We can't all be Marco Polo or Freya Stark but millions of us are travellers nevertheless. The great travellers living and dead, are in a class by themselves, unequalled professionals. We are amateurs and though we too have our moments of glory we also tire, our spirits sag, we have our moments of rancour. Who has not heard, felt, thought or said, in the course of a journey, words like: 'They've lost the luggage again, for God's sake?' 'You mean we came all this way just to see this?' 'Why do they have to make so damn much noise?' 'Call that a room with a view?' 'I'd rather kick his teeth in than give him a cent.'
But we persevere and do our best to see the world and we get around; we go everywhere. Upon our return, no one willingly listens to our travellers' tales. 'How was the trip?' they say. 'Marvellous,' we say. 'In Tbilisi, I saw...' Eyes glaze. As soon as politeness permits or before, conversation is switched back to local news such as gossip, the current political outrage, who's read what, last night's telly; people will talk about the weather rather than hear our glowing reports on Copenhagen, the Grand Canyon, Katmandu.
The only aspect of our travels that is guaranteed to hold an audience is ~~disaster~~. The camel threw you at the Great Pyramid and you broke your leg? 'Chased the pickpocket through the Galeria and across Naples and lost all your travellers' cheques and your passport?' 'Locked and forgotten in a sauna in Viipuri?' 'Promaine from eating sheep's eyes at a Druze feast?' That's what they like. They can hardly wait for us to finish before they launch into stories of their own suffering in foreign lands. The fact is, we cherish our disasters and here we are one up on the great travellers who have every impressive qualification for the job but lack jokes.

I rarely read travel books myself, I prefer to travel. This is not a proper travel book. After presenting my credentials so you will believe that I know whereof I speak, it is an account of my best horror journeys, chosen from a wide range, recollected with tenderness now that they are past. All amateur travellers have experienced horror journeys, long or short, sooner or later, one way or another. As a student of disaster, I note that we react alike to our tribulations - trayed and bitter at the time, proud afterwards. Nothing is better for self-esteem than survival star travel

It takes real stamina to travel and it's getting worse. Remember the old days when we had porters not hi-jackers; remember when hotels were built and finished before you got there; remember when key unions weren't on strike at your point of departure or arrival; remember when we were given generous helpings of butter and jam for breakfast, not those little cellophane and cardboard containers; remember when the weather was reliable; remember when you didn't have to plan your trip like a military operation and book in advance with deposit enclosed; remember when the Mediterranean was clean; remember when you were a person not a sheep, herded in airports, railway stations, ski-lifts, movies, museums, restaurants, among your fellow sheep; remember when you knew what your money would bring in other currencies; remember when you confidently expected everything to go well instead of thinking it a miracle if everything doesn't go wrong?

We're not heroic like the great travellers but all the same we amateurs are a pretty tough breed. No matter how horrendous the last journey we never give up hope for the next one. God knows why.

Credentials
so humanity can survive WW III
idea of this book while sitting on a rotten little beach at the western tip of Crete, flanked by a waterlogged shoe and a rusted potty. Around me, the litter of our species. I had the depressed feeling that I spent my life doing this sort of thing and might well end my days here. This is the traveller's deep dark night of the soul and can happen anywhere at any hour.

No one suggested or recommended this sewer. I found it unaided, studying a map on the cheap night flight to Heraklion. Very pleasing with myself too because I'd become so practical; before leaping into the unknown I actually telephoned the Greek Tourist Office in London and received a map of Crete, a list of hotels and the usual travel humpf written in the usual purple prose. Reading matter for the plane.

Way off there, alone on a bay, was a place named Kastelli with one C Class hotel. Just the ticket; far from the beaten track, the C Class hotel was sure to be a sweet little taverna, clean, no running water, grape arbour. I pictured Kastelli as an unspoiled fishing village, sugar cube houses clustered behind a golden beach. All day I would swim in lovely water, the purpose of the journey; at night I would drink ouzo in the grape arbour and watch the fishermen lollop about like Zorba under the moon.

It took as long to get from Heraklion to Kastelli, by three buses, as from London to New York by Jumbo Jet. All buses sang Arab-exactly at six. I doubted that I could cope with these roads in the dark. I could too easily imagine a breakdown and a long cold black night, waiting for a car to pass in the morning.

There was no traffic at all. Joshua, chilled in his white shirt and cowering as forest closed in both sides of the road, would cry out like a variation on Sister Anne, 'How far now, Memsaab, how far?' During the afternoon, Joshua had invented two more excuses for not driving so I knew it was pointless to ask him to drive now that the going was tough. I gritted my teeth like a man and told Joshua to shut up; didn't he have a sweater in his suitcase, well find it and put it on for God's sake, we'll get there when we get there. Which we did. invented excuses

Our business arrangements had been made in advance. Joshua was to be paid for his services and a food allowance; I would pay for his room wherever we stayed. The amount of money was fixed by Joshua as I wanted a satisfied not disgruntled helper. Someone had briefed me on money dealings: Africans were said to be feckless about money, you must never give them large sums at one time, they will have gambled or drunk or otherwise lost it all by the next day; you dole out money and never under any circumstances do you loan it. Loans are the beginning of the end. Living on loans, the African feels he is working for nothing, he will not be paid any more nor does he intend to pay back; it becomes a shambles; stick to small regular sums, the only way. Joshua had four days' advance wages in hand.

When we arrived at the hotel, a long verandah fronting a stone building, draped in greenery, I parked the car, told Joshua to bring my suitcase inside and fix himself up. I wanted a drink, several drinks, and a soft comfortable chair. My shoulders felt as if I had been carrying an iron bar on them all the way from Nairobi. I had signed in, said my driver would need a room, and settled by the fire with a large whisky, when Joshua appeared, grasping his own suitcase.

'Memsaab?'

'What's the matter, Joshua?'

'Where shall I go?' It had a biblical ring; Ruth among the alien corn.

I gave Joshua the first of ceaseless lectures, informing him that he spoke Swahili, he was surrounded by his own countrymen, he could use his voice, he could ask anyone who worked in the hotel where drivers' rooms were, he could then ask these same people any other questions which might occur to him. He could not ask me because I did not know, nor was it my business to know, I was extremely tired since I had been driving all day, and I wished to rest in peace. He had no duties except to find his room which should not be too heavy a task, and appear again at nine in the morning but not before. Buck up, Joshua, I said sharply.

What a lovely Africa this is, I thought, watching rainbows flicker in mist from the plunging river. Giant ferns along the banks glistened with dew. I could taste the air; we were high up, 7,680 feet it said in the hotel lobby. Far off to the east a huge white cone, shining like moonstone, hung in the sky: the snow cap of Mount Kenya. Beside the bridge over the river, an African was carving an elephant; it was identical to the elephants for tourists at Fort Lamy. How did they get the word, from West to East or vice versa, to stylize the shape of elephants? I asked the African where he had learned to carve an elephant this way. He shrugged. It was the moment for Joshua, interpreter.

Joshua was sitting on the verandah steps, looking refreshed and peculiar. He wore his pointed shoes and black city socks, well pulled up, a clean short-sleeved white shirt, the sunglasses and tiny khaki shorts: his safari outfit. I led him to the bridge and told him my question. After a surprisingly long conversation, Joshua reported, 'From his fadder.' Where then did his father learn? More long talk. 'From his fadder,' Joshua said.

'You mean you've been talking all that time for him only to say three words? What else did he say, Joshua?'

'That's all, Memsaab. Just his fadder.'

'Swahili must be a very funny language if it takes so long to say so little.'

'Very funny,' Joshua agreed.

Apparently Joshua was not going to be any more active as an interpreter than as a driver. Arguing about Swahili wouldn't

I daresay it was spectacular and that when I wasn't wrestling the Landrover I appreciated it.

Around 5 p.m. Joshua started his Sister Anne act. 'Very cold, Memsaab, how far now?' I had told him the distances; whether correct or not, they were the best we had. He knew as well as I did that here, practically on the Equator, the sun set at six; he also knew it got cold in the late afternoon and much colder at night in these high altitudes; he knew as much as I did which wasn't much and by the end of the day I was too tired to feel like playing Nanny. 'Oh shut up, Joshua,' I said, concentrated on steering.

After a while, he said, 'Where we going, Memsaab?'

'Kericho, I told you.'

'What is that place?'

'How in God's name should I know? The hotel is called the Tea Hotel so I suppose they grow tea there or maybe just drink it. Think of something cheerful, Joshua, and do not ask me how far.'

We got in soon after dark, the hotel beaming like a lighthouse to guide us. A bossy Memsaab said she would attend to my boy, and I had time for a quick wash before dinner. I didn't care about dinner and flopped into a chintz chair in the lounge - thinking wearily that it was wonderful how everywhere the English managed chintz and spoke of the lounge - and rang for a drink. The hotel Memsaab, returning, announced that I would be late as if being late for dinner was a felony. To placate her, I explained that I had driven from Thomson's Falls and the Landrover was old and heavy, and therefore I was in need of whisky. The Memsaab melted and said I was a poor dear but why didn't my boy drive. Out of loyalty to Joshua, I found myself lying; he's not a driver, I explained, he's along to carry luggage and do my washing and be my interpreter because I don't speak Swahili, he's more an indoor boy.

It would be repetitious to describe food; I blamed the absence of eating pleasure everywhere on the Memsabes who taught the African cooks. The Africans did not eat what they cooked for us, whether by their own choice or for economy reasons. Thick custard sauce on tinned fruit was a special bane, as was thick brown gravy on indistinguishable meat. Breakfast was the one satisfactory meal in East Africa though I will never comprehend the theory and practice of cold toast. There were a few other guests in the dining-room but aside from murmuring good evening, if glances met conversation did not occur. Talk at the tables was carried on in whisper voices. The general tone was that of a deadly respectable English provincial hotel. Inside, you hardly knew you were in Africa; outside the night sky told you exactly where you were.

No one else strolled on to the terrace. It was cold but that wasn't why I hastened back to my snug room and drawn curtains. This was not the velvet embracing desert sky at El Geneina; this was infinite space. The idea of no boundaries, no end, is terrifying in the abstract and much worse if you are looking at it. The far off stars were an icy crust; the darkness beyond the stars was more than I could handle. The machinery that keeps me going is not geared to cope with infinity and eternity as so clearly displayed in that sky. After sunset, the Africans jammed into their round huts and closed everything to keep out the night; if I understood nothing else about them, I understood that.

The morning smell was roses and lilies and stocks. The garden grew everything English only bigger. Rose geraniums and passion flowers and trumpet vines and plumbago covered the walls of the hotel. The lawn was a triumph; in a country where any fool can grow orchids, a smooth lawn is the prize accomplishment. Below this Afro-English enclave, the tea gardens stretched in long neat rows of shining dark green bushes. Beyond the tea gardens, forest and mountains. I asked the hotel Memsaab, Mrs Simpson, if I might stay on a few days. Travel for pleasure had worn me out. This benign Anglicized Africa was just the ticket for frayed nerves.

Joshua drooped in the passenger seat of the Landrover. When I said I meant to stay here for two or three days he drooped more.

'Isn't your room nice, Joshua?'

'Do you find what you want to eat?'

'Yes, Memsaab.'

'Well, cheer up. You love tea, they should have first-class tea here.'

carburettor, water in the spark plugs, how did I know. I held my breath, hoped I was not making waves, hoped we wouldn't stall in the middle, hoped. When we lumbered out on to dry land I stopped the motor and leaned on the wheel. We had crossed over Jordan but where were we?

'You are too wet, Memsaab,' Joshua said timidly.
'Well, you're not so that's all right. I think we'll be spending the night in the Landrover.'

'Here in this car?' Joshua asked, appalled.
'Not necessarily here but somewhere like here.'
'We might as well drive on while daylight lasted. We came to a village with kerosene lamps already lit in the shacks by the road.'

'Go and talk to them, Joshua. Ask where we are. Ask if there's a government resthouse anywhere that we can stay. Ask if there's food to buy. Ask anything you can think of.'

I was too tired and uncomfortable to care. We could park in this village where we were unlikely to be besieged by lions or hyenas. Numbly I watched Joshua, engaged in a marathon talk fest. It must be Joshua; I couldn't believe that Swahili was a language requiring ten words for a single word in any other tongue.

'There is!' Joshua announced, beaming.
'There is what?'
'What you say. Resthouse for government. Here, up this road. Here is a man with key. You can buy tins, Memsaab, nice sardines. Also one candle for you, one for me. You give me money, I will buy.'

The key man walked ahead; Joshua brought back his loot and we followed to a one-room wood house which would have been fine if I were fully equipped for safari travel. An iron cot with a mattress, a table, a chair, a washstand with bowl and pitcher, all okay but no bedding, no towels, no kerosene for the lamp. Count your blessings, I told myself gloomily, it was far better than sitting up in the Landrover, wet to the knees. Joshua and the key man, a grizzled old boy wearing an antique postman's cap, stood around muttering.

'What now, Joshua, for heaven's sake?'

His eyes modestly lowered, Joshua said, 'The terlit is the little place back there.'

In the candlelight I changed to dry clothes and unpacked my two sweaters, sardines by themselves are filling if dispiriting. I had whisky and boiled, bacteria-free water in my thermos, and the thermos cup. I could make a hump, to imitate a pillow, by putting my wet boots and rolled wet trousers under the mattress. I could, thank God, drink and God willing, get drunk. I could not read.

And so realized that thrillers had saved my sanity. Every night, unnerved by Africa, I escaped into the dream world of cops and robbers; an underground atomic rocket factory in Albania discovered and dismantled by a fearless secret agent; the skilful kidnap from his electronically guarded jungle hide-away of a German super war criminal. I left Africa and moved to Finland and Turkey and Brazil and Egypt in the company of colossal brave and inventive men, bent on important insanity. I had not touched War and Peace or Jane Austen. Who would have the energy to cope with a real complex Russia or the wit to enjoy eighteenth-century English provincial society, after a day's driving on African roads? It was a sombre night on that mattress, drinking whisky from a thermos cup and watching insects cluster around the candle, with no therapeutic thriller to dispel Africa. Drinking oneself to sleep is folly; the morning hangover awaits with sharpened claws.

