the tree's conversations. Merry Christmas Mandy Miles this is terrifying and awe inspiring... to get the coup going soon in Key West for a new Google Search. Mandy search Google for the Rx Recipe... a new immunotherapy agent called Keytruda. Make Keytruda for everyone in our Habitat for Humanity, grin.

Merry Christmas Mandy.

Sheesh, Mandy Miles, draw attention to the Yale Key West Medical School! It should be built today on an Eiffel Tower Structure as Greg flew into Key West with $777 Trillion to build a Yale Key West Medical School on 3-4-2011. Awe, terrifying and awe inspiring 1984 II + III.

Yale Biden's Med School has 110 students for 2016

On a beach outside Havana stands the crown jewel of Cuba's renowned international program of medical education, training 13,000 students from around the world free of charge.

"Studying medicine was my life's dream. But for a poor family like mine, that was impossible," 18-year-old Merady Gomez of Honduras told Agence France Presse at the Latin American School of Medicine (ELAM).

"Here, I am making my dream come true, and I have high hopes of being able to help my country. This school is a blessing."

Some 25 kilometers (16 miles) west of the Cuban capital, the school welcomes students from 124 different countries, most of them from low-income families.

Spread across 120 hectares (297 acres) dotted with palm trees, its 28 buildings, recently painted in blue and white, hold more than 130 classrooms, labs, dormitories, cafeterias and a hospital.

doctors, nurses and dentists to other developing countries in exchange for billions of dollars' worth of oil and cash. Dr. Lino Alberto Neira, an orthopedic surgeon who practiced in Cuba for 23 years before he left for Miami in 2013, said that his monthly salary of $25 back home barely lasted four days. He got by with tips from patients who worked in tourism cleaning the floors, he told the New York Times... Little Orwellian from Victoriaa and Francies, grin! Dr. Mara Martínez, a dentist who is Dr. Sánchez's fiancée, said she was a staunch supporter of the Cuban revolution but became disillusioned when she arrived in Venezuela to find that she had to work six days a week and sleep three to a room for a salary of $210 a month. Venezuela, she was told by her supervisors, was paying $7,000 per month for her services. Homeland Security statistics, 1,663 Cuban medical professionals posted overseas were accepted to enter the United States in the 2015 fiscal year, a 32 percent increase from the year before. The number of doctors admitted to the program has more than tripled since 2011, when 386 people were approved.

ELAM is one of three universities launched by Cuban revolutionary leader and former president Fidel Castro to boost his international credentials, with the other two dedicated to sports and film. But unlike the film school, it has always been free, representing Castro's view that healthcare is a fundamental right. With an average of one doctor per 148 inhabitants, Cuba is among the best-served countries in terms of health, according to the World Health Organization. Ahmed Bokovi, a 22-year-old from Chad, thanked "God and Cuba" for giving him this "great opportunity to study medicine for free." Douglas Macheri, 20, of Zimbabwe said he was following in the footsteps of his father, who studied medicine in Cuba before returning home to treat the poor in his country.

Of the 13,282 students currently enrolled, only 1,349 live in Santa Fe, where the first two years of the six-year program are taught. The rest of the coursework is taught in more than a dozen institutions spread across the communist island, all in Spanish. The school trains students in nearly all medical specialties, and students often choose their focus depending on the needs of their home country. "One of our big successes is that we are like a big family, despite our many ethnic, cultural, religious or political differences," said Víctor Díaz of the school's external relations team. In the 14 years since it first opened its doors, explained co-director Heidi Soca, ELAM has graduated 17,272 doctors from 70 countries, "with the basic objective of having them return to their home countries and work with the most disadvantaged people."