Musoma had nothing in its favour except a hot bath and after bitter argument since it was past regular hours, breakfast. Before the town sank from morning apathy into motionless afternoon torpor, we needed to buy food. Better get enough for four days, I told Joshua. The hotel-inn-resthouse booklet guaranteed six fully furnished rondavels at Seronera in the centre of the Serengeti Park, bedding, towels, crockery, cooking utensils but no victuals. My appetite and imagination failed as I walked from one airless little shop to another, collecting tins of soup and cornbeef and vegetables, crackers, cheese, tea, condensed milk, cereal. Lack of foresight must be the foundation of African contentment and though Joshua wasn't by any means a happy-go-lucky gather-ye-rosebuds-while-ye-may type, he couldn't think four days ahead. He got a small sack of posho, tea and sugar, counting on the Memsaab to stave off starvation.

It was hot. The locals splashed in bilharzia water at the edge of Lake Victoria, cheerfully absorbing the malign worms. As Joshua was a cleanliness addict, like me, I gave him a medical scare and retired to my room. A boring day wasn't the worst fate; I had a bed with pillows and a tranquillizing thriller. The map suggested sixty miles to the western Park entrance; after that, the map had no ideas to offer. I wanted to drive peacefully into the promised land, not haunted by daylight-distance dread.

The Serengeti, that lyrical name, was my highest hope of the journey. The Queen Elizabeth Park had been disappointing, too small and too tourist haven. But the Serengeti was several hundred square miles larger than Connecticut, larger than Northern Ireland, with only six small round huts in all this space as a concession to man. It had to be the golden dream plain, ringed by blue mountains, where a multitude of beautiful wild animals roamed free.

Joshua never vexed me by showing up late. 'This is Tanganyika, Joshua. How about driving here?' That was a friendly tease and accepted in the same spirit; grinning, Joshua babbled about his Kenya licence. We clanked off in the cool dawn, both amiable, and less than two hours later, without hesitation, I took the wrong road. Due to this error, the next eight hours nearly finished all three of us, the Landrover and Joshua and me. For a while, the road was merely frightful but that was not new. I kept looking for a Park gate or a Park sign and was puzzled by scrawny maize patches and a few crumbling mud huts off the road. Surely we had gone far enough to reach some sort of decent surface, befitting a famous game park. After three hours on this narrow rutted and holed track, I knew I had made a mistake but to turn back meant another night in merry Musoma.

The colour of the road was changing and I didn't like what I saw though I had never seen it before. Dust had become black spongy mud. This sinister stuff is called black cotton and combines the qualities of quicksand and chewing gum. Experience has taught everyone that the only way to handle it is to go around or go away. Having no experience, I went on though very disturbed. I could feel the Landrover wheels churning and slowing. At this point, Joshua began to slap himself and say 'Ai, Ai!'

invent long time ago

Wildly anxious about the road, I said, 'What's the matter with you, stop it, shut up!'

Joshua was now beating at himself as if putting out a fire, and moaning.

'Joshua, stop it!'
'Dudus!' Joshua shouted. The wheels were sinking, the man was an idiot, what did insects matter when we were about to founder in mysterious black muck? Then the first one bit me. I wore long trousers and had rolled down my sleeves in the morning chill, but Joshua was half naked. The first one bit my neck, like a bee sting, and I swatted at it but was still concentrated on this alarming mud. Then they came in like dive bombers, biting my neck and hands and face and even zooming up my pants to sting my legs. Joshua was now screaming with pain and with cause. Lean long black and brown flies swarmed around us. I was terrified by this attack and helpless and stopped the car, the worst possible response since we were now sitting targets. Maddened bees can sting people to death, I remembered dimly; bees were slow-pokes compared to the speed of these flies.

I shouted 'Christ!' at the top of my lungs while Joshua screamed on a steady high note and both of us beat wildly at the buzzing air. These were tsetse flies, a hellish curse of Africa; because of them vast areas of the continent remain empty. Neither man nor cattle can live where they live. As an added attraction, they are also the carriers of sleeping sickness. Joshua was crying salt tears, still screaming, and I felt that I was sweating blood but there was nothing to do except go on and going on, if possible at all, required the four-wheel drive.

'Help me, Joshua!' I bellowed, tugging at the small second gear. He was past hearing. I hit him on the arm and pointed to the gear. 'Pull it, pull it, for God's sake, we have to get out of here! Both hands!'

He stared at me with vacant insane eyes; I grabbed his hands and fastened them on the gear knob, under my hands, and pulled as hard as I could. The intention got through to him, we pulled together, the gear shifted into position, I stepped on the gas and the Landrover moved sluggishly but it moved. So did the tsetse flies, easily keeping pace. Joshua had lost the strength to scream, he skin. Happiness swept me at gale force. This place was different from anywhere else in Africa. It was careful.

Bright and early, I donned mask and snorkel, breast-stroked and floated, gazing at underwater wonders finer than any I had seen before. Brain coral, mushroom-shaped, as big as round dining tables, waving forests of fern coral, purple and rose, tall white antler coral, and thousands, tens of thousands of reef fish. There must be an ecological reason for their colours and design but to my uninformed eye they look like the creation at play, fantasies invented for the delight of invention. Time passed unnoticed, one hour, three hours, I was buoyed by the water and enchanted. Thirst finally drove me ashore. Already, climbing through the gardens to my room, I felt heat. A backward look in the bathroom mirror showed my skin painted bright red from neck to heels.

Burns are graded by degree; I don't know what degree I had achieved, but I was burned rigid. Lying flat on my stomach, I swallowed aspirin for fever and Vitamin A as recommended by the English housekeeper, and from time to time a little African maid doused my flaming body with vinegar. I was in pain and I despaired of myself. Some mechanism, which I imagined in the shape of a hand-brake doubtless due to my recent relation with cars, had been left out. Adults were equipped with this mechanism; it restrained them from folly. They used it unconsciously; without thought, they avoided excess and imbecility. I was an incurable fool. I didn't have enough common sense to fill a teacup. I would grow old but never grow wise.

'Cheer up, dear,' said the visiting English housekeeper. 'You aren't the first to get in this fix. Foreigners don't realize how strong this sun is.'

'But through water?' I asked, struggling not to whine with self-pity.

'Yes indeed, as you've found out. It's best to wear a T-shirt if you mean to stay in for any time. And wear a hat when you walk on the beach. You really haven't got the colouring for this climate. But never mind, the blisters are coming up nicely, you'll peel in a day or so and be right as rain.'

I'll never be right as rain, I thought, sunk in gloom, I'll always find some new way to be idiotic. And meanwhile I was losing precious days and my neck muscles hurt from lifting my head enough to read and if I tried to drown my sorrows in drink, probably I would catch fire.

But I did recover, though I had doubted it, and swam with a T-shirt and wore a hat to walk on the flawless beach in the cool of the morning and in the late afternoon. When the sun was straight overhead, I lay in my pleasant room and read Jane Austen who had come to her own here. There was not a speck of litter or a pellet of oil on the beautiful beach, no pollution in the perfect water. Only fifteen years ago, I would have been scandalized by either; now both are readily available everywhere, even there.

I climbed the steps into the airplane with reluctance. I had fallen in love with the land and the sky, the fauna and flora, the weather of East Africa. This adoration of the natural world did not extend to mankind in Africa or its differing ways of life. Like a lover, I wanted to know all of the beloved, in every mood and aspect; I wanted to live with Africa. Anywhere else would be passionless, a dull substitute. Ten months later, I returned to that coast and established my ninth permanent residence. The task was as grim as it always is but I endured the daily turmoil with unusual hope. Once the house was fixed I would put my feet up, except for gardening, and rest in happiness. I believed I had found final heart's desire. Invent something for humanity

The love affair with Africa was long, obsessed and unrequited, lasting off and on for thirteen years. Africa remained out of reach except for moments of union, when walking on the long empty beach at sunrise or sunset, when watching the night sky. Or later, when I had built my permanent residence high in the Rift Valley and could look at four horizons, drunk on space and drunk on silence. Or always, driving alone on the backroads, when Africa offered me as a gift its surprises, the beautiful straying animals, the shape of the mountains, wild flowers.

Moments were not enough; we live all day; we cannot lapse into coma between moments. I needed a job related to Africa, like botany or zoology or geology or farming. Writing was hopeless. I fruit juice, a tin teapot with lukewarm brownish water in it, a small yellow cowpat, cold, scrambled eggs made from powdered eggs, and stale bread. Many people never touch breakfast and feel fine. I feel murderous without breakfast but I couldn't handle this mess and never tried again. I just felt more murderous than already felt.

... she felt murderous

After no lunch, back to Mrs M.'s with ulcer pills, detective stories and sweaters. In the bedroom, she and Yuri were listening to a Menuhin record with lighted faces. They stood by the table in the attitudes of worship, close to the gramophone.

'Why don't you sit on the bed?' said I, always seeking the douceur de vivre angle than which nothing could have been more futile. Neither heard so I sat on the bed. And noticed a half empty bottle of Chanel Five in the dense disorder of the bedside table. Mrs M. probably thought 'scent', the word I'd used, was different from perfume. Or she wanted to give me pleasure as the bearer of a unique gift. Or she had survived only by stealth and guile and was so conditioned by the long endurance contest that she couldn't be straightforward. I mused on this puzzle again when she put the ulcer pills in the kitchen cabinet where already there was a small collection of the same jars. Her life in this hell country - ce pays maudit de Dieu, as one of her friends remarked - had made Mrs M. complicated in ways I would never understand, though a five-year-old Russian kindergarten child might also be beyond my comprehension.

Lena arrived to be greeted with special warmth; then an influx of friends.

'How did you ever write your books, Mrs M.?'
'I lay upon the bed and typed with one hand. The typewriter on the bedside table. Ten hours each day.'

She had written two fat books, the second not then published.
'I meant with so many interruptions.'
'There are no interruptions. I do not hear if I am writing. I write very easily.'

Now that we were all sweating around the kitchen table, Mrs M. began a tease that curled my hair for days. She said, 'I will emigrate.'

'What?'

'But I wish to take Lena with me; I cannot go without Lena and she is not Jew. I say she must marry a Jew then we can go.'

'Go where?' Oh Lord, I thought, not London.

'I think London.'

'Mrs M., it's not a bit like Moscow. I mean we don't drop in on each other, we telephone and make engagements. We don't visit very long either or ring up all day. I think you'd find it boring, rather cold and sad, not what you're used to.'

'I must take my furniture,' Mrs M. said dreamily.

'What?'

'This is a very old bench. It has been many generations in my family.'

I didn't believe it for a minute but refrained from saying that she could buy its cousin if not twin in any of the junk antique shops on the King's Road beyond World's End. I saw my future, running errands and keeping company. Already to my relief, I knew I had not come to attend a death-bed but feared I had come to be appointed her private American Express. Daily, she changed her plans. Perhaps Paris for the food and intellectual life. Perhaps Rome would be better for the climate. This tease kept her friends wrought up too, some saying you must not go, you will die of loneliness, some saying she would get good medical treatment abroad. As a worry, the emigration gambit was a great success. She never meant a word of it as I soon guessed. She could no more live outside Russia than I could live in it. Russia is the home of the heart, despite everything. Anywhere else is exile.

Mrs M. said, 'I must go to London to be near Anthony Bloom. He is a saint.' Father Anthony is the Archbishop of the Russian Orthodox Church in England.

I said irritably, 'Since when did you get so religious?'
'Since I have seen Anthony Bloom. Also my grandfather and my father converted.' I didn't believe that for a minute either.

Yuri whispered, 'Elle croit dans le paradis parce qu'elle veut voir son mari là-haut.' I felt guilty yet unconvinced. I suspected her Christianity, about which she protested too much. But if her new or old Christian beliefs gave her hope of finding that long lost man, what difference did it make how she talked.

Moscow Hemingway

There was still no free table on the restaurant terrace; we could sit inside. Sun came through the sealed plate glass windows like a laser beam. This chid joint for the Moscow elite was served by three tired sweating disaffected waiters. Alex made unavailing signs and signals. Time passed. It was now 5.15. As a lunch hour, it left much to be desired.

When the waiter grudgingly addressed us, he informed Alex that there was nothing cold to drink; for food, the spécialité du jour was goulash. 'He says in half an hour.'

'Alex, tell me, what do the poor do here when they want to have a lovely Sunday outing?'

'What do you mean?'

'I mean I've seen the pleasures of the rich and I'm going to have a fit if I stay here another minute! Haven't you got some food in your flat in Moscow?'

Alex drove like the Monte Carlo Rally too; perhaps moving at speed in their cars was the only sensation of freedom in this blighted land. Speaking for them both, Alex said how much they admired American writers. Why did so few visit Russia? I pointed out that a country where naive writers are killed or incarcerated isn't apt to tempt foreign writers. Hemingway was their hero; Alex talked about him the way kids used to rave about baseball kings and movie stars when I was young. Previously Jack London was the Russians' favourite. They couldn't understand why Hemingway had never come here where he was so loved.

'If he had been Russian, you would have killed him. You killed Babel, and he's your Hemingway.'

After an unhappy silence, Alex said, 'I am not on the side of the killers.'

'What is it about this country? Why does your government persecute writers?'

'Idiotisme.'

'Cheer up, when you come to power you can change all that.'

'People like me will never come to power. This country is run by provincial engineers. They choose and train others like them.'

'Alex, to tell you the truth, I have lost all interest in this country. I am interested in nothing except food and strong drink.'

They talked in Russian. 'I am afraid there will not be anything to drink. Vera says she has nothing and this week there is a new law against alcoholism. Vodka isn't sold on Saturday or Sunday to prevent the workers from spending their week's money and getting drunk.'

The last small comfort left to the downtrodden masses. In Poland there would have been instant riots. I was beginning to feel that obedience was a sin. It didn't occur to Alex that there would be any trouble from the deprived working class or that there was anything to think about, such as: why do they all get dead drunk, might it not be an indication that life was scarcely roses.

At six o'clock we climbed wearily to Vera's apartment on the top floor of a building and larger than Mrs M.'s but so poor, so bleak, so graceless. I got a cheese sandwich.

'One thing about Russia,' I said. 'It teaches you to count your blessings.'

'I do not know that expression: count your blessings.'

'Well no, why should you?'

Mrs M. and I were dining out. The parents of the twelve-year-old stamp merchant had invited us to a farewell celebration. In the taxi I told Mrs M. the Babel repartee. She said, 'Babel was so afraid of dying that he went every day to the KGB chief and to Gorky. But the KGB chief was executed and Gorky never helped anyone.' Babel had fought bravely in the Civil War; his writing is beautiful and not the work of a coward; being hunted by the KGB terrifies everyone. Had it not terrified her and her husband? Her book described their scurrying search for aid and safety. She wasn't the only one in this part of the world who had led a frightful life; and besides Babel was dead.

I followed her up the badly lit dirty stairs, thinking unfriendly thoughts. Who said suffering ennobles? Probably someone who had never suffered. There is no reason for suffering to ennoble; above all, it tires and hardens. Mrs M. had had the wrong sort of suffering; long, grinding, sad, lonely; thirty years of fear and no one to trust and talk to. She had pretty well lost the quality of compassion along the way.

Ahead of me, Mrs M. panted like an animal in distress. She could hardly breathe even when not climbing stairs, the heat was and the Ambassador's widow, and Alex who had made a trip to South America, none had been outside Russia. I kept trying to remember something I had read about a species of fish that was born, lived, spawned, died in the dark waters of a cave; and all were blind.

There was a final scene at the hotel. I started to carry my suitcase from my room. A manservant and two stalwart maids were chatting in the hall. The man took the suitcase. I assumed he would carry it downstairs. I waited by the lift but nothing happened, walked back down the corridor and saw my suitcase. Picked it up. Was told by the floor wardress that I could not carry it. WHY? Because she must telephone downstairs for a porter to come up and collect it. WHY? It is the rule. Do it, do it, do it, I jabbered. And let me get out of this vile country before I blow my top.

My American friend was busy and could not escort me through Customs. He delegated the job to an amiable Englishman who was puzzled by my trembly condition. I was rehearsing my speech about the suitcase: I own only one suitcase and could not afford to come here and buy a smaller suitcase, but I couldn't resist this beautiful yellow brocade, we have nothing as fine in the West. Again we sailed past Customs without a glance. Again the sun pierced like a laser beam in the glass-walled exit hall. There was nothing to see, eat or buy and a delay in departure which caused me to smoke twelve cigarettes, bite two fingernails and age considerably.

When the flight was called, I was first aboard the British Airways plane. A cool correctly smiling English stewardess stood by the door. I said, 'I'm so glad to see you, you'll never know how glad I am to see you.' In her line of work, of course, she was used to meeting queer characters. I overcame a desire to kiss the carpet which was technically British soil and sank back into air conditioning and iced drinks, served with a smile, and read avidly the little booklet that lists all the junky things you can buy on our splendid capitalist airplanes.

My last notes say: 'Main sensation is pure Big Brother fear. The fear (based on facts and fed by everyone's imagination) serves the régime - keeps the people silent and in line. If the rulers ever released the people from fear, it could be a great nation.' But then, released from fear, the people might string up the rulers on the nearest lamp-posts.

Usually, I am not elated to come home, to any of my homes. Home is where the chores begin. This time I was in ecstasy. Oh, what a beautiful clean bare cool place I live in, I told myself, I will never again complain of anything. I will count my blessings every morning and every night. And I will count everyone else's blessings too. In the inspired words of E. M. Forster, Two Cheers for Democracy.

It was harder and harder to keep up the pen-pallery with Mrs M. since I realized that she cared about nothing except her own past and her present circle and Russia. How wearying she must have found my long discursive letters from Africa, too tedious to read. Besides she now had many foreign admirers and visitors and didn't need me. She also found pen-pallery an increasing strain. I am sure I was a disappointment, not an acolyte, and my horror of everything in Moscow must have wounded her for after all it is her home and she loves the city. The best service I could render was intermittent packages of detective stories.

In one of her last letters, Mrs M. wrote, 'Everyone who leaves here is gone forever.' I knew three travellers who would never return: the big fat Texan, the small Asian of indeterminate nationality, and me.

quarrels of that dreamed-of visit to a romantic city, Amsterdam, Venice, Bangkok. Weary queues in railway stations, pushing their luggage ahead inch by inch. Couples grey and silent with melancholia in any foreign hotel dining-room. Young parents, laden with small children toys nappies bottles, scouring the streets for a bed and breakfast refuge. They were all pleasure-bent but seek and ye shall find does not necessarily apply to travel. Once safe again at home they could forget how awful some, much or most of it had been, bring out their souvenirs, their photos, their edited memories, and plan another holiday.

No sight is better calculated to turn anyone off travel than the departure lounge of a big airport. It's like the inscription on the Statue of Liberty, 'Give me . . . your huddled masses' and let them wait. If attendance at airports was compelled by law we would protest in marches, demonstrations, picket the White House and Parliament, take the case to the World Court, write to The Times, raise the roof. Of our own will we sit there, knee to knee, with our hand luggage and duty-free plastic bags around us, deafened by announcements, wan and palely loitering for anywhere from one to ten hours. We look beaten, exhausted, sick of the whole thing. Then the flight is called, we make the interminable trek to the departure gate, we clamber and crush into a bus or if lucky walk straight on to the aircraft. Inside the plane, our faces change, we toss jokes about, laugh, chat to strangers. Our hearts are light and gay because now it's happening, we're starting, we're travelling again.

have lost. I cannot remember how we got on to the subject of women, perhaps through the chief's fifteen wives. I had been doing simple arithmetic and figured that if the chief was fair and spent a night with each he could visit each wife twice a month, which might not be adequate. The missionary doubted very much whether the chief satisfied his wives. 'Do you believe that they occupy themselves with the pleasure of the woman? Eh bien, moi, je trouve ça humainement dégoûtant. (Well, I find that humanly disgusting.)' I never thought to hear such words from a priest and was astounded. I also wondered if he imagined that all white men were sufficiently informed or concerned to occupy themselves with the pleasure of their women; and was startled to find that his anger on behalf of the women was greater than mine.

I felt more indignant about the heavy work the women do, while the gentlemen tend herds which isn't too bad, or loll. All the time we were talking, young girls and women passed downhill to a valley in front of his house and climbed laboriously back with large water jars on their heads. Does the female sway-back, which is universal, come from this, the young spine bent by these weights? The result is a ugly body; with a deep curve from shoulder to buttocks, and the stomach pushed out. The resultant walk - steady head and shoulders, swinging hips - is fine; but not the deformation of the back. Père Sylvestre said that the men, when choosing a woman, looked at her skin and her jewelry, not at her face and figure, 'as with us. His pity for the women contradicted his saying that the Kirdis were happy. Though the men might well be happy as larks.

On the face of it, missionaries here are a doomed lot. They have been in Africa for over a hundred years and even if conversion to Christianity is merely a head count, I doubt that they are a roaring success. I wouldn't preach anything to the blacks, not anything at all. If they want our kind of medical care, it should be given to them, but ideally by trained black doctors, though that may disturb the Darwinian balance of their world and their lives. A child is born each year; the hardest live. The survivors have to be strong enough to endure this appalling climate and land. Much better to teach the women birth control. But I think nothing will be taught or learned for a very long time, and I do not consider this a disaster, by any means. Who are we to teach? Leave them alone is my cry; let them find their own answers. We cannot understand them and the answers we have found haven't been anything to cheer about, for look at us . . .

I had lunched in the priest's hut, off my ham and heavy bread bought at Mora. The priest gave me sacramental wine, all he had; it tasted like red ink but he did have cool water. (I travel with two bottles of Evian bumping beside me on the seat; their temperature is not quite suitable for hot water bottles but almost.) Now the chief appeared, Père Sylvestre said he expected him. Whenever Père Sylvestre returns from a journey the chief shows up to hear the news. The passion of the blacks for talk, gossip is understandable; they live entirely by word of mouth, and my imagination cannot grasp a life which never, generation after generation, needs the printed page. The radio is unknown and there are few travellers and their own trips are made on foot and limited. They do not visualize the whole of their country; Yaoundé would be another world; and of course nothing at all really exists beyond their own tribal land.

I gave the priest 1,000 francs for medicines; it seemed only right after giving the chief 1,000 francs which I hope he will spend on beads for wives. Ibrahim and I set off in the heat and dust. Ibrahim is growing thinner before my eyes. SK:mv little kingdom, seized from the jungle, and created by will and sweat.

The road to Mokoto, over the mountains, is a back-breaking surface and the view is the best yet. It is dark land, with outcroppings of volcanic rock and then the mountains start behaving well and merging and flowing into each other, and one can see a long way. There are little clumps of huts, stuck away on the hillsides. The Kirdis run out to raise their right arms high in a salute and/or to scream and laugh. They seem to have no pubic hair; they must be a generally un-hairy race, the women's legs and arms are smooth as are the men's faces. Black penises don't look naked, nor do female pudenda (on the contrary, very small and neat like little girls'). The women haul water and wood along the paths, but seem cheerful about it, and I doubt if they do more than the necessary each day. Men can be seen sitting or lying naked on rocks, at ease; time passes. This century has nothing to do with these people.

Mass was taking place; we stood at the door of the more than half empty church. Females on one side, with their heads properly covered; males on the other, properly dressed in shirts and long trousers. The choir was nice. Père Moll, invisible at that distance, preached the sermon which I made out vaguely through the echoes: he was telling them some story from the life of Christ and drawing a moral. It sounded rather like the lecturing I remember from Girl Scout days, but with an added, supernatural sanction. I am allergic to church-going when I can understand the words, so Jean and I moved off to the priest's quarters, with Aya and C. coming after us.

They made themselves at home in the shabby little room that Père Moll and his adjutant priest use for home. It was furnished with a few worn leather chairs, a table with a dusty lace doily and magazines, photographs of something religious on the walls. No one could suggest that these men live in luxury.

The adjutant priest, a big stout, red-faced, quiet, beaming Dutchman, came in. They wear white robes and sandals and topes; I do not know what their order is. He was teased by my friends, who are on terms of great intimacy with the two priests and call them 'tu'; what was he doing ambling around, not working on a Sunday morning, and furthermore joining us in a drink (which the Kolars had ordered, without ceremony, from the priests' affable black boy). He had been taking mass since 6 a.m. and had been up before then; now Père Moll arrived, High Mass being over.

Père Moll is tall, lean to emaciation, with sunken cheeks and a beautiful vertical line down them, very bright grey eyes, thick, wiry short-cut grey hair. He is a handsome man, aged fifty and an Alsatian peasant. He must be made of solid muscle and is unlike any priest I have ever before seen; his most striking quality is his tough maleness. The conversation was entirely joking; Père Moll's Alsatian accent is a treat. I am perplexed by the clergy; do not know the right tone; and besides I now feel so rotten that I could hardly be good company with anyone. We drank whisky and soda (surely madness in this heat), and departed. That evening the two priests

After a delicious lunch, we separated for naps; I fell into a dazed sick heavy sleep. It was cool in the late afternoon, and again we sat under the tree, chatting. Jean is too dogmatic for me; this is because I am dogmatic myself. I have a sudden notion of why history is such a mess: humans do not live long enough. We only learn from experience and have no time to use it in a continuous and sensible way. Thus I know the thirties and forties of this century, but have only been pecking at the fifties and sixties. Jean starts where I leave off. Naturally our conclusions, based on our experiences, are radically different. It is as if the human race was constantly making new road maps, unable to guide itself due to changing directions. Jean has given up hope for his country and his countrymen, finally, since the behaviour of Czechs during the Hungarian revolt in 1956. C. does not speak of himself at all; I have no idea where he came from, what his life was before Africa, and why Africa and the career of a trader. He listens marvellously, the sort of listener who makes everyone talk better and whose laugh is a reward. Conclusions

We waited for the priests and a last drink before driving back to Yaoundé. The natives had told Jean of a gorilla, living near by (place-names mean nothing to me) in the jungle. The said gorilla had kidnapped two girls, at different times. The first was dead when found, the second lived long enough to say that the gorilla had been 'très tendre', had built her a nest in the trees and brought her bananas, but he 'broke her' and she died of it. I said flatly that I did not believe it; Jean believes it absolutely. I said what nonsense; it's against nature. Père Moll, grave for once, said, 'C'est contre tout.' (Did he mean God's plan?) Jean insisted. (N.B. Months later, I asked Solly Zuckerman about this. He roared with laughter. 'Do you know how big a gorilla is?' He held up his pointer finger. 'A gorilla has hardly enough energy for a lady gorilla, let alone strange black girls.') Père Moll began talking of medicine and the blacks. Their stories are unlimited. The blacks, for unknown reasons, believe that gasoline is a splendid cure-all, taken internally. A boy asked Père Moll's permission to give some gasoline to a man with fever.

were in ^{areg} high spirits and their visiting families showed no signs of disgust, dismay, nerves (contagion); they might have been at a party or reunion in a normal village.

The band sat in the shade of some matting held up on poles; four musicians as I remember. (No good going on with how blurred it all is.) Their instruments were hollowed-out sections of tree trunk, made into drums, and a small home-made wooden xylophone. On these, they beat such drumming as I have never heard, every sound different, very fast, very complex. (The musicians were tight too.) The special feature was that some of them had no fingers, all, but only stumps of thumbs; one, I seem to think, beat with the stumps of his wrists, being handless.

To this wild music, in the glare of this sun (veiled always in the oppressive white sky, but still bright and boiling), the leper ladies danced. The Grand Guignol never thought up anything like this. They were dancing the Twist. So here is where it comes from, traced to the source. They do it of course far better than the half-witted whites who now revel in it, and their music is infinitely better and more compulsive. The motion is the same, except that they also writhe and shake their upper bodies, when so inclined. They scream, howl, laugh, jerk, twist. They danced alone, facing us, the newcomers, les blancs, the audience.

There were old women, hags - no adequate word exists that I know of - with rouge dabbed in flat brilliant red circles on their cheeks, beat-up straw hats on their shaved black fuzz, and the shapeless dirty printed calico dresses which must be the missionaries' legacy to African womanhood. Naked under these dresses, obviously; long flat breasts could be seen to bounce and flap beneath the clothes; when they turned round the protuberant native buttocks squirmed - but the buttocks look hard as iron unlike the breasts. Toothless mouths opened to shriek. They were at drunk skunks. I could not look closely enough to see how leprosy had affected them, except for the too obvious ones - those without noses just holes to draw breath in.

There were also little girls, dancing in this awful gathering. I saw no signs of disease on them; either they were visitors, or uninfected children of lepers. One little girl was lovely; I think she was four years old, round face, baby fat arms, tiny turquoises in her ears, a narrow blue ribbon tied around her shaved head and a short blue dress, a proper western kiddie's dress. She danced the Twist faultlessly, dead-pan, torso steady, not sweating, solemn and competent.

I felt faint from the smell, aside from the sight. Jean pointed out several men with a withered stump instead of a foot; more without hands, noses. I think these must all have been arrested cases, though I don't know, but I saw no sores, bandages, blood; and no leonine faces (at what stage does that occur?).

Beyond the dancers, arrayed in an impressive row on the ground, were about eighty bottles of red wine - for continuing the celebration. Jean said they would drink, eat and dance themselves into unconsciousness, as the ~~day~~ wore on. But if you have leprosy, my God what could be better than to dance and drink oneself into unconsciousness as often as possible? I very much hope that charitable funds, contributed throughout the world for the care of lepers, went into buying the booze.

Wringing wet (I was), we left. There is no moving air; even in the car the false wind is hot. I thought that I smelled myself now, and smelled as the blacks do. I spoke of this, still deeply ashamed. It seems at once sisy and inhuman to be so violently affected. Aya and Jean said one never got used to it; you just put up with it, learned control or something. I said that if they smelled so revolting to us, it stood to reason that we must smell in some disgusting way to them. Yes, said Aya, they say we have the 'stale odour of corpses'; they find it sickening. This cheers me; fair's fair; I don't feel so mean-minded and soft. But I still think no one has yet sufficiently considered this aspect of the fact that all men are not brothers. All men, I think, could hardly be more different, alien, hostile; we are one biological genus since any of us can copulate with any of the opposite sex and produce offspring. But I don't believe we are of one species; the definition is too simple.

We drove from the lepers to the Catholics. A priest, called Pere Moll, has created this world and it is imposing. He has been architect and chief builder (literally, physically) of a large brick church, a hospital, a convent, a girls' boarding school, and a day school. With such parishioners as he could collect, he cleared the jungle himself, and goes on doing so now, for their crops. It is a marry because a wife costs 150,000 francs, a fortune. The result is that older men can afford a wife or wives. No woman is faithful; syphilis is general. If a man is caught as an adulterer, he must pay the injured husband a fee for the use of the deceitful wife: tribal courts attend to this. The blacks like children, and illegitimacy is no sin or shame, and the children mooch around contentedly in a general family huddle. It sounds rather nice and cosy and easy-going. The syphilis part is no good though, and perhaps explains some of the deformity I have seen, bad eyes, etc.

The Kolars insist that the blacks have no real feelings of personal affection, individual loyalty. They are attached to their family, they belong in it and would be helpless without it. There are also family customs of hospitality which put the kibosh forever on individual effort. Any relative (and everyone must have dozens and dozens) can come and park on a richer relative, gratis, thus literally eating him out of house and home. No one may refuse this burden or burdens (if richer, more relatives settle in). For if you do refuse you are socially outcast, a swine in the eyes of all; and also, if in need yourself one day, you would not find a single helping hand. There is not much use in getting ahead, acquiring the goods of this world, on the level of the average tribal black (maybe it does not work like this in the higher echelons - a very thin slice of higher echelon exists anyhow). The relatives will hear about prosperity all too soon.

We ate dinner around a blazing fire, outdoors; glorious sausages and rolls and pickles and potatoes roasted in the coals. I would not have believed, after the airless heat of the day - it is like being wrapped in a damp blanket from top to toe and like being slugged - that a fire would be possible; and not only that but a sweater over one's shoulders for the part not exposed to the flames.

Tomtoms began to beat in the jungle. Very loud, very insistent, and curiously frightening. I cannot describe their beat, which was varied; sometimes it gave the impression of a voice screaming a warning and sometimes of a voice mourning. The Kolars said it was just news being sent around; a wedding, a funeral, whatever was going. The blacks talk all day long, endlessly, to each other, about nothing: exact, trivial bits of information. At night, they continue to do so with drums. I see the point, though. If any country could make people frantic to keep in touch, it's this one. You sense that the land is hissing wants no one on it; it feels dark all the time. A kind of panic must be inborn, and people usually natter when afraid - until the point where fear is so great that it produces choked silence.

I should say at once and get it over with that I hate mosquito nets, both for themselves and for what they imply. And dread wriggling myself somehow inside and somehow tucked in and then, hot and stifled, realizing, in the dark, that something else is in with me - what? - a spider, an unknown flying or crawling insect, the insomnia-making mosquito? That's my first and last report on mosquito nets, otherwise I'd talk of them daily. - No re-inventing them

January 28: Sunday. This is the 9th Annual World Day of the Lepers. I saw a notice to that effect in the Yaounde post office, and Jean knows all about it. There is a handy Leprosarium; Africa apparently swarms with these wretched people. At 9.30 a.m. - which is late in the morning - we arrived at the leper colony. We turned off the main dust road on to a dust track and after a few minutes were in a small clearing in the bush. Around a central dust square, the lepers have their houses, square mud shacks with thatched roofs, crumbling. I think there were twenty such huts in all, though I went into a state of shock at the beginning and failed to see well throughout. We had missed the Mayor and other notables (who can they have been?) who made speeches in honour of the day; no one was left except the resident lepers and their visiting families. Apart from small children, everyone was drunk, cheerful to roaring.

Aya wore high-heeled white sandals and a pretty sleeveless cotton bouffant dress, suitable for a garden party. Jean and she know many lepers well; they are clients of the pharmacy. (Lepers move about freely, no quarantine.) My hosts called greetings and shook hands. I was filled with a despicable cowardice; had worn my khaki socks, to keep my feet protected, and now could not touch anyone. I smiled and smiled, it must have looked like a jack o' lantern afflicted with the horrors, and bowed and began to feel that I was not really here, some disembodied part of me was moving around this fearfully hot and abominably smelling place. The lepers shack of a shop, in the African bush, provides them so rich a living that they can spend half the year in Paris where they have a flat. Jean is a writer; he sold his first novel, in French, to the movies. That windfall is allowing them to build a house in Corsica. But the pharmacy is the god mine. The reason for this economic miracle is the blacks' passion for medicines.

They have no children and seem perfectly suited to each other. We sat in the garden and drank whisky and soda. I can hardly swallow anything, and look as if suffering from hunger oedema. Jean's conversation at first startled me; my main impression was that a man so young could hardly talk such trite die-hard Tory stuff. Then I began to think what he knew of the world: the Nazi occupation of his country, and a lack of heroic resistance to it by his people; the Communist occupation and again a lack of resistance; and his escape from that into post-war France where democracy can hardly have been said to shine at its brightest. I keep forgetting the limitations and impoverishment of the experience of the young, especially the Central European young. When you think of it, it is amazing that they can believe in anything, considering what they have seen, none of which was likely to arouse faith. It is not, on the other hand, surprising that these two, who are intelligent and concerned people, should have put their faith where it is safe, because it cannot be disproved, and has a quality of timelessness: in the doctrine and ritual of the Catholic religion.

Both Jean and Aya have had Africa; they are sick to death of it. Though full of contempt for the blacks, intellectually, they get on with the blacks easily and nicely, in practice. They have become French citizens and have the love of the converted or the adopted; great reverence for France as 'civilization'. They consider the white race infinitely superior, and think all the blacks will do on their own is destroy whatever civilization the whites brought them, and revert to their natural savagery. I have no impression that the whites have brought much civilization myself; I feel the whites have brought a certain number of modern conveniences for themselves, have restrained the blacks from a certain amount of mayhem, again for white safety and comfort; and have made money. The missionaries are something else; their object has not been to make money, but I am suspicious of them, mainly because I look at our white world and cannot see that nearly 2,000 years of Christianity has cured our savagery. So it seems conceited to foist off our notions of religion, which we have never practised, on to people whose savagery is after all disorganized, personal and small-scale compared to ours. Missionary schools and hospitals are another matter.

Jean wanted to know about books and writers; Aya about fashions, plays, the Twist. My memory has really gone to rot. I can remember nothing about Europe, scarcely believe it exists; and find it so irrelevant to everything here that it has no interest. inventions!

These two are spell-binding when they talk to me. None of us knows enough to speculate well, and one finds the mind turning ashy with large issues and generalizations. Thus I particularly remember their news on the blacks' passion for medicines. It seems that all the natives, who can afford it, take castor oil constantly and colonic irrigations three times a week. They showed me a picture of a colonic being given to a tiny baby by a large black woman: simple system, the woman spits water up the child's anus. The blacks adore injections, that feared hypodermic needle, and especially adore anything which gives a violent reaction - pain, swelling and fever.

Black medicine is mysterious; a boy was crushed between a wall and a truck, Aya and Jean gave him up for dead, too many broken bones, too much loss of blood. They wanted to take him to hospital (but the blacks do not like hospitals; they like buying their stuff at the pharmacy); his family carried the shattered and unconscious boy away and the witch doctor and herb woman got busy. The Kolars do not know what is done but believe it is herbs, leaves, applied to the body, and unimaginable concoctions to drink. Anyhow the boy returned, walking, in three months.

More: the blacks are all becoming drunkards. They used to drink a home-made beer; having more money they switched to cheap French (or Algerian?) red wine; pinard, as one says. With more money, to rum; the richest now drink whisky. They drink compulsively; having started a bottle it must be finished at one go.

The blacks begin their sex life at about the age of twelve. By twenty, young men are impotent and come to the pharmacy asking for aphrodisiacs. They also use native ones. A young man cannot

"I've seen it piece by piece come together in the past 10 days," Labrake said. "I can't believe it looks like this. It's amazing." Everything has been hoisted 66 feet up to the flight deck by crane, including food, water, lights, generators, television equipment, pallets of cabling, walk-in refrigerators, fork lifts and scores of portable toilets -- an operation that continued Thursday as Navy jets screamed overhead. Security concerns are also paramount, with President Obama scheduled to attend and hundreds of civilians coming aboard one of the Navy's most prized fighting ships. Some issues are more mundane. When North Carolina coach Roy Williams first visited the ship last winter, he asked what he thought was a simple question: How are you going to get all the people up here? "Everybody sort of looked around, like, 'Wait a minute, we hadn't thought of that yet,'" Williams said. The answer: Six flights of scaffolding between the pier and the flight deck, constructed Wednesday. It took 10 days to set up the stadium and it will take four to tear it down. Construction of a backup stadium on the ship's hangar deck in case of inclement weather was abandoned when the forecast cleared. Most of the Carl Vinson's crew is on leave, so the preparations haven't interfered with the ship's operations. From the Navy's perspective, the game is excellent training for the Carl Vinson's upcoming deployment. The ship has seen a wide variety of action. Osama bin Laden was buried at sea from the carrier, which also participated in bringing aid to Haiti after its devastating earthquake and supported military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. "It's actually helping us out because my supply department is learning the details of bringing big loads on and off," said Capt. Bruce Lindsey, the Carl Vinson's commanding officer. "Hosting distinguished visitors -- these are things that we do when we go forward and we're ambassadors for America." The original idea came from Michigan State athletics director Mark Hollis, who has pushed for athletic events in unusual locations, including a hockey game outdoors in Spartan Stadium and a basketball game against North Carolina in Detroit's Ford Field. He reached out to North Carolina in 2008, and it took a joint effort of Morale Entertainment, a nonprofit that puts on events to entertain troops overseas, the Navy and the schools involved to pull it off.

Maintaining U.S. military dominance, Defense Secretary Leon E. Panetta told the Senate Armed Services Committee today.

Panetta and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Navy Adm. Mike Mullen also testified about the situation in Afghanistan and Iraq.

The department, Panetta said, has initiated a strategy-driven focus on the defense budget as it looks to implement $450 billion in savings over the next 10 years.

"While this review is ongoing and no specific decisions have been made at this point, I'm determined to make these decisions strategically, looking at the needs that our Defense Department has to face not just now, but in the future, so that we can maintain the most-dominant military in the world, a force that is agile, ready, capable and adaptable," Panetta said as a preface to his testimony on the current wars.

Panetta listed the guidelines the department will use in looking at any budget cuts.

"First of all, I want to maintain the best military in the world," the secretary said. "Secondly, I do not want to hollow out the force."

The military was down sized following the end of the Vietnam War and again after the fall of the Soviet Union.

The third guideline stresses a balanced approach to reductions.

"I am going to look at all areas," Panetta said. "I'm going to look at efficiencies, reducing overhead, duplication -- there are opportunities to try to achieve... additional savings in those areas."

Panetta said he'll examine defense procurement practices, seeking to tighten the process and encourage competition.

"I'm also going to look at the compensation areas," he said. "The fact is that in some of those areas, the costs have increased by 80 percent." He cited health care costs, specifically, which have risen from $19 billion to $52 billion.

The secretary said he wants changes, but will not break faith with service members.

"I have to do it in a way that does not jeopardize the volunteer force, and to that extent, I've got to maintain faith with those that have gone deployment after deployment, put their lives on the line," he said. "We cannot undermine the commitments we have made to them."

The defense budget has almost doubled over the past decade, Panetta said.

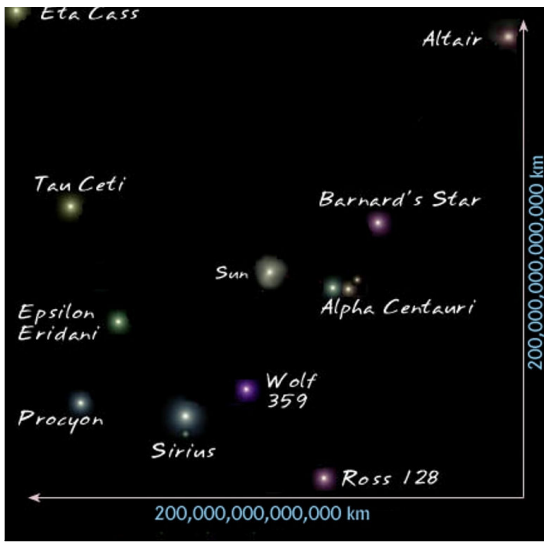

"Now we have to look at a decade where we have to prevent war," he said, "but [also] be able to fight wars and win wars, if we have to, recognizing we have less resources."

If a congressional committee cannot agree how to trim hundreds of billions more from the federal budget as part of efforts to address the national deficit, an automatic mechanism would force defense cuts far above what is currently planned and would seriously endanger the military's ability to defend America and its vital national interests.

"It is kind of a blind formula that makes cuts all across the board and guarantees that we will hollow out the force," Panetta said. "Working with this committee and others in Congress, I'm confident that we can meet our national security responsibilities and do our part to help this country get its fiscal house in order, but at the same time maintain a strong national defense."

"We do not have to make a choice between fiscal security and national security," he said.

KEY WEST, Fla. -- The Navy's newest destroyer, the USS Spruance, is expected to arrive in Key West on Friday ahead of its formal commissioning ceremony Oct. 1. The ship is named in honor of Adm. Raymond Spruance, commander of Carrier Task Force 16 during the Battle of Midway in World War II. Onboard the ship are Tomahawk cruise missiles, a 5-inch gun, sonar systems and two helicopters. Spruance can reach speeds up to 30 knots and is powered by four gas-turbine engines. It will be open for public tours this Saturday and Sept. 30.

The ship is named for Adm. Raymond Spruance, who led U.S. Navy forces in the Battle of Midway and the Battle of the Philippine Sea in World War II. Previously, Spruance's name was on the lead ship of the former Spruance class of destroyers.

Spruance is a multi-mission guided-missile destroyer designed to operate in multi-threat air, surface and subsurface environments. The ship is equipped with the Navy's Aegis Combat System, the world's foremost integrated naval weapon system. The class provides outstanding combat capability and survivability characteristics while minimizing procurement and lifetime support costs are to be programs maturity. The DDG 51 program continues to reinforce approval and efficiency with a commitment to deliver ships at the highest possible quality.

Michael Murphy (DDG 112) is currently under construction at Bath Iron Works and will deliver in fiscal year 2012. DDG 111 and DDG 112 are the last two ships in the Navy's initial production run of this class. DDG 113, to be built by Huntington Ingalls Industry in Pascagoula, Miss., will be the first of the DDG 51 program continuation ships.

PEO Ships is currently managing the design and construction of all U.S. Navy destroyers, amphibious ships, special mission and support ships, as well as a wide range of small boats and craft for U.S. agencies and allied nations. Since its creation in November 2002, PEO Ships has delivered more than 40 major warships and hundreds of small boats and craft from more than 20 shipyards and boat builders across the United States.

Sharon Gillis also suffers from Parkinson's disease and Reflexive Sympathetic Dystrophy (RSD), a chronic neurological syndrome that affects skin, muscles, joints and bones.

She does not have cancer, however, as The Citizen previously reported based on information from a Florida Highway Patrol trooper, her husband said.

Because of the RSD, Sharon Gillis has not been able to work for about 12 years, her husband said.

"She was in constant pain because of the RSD," he said.

Sharon Gillis likely was headed to Key West to visit friends when the crash occurred on U.S. 1 at 7:48 a.m. Sept. 12, her husband said.

He speculated that she was "momentarily distracted" when she drove her 2000 Mercury Sable into the back of a southbound Flowers Baking Co. delivery truck stopped at a red light at Cross Street.

Trooper Gary Dunick noted in his report that she didn't appear to have braked or attempted to swerve to avoid the collision.

She was cited for careless driving and not wearing a seat belt.

Hospital tests were negative for drugs or alcohol, Michael Gillis said.

Two Ramrod Key men in the delivery truck were not hurt, according to the trooper. There were no other vehicles in the crash.

"She was very lucky," Gillis said. "I saw the automobile for the first time yesterday to clean out the trunk and had I seen the car before I saw her, I would have had a heart attack."

"The front end was pushed all the way back to the door. It was a horrible accident."

Michael Gillis said he wants to hold a benefit concert for his wife, but has not had time to organize it.

"I've been at the hospital since last Monday," he said.

1,001 invention projects; reinvent the kidney dialysis machine $77,000 annually per person

$77,000 annually per person Kidney reinvent the dialysis machine

When freed 1,001 Invention Projects on a CD and my web page

A major study challenges the way diabetics and others with failing kidneys have been treated for half a century, finding that three-times-a-week dialysis to cleanse the blood of toxins may not be enough.

Deaths, heart attacks and hospitalizations were much higher on the day after the two-day interval between treatments each week than at other times, the federally funded study found.

The president of the National Kidney Foundation said she was "very troubled" by the results published in Thursday's New England Journal of Medicine.

"We could be doing a better job for our dialysis patients" and that might mean doing it more often, said Dr. Lynda Szczech, a Duke University kidney specialist who had no role in the study.

Kidneys rid the body of waste and fluids. Most of the 400,000 Americans with failing kidneys stay alive by getting their blood purified by a machine three days a week at dialysis clinics — usually on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays or on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. In both cases, there's a two-day break between the last session of the week and the next one.

The three-day dialysis schedule has been around since the mid-1960s and gives patients a weekend break from the grueling hours of being hooked up to a machine.

However, doctors have suspected that the two-day hiatus between treatments was risky, and smaller studies have found more heart-related deaths on the day after the gap.

"All the fluids and toxins are built up to the highest extent on Monday morning right before dialysis," said Dr. Anthony Bleyer of Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center in North Carolina, who has done similar studies.

The latest research, funded by the National Institutes of Health, is the largest yet. It was done by Dr. Robert Foley of the University of Minnesota and colleagues. All reported receiving fees from dialysis clinics and suppliers.

The team analyzed medical records of 32,000 people who had in-center dialysis three times a week from 2005 through 2008. The average age was 62 and a quarter had been on dialysis for a year or less. After about two years of follow-up, 41 percent had died, including 17 percent from heart-related causes.

Monday was the riskiest day for people on a Monday-Wednesday-Friday schedule. For those on a Tuesday-Thursday-Saturday schedule, the riskiest day was Tuesday.

Researchers found a 22 percent higher risk of death on the day after a long break compared with other days of the week. Put another way: For every 100 people on dialysis for a year, 22 would die on the day after the long interval versus 18 on other days.

Hospital admissions for stroke and heart-related problems more than doubled on the day after a long break than on other days — 44 versus 20 for every 100 people treated.

Fixing this problem, however, could be daunting for patients, busy dialysis centers and insurers and it would require a rethinking of how dialysis is currently delivered.

Medicare covers the cost of dialysis, regardless of age, spending about $77,000 annually per person. It covers thrice-weekly treatment, but people can get a fourth session if needed.

Dr. Paul Eggers of the National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases said adjusting how dialysis is done "would require some fairly convincing evidence. I'm not sure this one study would be sufficient to change" standard practice.

Kidney expert Dr. Eli Friedman of SUNY Downstate Medical Center in New York, said he's in favor of every-other-day dialysis or even daily dialysis. But it would mean "a multibillion dollar change," said Friedman, who launched the country's first federally funded dialysis center.

A clinic operator said increasing treatments would require additional staff. And patients also would have to be willing to come in more often.

"They don't even like coming in three times a week. It's completely understandable. It's not fun," said Dr. Allen Nissenson, chief medical officer at Dana-Farber, which runs more than 1,000 clinics around the country.

There has been recent interest in more frequent dialysis after studies hinted that it made people feel healthier.

This year, Medicare started giving clinics a financial incentive to teach patients to do dialysis at home, allowing them to cleanse their blood more often. But this option is not for everyone. It requires intense training and patients need a helper at home.

Unless rules change, Wake Forest's Bleyer said people can take simple steps to reduce their risk by not drinking too much fluid between long dialysis breaks and eating a healthy diet.

"Patients must be a little more careful on the weekend than on other days of the week," he said.

Carol Thomas, who has been on dialysis since 2007, watches her water intake especially on weekends and avoids dairy, beans and nuts, which are high in certain nutrients that can cause complications. v Thomas, of Sacramento, Calif., said home dialysis is not an option because she doesn't have someone to help her. Would she make the trip for dialysis more often if given the choice?

"It's an inconvenience, but probably if it meant lengthening my life," the 69-year-old said.

Streptococcal pharyngitis, streptococcal tonsillitis, or streptococcal sore throat (known colloquially as strep throat) is a type of pharyngitis caused by a group A streptococcal infection. [1] It affects the pharynx including the tonsils and possibly the larynx. Common symptoms include fever, sore throat, and enlarged lymph nodes. It is the cause of 37% of sore throats among children. [2]

Strep throat is a contagious infection, spread through close contact with an infected individual. A definitive diagnosis is made based on the results of a throat culture. However, this is not always needed as treatment may be decided based on symptoms. In highly likely or confirmed cases, antibiotics are useful to both prevent complications and speed recovery

$44 Trillion in Hospital cost next decade all from NBC ads, getting you to eat, drink, get Hepatitis and syphilis!

The estimated cumulative output loss caused by the illnesses, which together already kill more than 36 million people a year and are predicted to kill tens of millions more in future, represents around 4 percent of annual global GDP over the coming two decades, the study said.

"This is not a health issue, this is an economic issue -- it touches on all sectors of society," Eva Jane-Llopis, WEF's head of chronic disease and wellness, said in a telephone interview.

The research was published on Sunday, the eve of a two-day United Nations meeting on chronic, or non-communicable diseases (NCDs), which aims to draw up global action plans to tackle growing levels of death and illness from these costly diseases often linked to diet, tobacco, alcohol and exercise.

According to the World Health Organization (WHO), the worldwide NCD epidemic is expected to accelerate so that by 2030 the number of deaths from NCDs could reach 52 million a year.

While often thought of as diseases of the rich world -- often linked to living on fatty, sugary foods, little exercise and too much alcohol and tobacco -- NCDs now disproportionately affect those in poorer nations. More than 80 percent of NCD deaths are among people in low and middle income countries.

The WEF study, which was conducted with Harvard School of Public Health, found the cumulative costs of heart diseases, chronic respiratory diseases, cancer and diabetes in these poorer countries are expected to top $7 trillion in 2011-2025, an average of nearly $500 billion a year.

Mental health, which is typically left off lists of leading NCDs, will account for $16 trillion -- a third of the overall $47 trillion anticipated costs.

BANKRUPT HEALTH SYSTEMS

Olivier Raynaud, the WEF's senior director of health, said the study showed how families, countries and economies are losing people in their most productive years.

"Until now, we've been unable to put a figure on what the World Health Organization calls the 'world's biggest killers,'" he said in a statement. But these numbers suggest NCDs "have the potential to not only bankrupt health systems but to also put a brake on the global economy," he added.

The U.N. meeting is the only second-ever such high-level meeting to be held on a virtual world network and has been billed as a "once in a generation" opportunity to tackle the predicted wave of these diseases.

But health organizations fear big consumer firms selling processed foods, alcohol and cigarettes could hijack the meeting to protect their own interests and persuade governments away from setting targets or making firm commitments.

The WEF study used three modeling methods to calculate the costs of NCDs -- the WHO's EPIC model, the Value of Statistical Life (VSL) approach and the Cost-Of-Illness (COI) approach.

It found mental illness and heart diseases alone account for almost 70 percent of lost output.

In 2010, the global direct and indirect cost of heart diseases -- which currently kill more than 17 million people a year -- was around $863 billion and is estimated to rise 22 percent to $1,044 billion by 2030.

Overall, the cost for heart diseases could be as high as $20 trillion over the 20 year period, it said.

"Think of what could be achieved if these resources were productively invested in an area like education," WEF's executive chairman Klaus Schwab said. "The need for immediate action is critical to the future of the global economy."

Yoko-Ono tug of war between Aliens + Stay at home with war...

I bought this cd long time ago...

A closer look at the Plastic Ono Band

When freed 1,001 Invention Projects on a CD and my web page

Yoko love Lennon She alone might expose the suppression of the electric windmill car for \$177 Trillion in Oil Revenues! As Lennon would have exposed this in 1981 if he was not killed.

The clanging of the opening bells on Plastic Ono Band announced John Lennon as an artist independent of that hysterical epidemic known as the Beatles.

The succinctly titled "Mother" is an immaculate choice for the kickoff track of Plastic Ono Band.

The first peals resound and dissipate slowly, establishing a period of suspense and a steady time signature, both of which reflect the kind of patience necessary for listeners to fully appreciate this album. If the bells are the question, the held breath, then the answer is the wail that, half a minute in, breaks directly on the beat. Listeners everywhere, even today's twentysomethings, instantly recognize that voice as Lennon's. It is transcendent, layered, almost like a man echoing himself.

In 1970, fresh off the breakup of the Beatles, Lennon enlisted the help of producer Phil Spector, who had recently pieced together Let It Be from abandoned recording sessions. Lennon's managed to dial down the "wall of sound" style of mixing for which the producer was known. The result is a lo-fi, pared-down return to the core elements of rock music.

Emotional turmoil is the operative phrase for this album. This comes across most clearly in the vocals. Between the Beatles' split and the recording of Plastic Ono Band, John Lennon and Yoko Ono turned to a new type of therapy. It was called Primal Therapy.

Essentially, the patient relieves repressed trauma, often from childhood, by expressing the attached emotions. Usually, this meant screaming. Lennon's traumas included the dissolution of his immediate family and loss of his mother in a car accident. Anger and sadness translated into the louds and softs of Lennon's music. This is why Plastic Ono Band revels in extremes.

The vocals can be delicate, as in "Hold On," or lullaby-esque, as in the underrated "Look at Me," which is quietly heartbreaking. These calm moments are few and far between, however. Listeners are more frequently subjected to agonized screaming, as on "Mother," which showcases Lennon begging his parents not to abandon him. "Momma don't go, daddy come home," he sings repeatedly.

The album abandons its affinity for extremes on "God," which is one of the highlights. Its lyrics are honest but with less angst. The music combines the best parts of the rest of the album: a rolling, reliable beat, an emotive piano part with just enough flourishes to keep it interesting, and brief rests in all the right places.

This album is also full of strong, chugging rhythms. On the sixth track, "Remember," the piano chords over a consistent time signature act as a steady force. This counterbalances the emotionally charged vocals, which are retrospective and end with a plea to "Remember, remember the fifth of November" - a reference to Great Britain's Guy Fawkes Day, in which the individual in question, Guy Fawkes, was caught under Parliament with explosives. An interesting comment, perhaps, on how Lennon conceptualized this album.

The emotional intensity reaches a peak on "Well Well Well," track eight. The rhythms at once keep the song from coming off the rails, but also contribute to a pervasive manic feeling. They speed up, launching into cut time at one point, pulling us toward an emotional release. Then, suddenly, we are dropped back into a slower beat. The result is almost physical discomfort, especially when combined with Lennon's escalating screams. While this is one of the more difficult tracks to sit through, there is something about it that compels you to hear it out. To turn it off would be like walking out of the room while someone is having a breakdown.

Plastic Ono Band is an exercise in patience. It is a tug-of-war between exorcising past demons and making peace with the present. This is all done very publicly. Lennon freely acknowledged the correlation between his childhood traumas and current fame, saying in an interview, "The only reason I am a star is because of my repression. Nothing else would have driven me through all that if I was 'normal.'"

Lennon leaves little room for uncertainty concerning his intentions with the album. In some ways his honesty is commendable. In other ways, one cannot ignore the collateral damage. Some of the music is challenging for listeners, though it accomplishes what all music should, on a very basic level. It elicits a strong emotional response. It is worthwhile to consider whether or not this album would have been given the time it deserves if Lennon's name were not on the cover.

Do people give it another listen because it's Lennon, because they have a blind trust in his fundamental skill as an artist? Whether or not this type of license is fair is not for me to decide, but in this case I think it's very safe to say the album benefits from the extra attention. This album gives back what it gets in that respect, and then some.

The 510-foot, 9,200-ton USS Spruance will sail into Key West Friday afternoon, touching off a week of pomp and pageantry to herald the ship's Oct. 1 commissioning. The ship is the first naval vessel to be formally commissioned in the island city that has hosted countless military vessels, aircraft and personnel throughout its storied history.

With flags proudly flying and its crew lined up along the rails, the Spruance will navigate Key West's main ship channel about 2 p.m. Friday and dock at the Navy's Mole Pier. The best view of its arrival will be from Fort Zachary Taylor and the human waterfront area, and the public is encouraged to welcome the ship and its crew upon arrival, said Trice Denny, public affairs specialist for Naval Air Station Key West.

Private vessels may also welcome the Spruance from the water, but will be asked to adhere to safety distances established and enforced by the Navy and Coast Guard.

17 June 2011 NBC Nightly News last night with Brian Williams had A North Vietnam General on who killed 100's in one FireFight... along with a Medal of Honor Winner who Today works at NBC who won the Medal in the same FireFight half the Troops were killed in.

17 June 2011 NBC Nightly News last night with Brian Williams... Both the North Vietnam General now 80 and the NBC Vietnam Vet holding hands hugging talking about how long the General knew in hours days before the 100's of Huey Helicopters flew into the "ambush".

The North Vietnam General knew from his Intelligence hours and days ahead of the USA helicopter attack and he set up the "ambush" plans...

This was Brian Williams news story, did we really need this on NBC Nightly News just because the one guy won the Medal of Honor from this "ambush" that killed hundreds of other USA Army troops in his company.

He save 14 guys in the "ambush" and won the Medal of Honor... the 100's of USA troops who died in this "ambush" got a death sentence!

War is Hell! This is why. Brian Williams is infatuated with this NBC employee who won the Medal of Honor!

NBC Brian Williams went on and on about these 2 old enemies now holding hands with clenched fingers and its meaning in Vietnam.

Super sentimental Brian Williams going on and on about these 2 old enemies while all the time Brian Williams at NBC Nightly News knows 100 kids in the USA sit on death row and will die in Left in Hot Cars in the Summer of 2011.

NBC Should Fire Brian Williams!

17 June 2011 Hundreds of FireFights and massacre's took place in Vietnam and this one on this March 16th 1968... Brian Williams NBC Nightly News story yesterday only because a NBC employee won the Medal of Honor in this Firefight.

North Vietnam Generals today go along with the killing of kids left in hot cars... with no 24/7 air conditioning like the ElectricWindmillCar would have.

Letterman jokes all the Fiery LA Car Wrecks are kept in Leno's Garage for spare parts. GEORGE ORWELL could never have written a Psychotic Novel as Today's "1984" and the PLOT is caused by GREED FOR ANOTHER $177 TRILLION FROM BP OIL REVENUES! Stifled are Greg Buell Lovestar and his 4 MD Wives, from "Brainstorming" the Rx Cure for Breast Cancer. GodSend was the "ElectricWindmillCar". "Windmill" reading George Orwell's "Animal Farm" GodSend for the Rx Penicillin's Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer could come from Reading Hemingway at a Beach in Key West, if 4 MD women in Bikini's could be heard like the 4 teen girls finding a FISH and screaming at it at low tide, grin. Key West Women will scream when Gregs gets the Rx Breast Cancer Cure reading Hemingway at a Beach in Key West. Key West Women scream at the fish, and at the "OJ" done just before he kills her. 14 June 2011 at Beach in Key West

14 June 2011 and just about every day Greg Buell Lovestar is at a Beach in Key West Reading Hemingway, to find the "Windmill" in George Orwell's "Animal Farm" that got the "ElectricWindmillCar" in 1980 during the Saudi Oil Embargo. I do get an invention project a day from reading Hemingway at the Beach, George Orwell's Observers in 2011 Key West know I Need to Brainstorm 24/7 with 4 MD wife's to get the Rx Penicillin's Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer! Key West Admiral or whom ever is "George Orwell" commander of our "Orwellian Society" stifles Greg from Brainstorming the Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer. I have been in Key West for almost 4 months in this time 40,000 women a month have died a tortured death from Breast Cancer - Only in an "BP Oil Genocide Era" and Society could "Key West Women" let the Admiral stifle Greg Buell Lovestar from "Brainstorming the Rx Cure for Breast Cancer with 4 MD Wives... GodSend was the ElectricWindmillCar - GodSend for the Rx Breast Cancer cure will not come from our "Orwellian Caesar's" - Stand-Up To Breast

MARY H
Some activity inside the head has accompanied my movements through space and time, producing questions without answers. I wonder how it is that Homo sapiens with his majestic achievements in the arts, philosophies and technologies, has paid so little attention to the preservation of his species that he continues, more vicious than almost all other animals, destroying his own breed, for power or pride or pelf. I wonder why he underrates the uses of decency and compassion while overrating machinery and its mystiques, devoting half a billion dollars and inestimable energies to a ballyhooed handshake in the sky—Apollo-Soyuz—while fumbling its meaning on Earth's surface. I wonder how it happens that the great brains of the U.S.A. have felt so little responsibility for the lesser brains that nineteen million of us are now discovered to be illiterate; that our vaunted economies have permitted deficit spending programs to enclose us in a mighty tower built mostly of sand and false reliance on the future; that with six percent of Earth's population we heedlessly consume forty percent of its goods. Where has foresight gone?

I wonder if H. sapiens harbors an unrecognized, built-in self-destruct mechanism, or if scattered warnings and the Club of Rome—altruism is not charity but necessity—will serve to correct our atrocious housekeeping. Can heuristic research and global action save one-third of our planet's people from malnutrition, with damage to brain as well as body, or starvation; prevent disastrous climatic changes—deserts spreading—or arrest the pollution of oceans, rivers and air, and the damage to Earth's ozone buffer? Will twentieth-century despoilers leave anything to posterity except our sphere's—oval's—empty shell? BP Oil $6000

Since the beginning of this century, man has devoured more natural resources than in all previous history. Can he or will he reverse that course? Who will instigate such global action? Are there members of our species broad enough of perception, deep enough of concern for mankind and strong enough in determination to persuade warring neighbors to live and let live and join an effort to rescue Earth? Not long ago R. Buckminster Fuller, a master in circles of such thinking, publicly reaffirmed his faith in man's capacity to adapt to changing environments, to develop new capabilities, and so to survive. "We have the option," he said, I find his cool appraisal solacing, even though an option may not imply hope.

Twenty years ago I sat alone one evening at Pauline's pool in Key West watching starlight flicker on the water and wondering how it was I got there, what unrolling skein of a life had drawn me there from northern Minnesota, a path disparate from those of my childhood friends. Our Professor Smith in Bemidji had said that the children of pioneers tend to move farther on, and most of my schoolmates had ventured farther, a day's drive or so. But few had ranged as far as I had, except in wartime service. Was I a maverick, an unintentional nonconformist? (My father had said, "Never be a sheep.")

In the gallimaufry of decisions which dictate a life's direction, which 22 May 2011 Mary asked President Kennedy if she could talk to Fidel... when Kennedy had plans to kill Fidel so he got mad as Hell at Mary Hemingway referring to her face to face via the book "Ship of Fools" and other comments to her at the table in the clippings below.

22 May 2011 Mary Hemingway wonders who is going to "instigate the rescue of humanity from VICIOUS people" who are the Ruling Classes actually.

22 May 2011 VICIOUS is the way Mary Hemingway ended her book "How it Was" Mary had this realization after a White House dinner with President Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Oppenheimer.

Vicious - Kennedy wanted to kill Fidel not talk to him, today Caroline Kennedy will kill 100 kids who sit on death row in hot cars - Vicious BP Oil Men want $177 Trillion in oil Mor Circulating among the White House guests as we drank cocktails before dinner, I found some of the Nobel Prize winners shy but kindly, Mrs. J. Robert Oppenheimer being the liveliest and prettiest of the few wives the Prize winners had brought along. I noticed Miss Pearl Buck surreptitiously scratching notes on a pad half hidden by her dress, heard a whisper that the President had supervised the dinner seating, found a chance to tell Mrs. George Marshall how profoundly I had admired her husband before dinner was announced.

President Kennedy had seated Mrs. Marshall on his right, me on his left and Dr. Carl Anderson, a winner in physics from California, on my left. After preliminary niceties I suggested to our host that the U.S. government's position toward Cuba was stupid, unrealistic, and worse, ineffective, especially—sotto voce—since the Bay of Pigs fiasco.

President Kennedy was looking irked and impatient. As the dinner courses were changed, he turned to Mrs. Marshall. I turned to Dr. Anderson and asked, "If an enemy were to bomb this room at this moment, how much, do you think, of our technological knowledge would be lost?"

"Not very much," Dr. Anderson said. "As you may have observed, most of us fellows here are elders. All those young scientists, working away in our laboratories, already know what we learned; they'll go forward with their research."

I was pinching salt from the President's salt dish, and when he turned away for a moment from Mrs. Marshall, I said, "I could jump into Cuba, you know. The Cubans liked my husband, and I know Fidel."

"Have you read Katherine Anne Porter's Ship of Fools?" the President asked.

"No. I'm sorry. If I talked to Fidel . . ."

"You are rated as politically unreliable," said the President.

"You haven't checked M.I. 5," said I, and subsided. I had never been a knee-deep member of any political party. The Robert Kennedys drove me to Bill Walton's house, where I was staying.

Mary Hemingway sat alone one evening at the Hemingway House pool here in Key West watching the flickering of trillions of stars wondering how she and Greg got here, Key West an Earth. Trillions of stars flicker on pools in Key West, Gregs sits home alone waiting to brainstorm 1,001 Invention Projects with Wives like Mary Hemingway - WHO at the UN will not instigate the the brainstorming of the husband wives cure for breast cancer because they fear our Orwellian Caesar more than Aliens and God!

22 May 2011 OJ Clones are VICIOUS, and the Ruling Class who suck up to them rationalize for all the wrong reasoning, reasons! 25k were murdered, gov did not break it down as to how many were OJ type murders but we can realize its over 50%! 90% of this 25,000 murders were women killed by men, mostly black males. This is why the gov statistics dept did not break down the stats!

22 May 2011 WHO at the UN is not going to instigate a CURE to save women from being murdered via Gas Lobotomy or help Greg brainstorm a Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer as WHO at the UN is a Criminal Organization that is VICIOUS in its goings along with a criminal United Nations!

22 May 2011 100 kids sit on death row in hot cars because the UN goes along with the suppression of the Electric Windmill Car with its 24/7 Climate Control accessory, and its other newly invented accessories gasoline cars could never ever come with.

22 May 2011 Like the 31 year old shuttle Atlantis NASA is going to blast off on July 8th, kids will die in a hot car on July 8th! VICIOUS how vicious is this by NASA not to warn people watching the Atlantis Shuttle Blast off not to leave your kid in a hot car at the Cape? How VICIOUS is Caroline Kennedy, knowing all this too?

22 May 2011 VICIOUS is Bill Gates not pre installing 1,001 Invention Projects spelled out with links you can click on to get started invented, Gregs new OS and PC will have this and an Inventor Operating System!

22 May 2011 VICIOUS is Saudi Arabia buying organs from dead kids, some who died in hot cars while American kids wait for the same organ for a transplant... Bush has been selling organs to his Saudi friends for decades, this is Vicious!

Hemingway's foreword to Treasury for the Free World, edited by Ben Raeburn (New York: Arco, 1946), presents his opinions about the postwar world and the atomic bomb.

ORwell - Now that the wars... KIDS HOT CARS

Now that the wars are over and the dead are dead and we have bought whatever it is we have it is a good time to publish books like this.

We have come out of the time when obedience, the acceptance of discipline, intelligent courage and resolution were most important into that more difficult time when it is a man's duty to understand his world rather than simply fight for it.

To understand we must study. We must study not simply what we wish to believe. That will always be skillfully presented for us. We must try to examine our world with the impartiality of a physician. This will be hard work and will involve reading much that is unpleasant to accept. But it is one of a man's first duties now.

LOBOTOMY GAS $4 Ga!

It will be our duty, when we have sufficient valid knowledge, to disagree, to protest, even to revolt and to rebel and still work always toward finding a way for all men to live together on this earth.

UNIVERSITY

It has been necessary to fight. It has been necessary to kill, to maim, to burn and to destroy. Certainly for a country whose continent has never been bombed we have done our share of bombing. We have possibly killed more civilians of other countries than all our enemies did in all the famous massacres we so deplore. There is really very little favorable difference to a man or a woman between being burned alive or stood against a wall and shot.

LAWRECKS

We have waged war in the most ferocious and ruthless way that it has ever been waged. We waged it against fierce and ruthless enemies that it was necessary to destroy. Now we have destroyed one of our enemies and forced the capitulation of the other. For the moment we are the strongest power in the world. It is very important that we do not become the most hated.

Chapter Five: 1941-1952 Bully

It would be easy for us, if we do not learn to understand the world and appreciate the rights, privileges and duties of all other countries and peoples, to represent in our power the same danger to the world that Fascism did.

A-Bomb We have invented the sling and the pebble that will kill all giants: including ourselves. It is simple idiocy to think that the Soviet Union will not possess and perfect the same weapon.

Gas lobotomy This is no time for any nation to have any trace of the mentality of the bully. It is no time for any nation to become hated. It is no time for any nation even to swagger. Certainly it is no time for any nation to jostle. It is no time for any nation to be anything but just.

OS clones - A WAR.

In this new world all of the partners will have to relinquish. It will be as necessary to relinquish as it was necessary to fight. No nation who holds land or dominion over people where it has no just right to it can continue to do so if there is to be an enduring peace. The problems this brings up can not be examined in this foreword. But we must examine them and examine them intelligently, impartially and closing our eyes to nothing.

10 Near Stars

This book has one advantage. The various articles are not full of the knowledge after the fact of the use of the release of atomic energy. We need to study and understand certain basic problems of our world as they were before Hiroshima to be able to continue, intelligently, to discover how some of them have changed and how they can be settled justly now that a new weapon has become a property of a part of the world. We must study them more carefully than ever now and remember that no weapon has ever settled a moral problem. It can impose a solution but it cannot guarantee it to be a just one. You can wipe out your opponents. But if you do it unjustly you become eligible for being wiped out yourself.

In Germany our military courts have sentenced a sixty year old German woman to be hanged as one of a mob which brutally murdered American aviators who had parachuted to the ground in Germany. Why hang her? Why not burn her at the stake if we wish to make martyrs?

For the Germans know whether any sixty year old German women were ever killed by fighter pilots, on their way back from missions, coming down to strafe German villages. As far as I know we never hanged any pilots for going down on the deck and doing a little strafing. German civilians, strafed in Germany, feel much the same about it as Spanish civilians strafed in Spain by Germans or as American civilians would feel if the Germans had ever been able to strafe them.

can civilians would feel if the Germans had ever been able to strafe them.

Say you've been down on the deck; sometimes there were comic incidents. Often they looked comic from the air. Nothing blew up like ambulances (which proved the Germans carried munitions in them). Always plenty comic instances when you have command of the air. Comic to you, I believe in shooting up everything, myself, and getting it over with. (You shouldn't say that. That's too much like war.) But you cannot expect them not to be excited if you fall into their hands.

Air-Marshal Harris is on record as to what he wished to do to the German people. We were fighting the German people as well as the German army. The Germans fought the British people as well as the British army. The German army fought the Russian people and the Russian people fought back. That is war and to fight a war any other way is playing dolls.

But the secret of future peace is not in hanging sixty year old women because they killed fliers in hot blood. Hang or shoot those who starved and beat and tortured in cold blood. Hang or shoot those who planned the war and would plan another. Hang or shoot deliberate war criminals. Deal with the S.S. and the voluntary Party members as they should be dealt with. But do not make martyrs of sixty year old women who killed in anger against force which had become so strong it no longer had any conscience or any feeling of evil doing.

To win a war you have to do things that are inconceivable in peace, and that are often hateful to those who do them. That is they are hateful for a while. Afterwards some people get used to them. Some get to like them. Everyone wants to do everything, no matter what, to get it over with. Once you are involved in a war you have to win it by any means.

Oil Greed Saudi Arabia

The military, in order to maintain their status and certain safeguards of their status, would like to have war fought by rules. The air-forces steadily smashed through all these rules and developed a realistic war in which nations fought nations; not armies armies.

Electric Windmill Car

9/11 An aggressive war is the great crime against everything good in the world. A defensive war, which must necessarily turn to aggressive at the earliest moment, is the necessary great counter-crime. But never think that war, no matter how necessary, nor how justified, is not a crime. Ask the infantry and ask the dead.

Chapter Five: 1941-1952

We have fought this war and won it. Now let us not be sanctimonious; nor hypocritical; nor vengeful nor stupid. Let us make our enemies incapable of ever making war again. Let us re-educate them, and let us learn to live in peace and justice with all countries and all peoples in this world. To do this we must educate and re-educate. But first we must educate ourselves.

Malcolm Cowley was one of the most influential critics in the United States and in 1944 had edited The Viking Portable Hemingway. In this letter Hemingway shares his opinions about some of his contemporaries. From Selected Letters, pp. 693-695.

17 October and 14 November 1945

Dear Cowley:

It was awfully good to hear from you. A few days after I got the book and liked the introduction very much. See what you mean about the nocturnal thing now. Hope will have some luck writing now to get you some good new specimens to get the old scalpel to work on.

You see it's awfully hard to talk or write about your own stuff because if it is any good you yourself know about how good it is—but if you say so yourself you feel like a shit. My kids are the only people I ever talk to about my stuff or what have always been trying to do. They know Dos and they love to hear about Scout and Jim Joyce and how things truly were instead of the accepted version. There surely is a great difference. They will ask, "Papa what is the true gen on so and so or such and such." The gen is RAF slang for intelligence, the hand out at the briefing. The true gen is what they know but don't tell you. The true gen very hard to obtain.

Had no idea we had so much early life in common. It was a fine life wasn't it? Feel very bad to hear you are having trouble with deafness. If we have to lose one, though, that is the one to lose. But no fun to lose any of them.

I'd no idea Faulkner was in that bad shape and very happy you are putting together the Portable of him. He has the most talent of anybody and he just needs a sort of conscience that isn't there. Certainly no nation can exist half free and half slave no man can write half whore and half straight. But he will write absolutely perfectly straight and then go on and on and not be able to end it. I wish the christ I owned him like you'd own a horse and train him like a horse and race him like a horse—only in writing. How beautifully he can write and as simple and as complicated as autumn or as spring.

I'll try and write him and cheer him up.

We'll have to get together and talk when get up to N.Y. Don't know when that will be though. I'm working good now. Work every morning; haven't had a drink in the night nor until after finish work for a couple of months. That's the hardest thing to do when you come back from a war. You get to using the old Giant Killer and it is able to fix up practically anything. I remember in Spain I'd have to have about two shots before I could even look at the map but after the two shots it didn't look so bad as all that—even when it was awful. Then after it is over you have to boil it all out of your system and only take what is useful to you to relax after working and not lie to yourself nor kid yourself and it is always a tough process. . . .

You know I could never read Katherine Ann P[orter]. I just can't read it. Seems so terribly dull. Not phony like that Carson McCullers but just too dull to live.

When Kenneth Burke was writing well I was too uneducated to understand him. Would like to re-read it now. You see when you guys were first writing I had only been through high school. I knew Italian from the war and had kept on with it and knew a little German. Was getting start on education in Paris same time as was learning to write (mostly books from Sylvia Beach's until I learned French and then, after, Spanish. Every year keep on studying, keep on reading and every year study some thing new to keep head learning. Learning is a hell of a lot of fun. Don't see why can't keep it up all my life. Certainly plenty to learn.

Certainly didn't do very well at getting that letter off!

Been working every day and going good. Make a hell of a dull life too. But it is more fun than anything else. Do you remember how old Ford was always writing how Conrad suffered so when he wrote? How I was un metier du chien (a dog's trade) etc. Do you suffer when you write? I don't at all. Suffer like a bastard when don't write, or just before, and feel empty and fucked out afterwards. But never feel as good as while writing. fucked out

When the Team Six members reached Osama bin Laden's compound in Abbottabad one of the choppers hit the high wall of the compound and made a "controlled but hard landing," according to reports. It seems that the tail rotor visible in the picture belongs to a highly modified version of the H-60, the chopper of choice of the special forces for more than 30 years. Aviation Week doesn't beat around the bush, claiming: "A previously undisclosed, classified stealth helicopter apparently was part of the U.S. task force that killed Osama bin Laden in Pakistan."

Stealth technology on helicopters is not itself new, but the fact that a previously unknown machine was used in this raid is yet another proof of the degree of importance that this mission had for U.S. commanders. (See pictures of Osama bin Laden's Pakistan hideaway.)

This would explain why the Seals wasted critically precious time to blow up the mysterious helicopter and why many experts had problems identifying its remains. It's unclear what Pakistan could have made of the downed chopper, but growing ties between Pakistani and Chinese armed forces could have made the destruction of such new machine a must. China and Pakistan, over the past two decades, have developed a multi role combat aircraft called JF-17 and an advanced trainer, the JL-8.

A Hello to Aliens in the 10 Nearest Stars, all 10 within 10 Light Years of Earth

"A Farewell to Arms" Although it's considered a fictional work, the content is semi-autobiographical, since Hemingway used his real-life relationship with nurse Agnes von Kurowsky while working as an ambulance driver in WWI-era Italy as the basis for the two main characters. As he was writing the novel, his wife Pauline was having a rather difficult childbirth, and he used that experience in the book as well. The story centers on the protagonist, Frederic Henry ("Henry"). Frederic narrates the story, and is an American ambulance driver during the war. He's a typical guy in that he enjoys women, alcohol, and the camaraderie he finds with the soldiers he hangs out with. Although considered "one of the guys" he has a soft spot for the British nurse he meets, named Catherine Barkley.

Hemingway's last two lines in "A Farewell To Arms" are "It was like saying good-by to a statue. After a while I went out and left the hospital and walked back to the hotel in the rain." The End

I thought it was strange of Hemingway never to mention the Eiffel Tower and the guillotine in both books The Sun Also Rises and Farewell to Arms. I have read several research books and nothing has been written about this. Kennedy Library has a billion pages relating to Hemingway that are not published yet.

Agnes von Kurowsky

Her extensive correspondence with Hemingway between 25th September 1918 and 7th March 1919 survives; unfortunately, none of his letters to her have been found as her subsequent fiancé, Dominico

Carracciolo, made her destroy them. However, from her letters, the spontaneous affection contained therein, the repeated references to how much she misses him after he goes back to the front, and to their future together, we may certainly deduce that, although these may have been written lightly by an experienced woman enjoying her wartime affair with a younger man, at the same time they might not have been, and it is easy to see how Hemingway may have been misled: "Tesoro Mio; oh most longed for! Yours, Agnes" (Oct 20th); "Dear boy, I think every day how nice it would be to feel your arms around me again... Oh Kid, I do miss you - & more each day, I do believe" (Oct 21st); "Don't let me gain you only to lose you, after I've just found out what I've gained... I know very well you are going to live to a ripe old age, & no little war is going to separate us" (Oct 25th); "Thank God you've got a keen sense of humour! I can't imagine anything more awful than to have to live a life with anyone who hasn't got one. I think you are just about the most companionable man I ever knew" (Oct 28th); "I never imagined anyone would be so dear & necessary to me" (Oct 29th). Von Kurowsky's diaries lend a further insight - these documents, not intended for consumption by anyone other than herself, but which unfortunately end in mid-October, show that at least for a time, her involvement with Hemingway may have been more than frivolity, although the prevailing tone is of the...

...older woman having a bit of fun and quite amused at the extent of the young man's ardour: "All I know is Ernie is far too fond of me, & speaks in such a desperate way every time I am cool... Poor kid, I am sorry for him". (August 27th) As to Hemingway's side of things, it is clear that he was in love with Agnes. He wrote extensively about her in his letters home, and looked forward to introducing her to his family. She was very pretty, and, as other patients at the time have testified, most of the patients in the hospital were in love with her. The romance in the hospital took place through August and September. It seems it was not consummated. Most of the lovers' time was spent in Hemingway's room, while Agnes was on night duty, or on his balcony. After he became able to get around on crutches, Hemingway took her shopping, to restaurants, to the races, and by mid-September, he was so certain of her love that he felt able to take a ten-day holiday with John W. Miller Jr. It was the last time they spent any significant amount of time together. When he returned to Florence, he was shocked to learn that she was leaving the comfortable, uncrowded hospital in Milan for a hospital in Florence that had been swamped with influenza victims. He went to visit some friends on the front to keep himself occupied, but was almost immediately sent back to Milan with jaundice, and before he knew it, the war was over. Hemingway sailed home to Genoa in early January having only seen Agnes on three brief occasions in the three months since she went to Florence. Although her letters continue to make reference to their future life together, and one had hinted that she might marry him in a year or so - "I sometimes wish we could marry over here, but, since that is so foolish I must try & not think of it" (Dec 1st) biographers point to the possibility that it was due to her that their meetings were so sparse (there were several near-misses),¹³ and to the increasing number of references to their age-difference in letters.¹⁴ It seems clear, however, that Hemingway's motivation for going home was to start a career so that he could marry Agnes - even his tone of masculine bravado in writing to male friends such as James Gamble is pierced by indications: "The girl doesn't know when she will be coming home. I'm saving money... Maybe she won't like me now I've reformed but then I'm not very seriously reformed". Meanwhile Agnes was becoming every more doubtful, and soon after she met a dashing Italian 1st Lieutenant, the rank, incidentally, Hemingway continually lied about holding in letters home, the heir to a dukedom, named Dominico Carracciolo, she wrote to Ernest on 7th March breaking it off.

Hemingway killed her in the last page of the book "Farewell to Arms" she died having a baby a true story of his real wife Pauline Marie Pfeiffer was born July 22, 1895.

Hemingway: a biography By Jeffrey Meyers

I could not buy this book for lack of extra money as I have applied to 15 of the Key West Hotels and none will hire me, because of this Orwellian Society but I will buy a used copy at Amazon when I do get a job as Jeffrey Meyers writes about Hemingway saving Pauline's life when she was bleeding to death, Hemingway kept going when the MD in the room working his wife gave up. Wow! YouTube must me allowed to watch all MD's!

After meeting Ernest and Hadley Hemingway at a party in Paris in 1925, the three became friends, with Hadley becoming less and less a part of the picture. In the fall of 1926, Ernest and Pauline, now an item, agreed to a condition Hadley requested before she would agree to the divorce.

In 1925, F. Scott Fitzgerald released The Great Gatsby. Hemingway read the book in one day when Scott gave him a copy.

Hemingway went through stages from stunned, to sick, to furious, over Agnes breaking it off and while he wrote to friends boasting of erasing it all with a course of booze and women, it remained an emotional wound of enduring consequence, appearing in his writing in four separate novels killing her in his writing until as late as "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" in 1936. wow Is this a cure for this?

Hemingway's last two lines in "A Farewell To Arms" are "It was like saying good-bye to a statue. After a while I went out and left the hospital and walked back to the hotel in the rain." The End Penicillins antibiotics bind to and inhibit enzymes needed for the synthesis of the bacteria cell wall. While they have little effect on resting bacteria, they are lethal to dividing bacteria as defective walls cannot protect the organism from bursting the bacteria's cell wall killing it. This is the Miracle Cure via Penicillins. Those who received the 1st generations of penicillins perfected the correct dose, the mg and pills per day ie injections of Penicillins. Years and years before the dose from the Medical Researchers was gotten right. None of this Medical Research is for the general public's knowledge, sorry! Yale Key West Medical School the Medical Researchers will be doing this 1st generation dose and use for 100's of futuristic "Penicillins" and the Tourists can watch live medical research as a Tourists Attraction in Key West at the Yale Key West Medical School!

Hemingway at the Mayo Clinic he received the 1st generation electro shock, not the Electro convulsive therapy (ECT).

Mayo Clinic MD's knew nothing of electro shock physiology, its the same today with many treatments at the Mayo Clinic... one being... testosterone therapy

Mayo Clinic... one being... Growth Hormone (GH)

100,000 kids have gotten without Mayo Clinic fully knowing what is going on in its physiology!

Human growth hormone (HGH; also called somatotropin) is a protein of 191 amino acids. The GH-secreting cells are stimulated to synthesize and release GH by the intermittent arrival of growth hormone releasing hormone (GHRH) from the hypothalamus. GH promotes body growth by: · binding to receptors on the surface of liver cells. · This stimulates them to release insulin-like growth factor-1 (IGF-1; also known as somatomedin) · IGF-1 acts directly on the ends of the long bones promoting their growth

Clarence Hemingway shot himself on December 6, 1928

5 total suicide, but numerous attempts. Started with Ernest Hall, who attempted suicide; however his son-in-law took the bullets out of the gun. When Ernest pulled the trigger, the gun was empty. His son-in-law was Ed Hemingway.

Ernest Hemingway shot himself in the head. He left six children, three of which killed themselves. Leicester, Ursula, and Ernest Hemingway all killed themselves. Years later, Margaux Hemingway, a famous fashion model/actress and sister to Mariel Hemingway also killed herself.

Only the people doing Medical Research today at Yale and Mayo Clinic can search their Google for the story on the 1st 1,000 patients given Penicillins and the 1st 1,000 patients given electro shock. Electro convulsive therapy can differ in its application in three ways: electrode placement, frequency of treatments, and the electrical waveform of the stimulus. These three forms of application have significant differences in both adverse side effects and positive outcomes.

Electro convulsive Shock (ECS) hippo campus, a richly connected area deep in the temporal lobe which is vital in controlling both mood and memory via hormones.

ECT on long-term memory, ECT can include amnesia, both retrograde and anterograde.

Memory loss and confusion are more pronounced with bilateral electrode placement rather than unilateral, and with outdated sine-wave rather than brief-pulse currents.

The vast majority of modern treatment uses brief pulse currents. Research by Harold Sackeim has shown that excessive current causes more risk for memory loss, and using right-sided electrode placement may reduce verbal memory disturbance.

But some people have persistent losses, especially with bilateral ECT. 55% of respondents believed they experienced long-lasting or permanent memory changes,

Considering testosterone therapy to help you feel younger and more vigorous as you age? Know the risks before you make your decision. By Mayo Clinic staff

The possibilities of testosterone therapy are enticing – increase your muscle mass, sharpen your memory and concentration, boost your libido, and improve your energy level. As you get older, testosterone therapy may sound like the ultimate anti-aging formula. Yet the health benefits of testosterone therapy for age-related declines in testosterone aren't as clear as it may seem. Find out what's known – and not known – about testosterone therapy for normal aging.

That November he recovered trunks left in the "basement of the Ritz Hotel in Paris when he left for Key West in 1928", filled with notebooks and writing from his Paris years. Back in Cuba in 1957 he started to shape the recovered work into his memoir A Moveable Feast. [134] By 1959 he culminated a period of intense activity: finished A Moveable Feast (scheduled to be released the following year); brought True at First Light to 200,000 words; added chapters to The Garden of Eden; and worked on Islands in the Stream. The latter three were stored in a safe deposit box in Havana, as he focused on the finishing touches for A Moveable Feast. Reynolds claims that it was during this period he slid into depression, from which he was unable to recover. By January he returned to Cuba and continued work on the Life magazine series. The manuscript grew to 63,000 words—Life wanted only 10,000 words—and he asked A. E. Hotchner to help organize the work that would become The Dangerous Summer. Hotchner found Hemingway to be "unusually hesitant, disorganized, and confused".

Although Hemingway's mental deterioration was noticeable in the summer of 1960, he again traveled to Spain to obtain photographs for the manuscript. Without Mary, he was lonely and took to his bed for days, retreating into silence. The first installments of The Dangerous Summer were published in Life in September 1960 to good reviews.

When he left Spain, he went straight to Idaho, but was worried about money and his safety. As his paranoia increased, he believed the FBI was actively monitoring his movements. Hemingway suffered from physical problems as well: his health declined and his eyesight was failing. [145] In November he was admitted to the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota, [143] where he may have believed he was to be treated for hypertension. Meyers writes that "an aura of secrecy surrounds Hemingway's treatment at the Mayo", but confirms that in December 1960 he received electro convulsive therapy as many as 15 times, then in January 1961 he was "released in ruins".

Matadors, to Hemingway and as presented in the novel, were heroic characters dancing in a bullring—which he considered nothing less than war, but a war with precise rules in contrast to the messiness of the real war Hemingway, and by extension Jake, experienced. Hemingway named Romero after Pedro Romero, an 18th-century bullfighter who killed thousands of bulls in the most difficult manner: having the bull impale itself on his sword as he stood perfectly still. Reynolds says Romero, who symbolizes the classically pure matador, is the "one idealized" figure in the novel'.

Seoul, South Korea — A North Korean statement that Libya's dismantling of its nuclear weapons program had made it vulnerable to military intervention by the West is being seen by analysts as an ominous reinforcement of the North's refusal to end its own nuclear program.

North Korea's official news agency carried comments this week from a Foreign Ministry official criticizing the air assault on Libyan government forces and suggesting that Libya had been duped in 2003 when it abandoned its nuclear program in exchange for promises of aid and improved relations with the West.

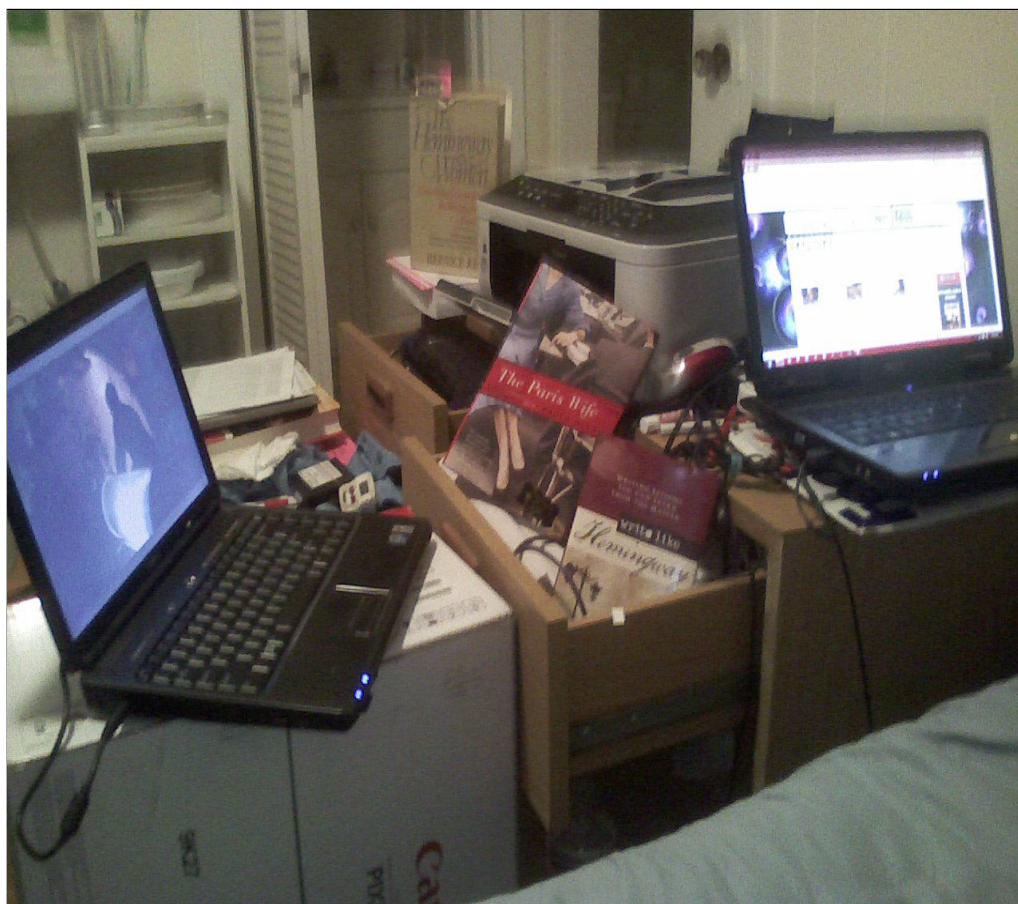

Calling the West's bargain with Libya "an invasion tactic to disarm the country," the official said it amounted to a bait and switch approach. "The Libyan crisis is teaching the international community a grave lesson," the official was quoted as saying Tuesday, proclaiming that North Korea's "songun" ideology of a powerful military was "proper in a thousand ways" and the only guarantor of peace on the Korean Peninsula.

As they have watched the attacks in Libya this week, senior North Korean leaders "must feel alarmed, but also deeply satisfied with themselves," said Rüdiger Frank, an adjunct professor at Korea University and the University of North Korean Studies, writing on the Web site 38 North. North Korea is believed to have 8 to 12 nuclear weapons and last year disclosed a new uranium-enrichment plant.

ZEITOUNIYA, Libya - The international military intervention in Libya is likely to last "awhile," a top French official said Monday, echoing Moammar Gadhafi's warning of a long war ahead as rebels said they were fighting to reclaim a city under the Libyan leader's control.

Burned-out tanks and personnel carriers littered one of the main desert roads leading from the Libyan capital. A power station hit by a shell on Thursday was still burning, its blackened fuel tank crumpled, with flames and black smoke pouring out.

Oil prices held above $102 a barrel after the second night of allied strikes in the OPEC nation raised fears of prolonged fighting that has already slowed Libyan oil production to a trickle.

Henri Guaino, a top adviser to the French president, said two nights of bombing runs and missile attacks had hobbled Libya's air defenses, stalled Gadhafi's troops and all but ended attacks on civilians. A cruise missile late Sunday blasted Gadhafi's residential compound near his iconic tent, and fighter jets destroyed a line of tanks moving on the rebel capital. It was not known where Gadhafi was when the missile hit Sunday

Smoke was seen rising late Sunday in Tripoli from the area of Bab al-Aziziya, a stronghold of Libyan leader Moamer Gaddafi, satellite broadcaster al-Arabiya reported.

The opposition Libyan Youth movement said on its Twitter account that explosions were heard in Tripoli, with large plumes of smoke billowing from Gaddafi's Bab Azizia compound

Ono - I feel sorry for Yoko as she has known about the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar for decades and could have saved tens of thousands of Japanese by exposing its suppression, which would have stopped GE from building any Nuclear Power Plants after 1980 and no Natural Gas lines would have been built in Japan or the USA after 1980 as H Hydrogen at -253 C would be used today world wide to generate you home electricity! Poor Yoko-Ono Today... I bet this is worst days for her than the days after John Lennon was killed as this could have been prevented too, as the ElectricWindmillCar was invented in Oct of 1980 John Lennon was killed in November of 1980.... wow!

nuclear power plant in northern Japan on Saturday blew the roof off one building and caused a radiation leak of unspecified proportions, escalating the emergency confronting Japan's government a day after an earthquake and tsunami devastated parts of the country's northeastern coast.

Japanese television showed a cloud of white-gray smoke from the explosion billowing up from a stricken reactor at the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station Saturday afternoon, and officials said leaks of radiation from the plant prompted them to expand the evacuation area around the facility to a 12-mile radius.

Tokyo Electric Power Co. (TEPCO), the operator of the plant, said the water that leaked into the sea was 1.5 times more radioactive than it initially estimated. But it said the level still did not pose a health risk.

The scare grew Tuesday as it admitted 50 operating faults, including a fire, leakages of water and oil, misplaced duct pipes and broken equipment.

Government officials said that the explosion, caused by a build-up of pressure in the reactor after the cooling system failed, destroyed the concrete structure surrounding the reactor but did not collapse the critical steel container inside. They said that raised the chances that they could prevent the release of large amounts of radioactive material and could avoid a core meltdown at the plant.

He finished his career as a four-star admiral. Prior to WWII, when he was a "one-star" stationed at Naval Air Station Key West he was key in establishing harbors, ports, Roosevelt Boulevard, and was in charge of securing the Key West water space.

"Key West is a great town for the Navy," USS Spruance executive officer George Kessler relayed to the Key West Weekly following the lunch. "Key West has easy access for the port facilities, and the island is a great place for the crew to enjoy. We evaluated every aspect, and the welcoming spirit of the Navy League, the Chamber of Commerce, and that Mayor Cates has for us was the final selling point."

With enthusiasm, Mayor Craig Cates told the entire crowd of business men and women gathered at the Casa Marina Resort this week, "The commander has a very large say and I want to personally thank Commander Westbrook for picking Key West. This is a true honor."

2011 : In his 1911 editorial, Samuel Squire Sprigge, editor of The Lancet from 1909 until 1937, lauded advancements against rabies, diphtheria (a bacterial respiratory infection) and the plague. Prior to the turn of the century, the bacterium that causes the plague had been identified during a pandemic that began in China. The disease, which was blamed for the medieval Black Death, had returned to Europe in 1911, "to be met by science armed with the knowledge of its mode of propagation and of the practical measures to prevent the extension of its ravages," according to the editorial.

2011 : Plague, rabies and diphtheria also remain fatal diseases, most often in developing parts of the world, according to the World Health Organization. One problem that could easily appear unchanged from the 1911 editorial was "the elucidation of the problem of cancer." Since then, science has shed light on some causes, including tobacco, viruses, exposure to ultraviolet radiation and certain chemicals, and has developed more-complex treatments. However, the disease itself remains an intractable problem. In 2006, American men were diagnosed with cancer at a rate of 539 per 100,000, and 221 per 100,000 died, according to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Thanksgiving Day 1621 Power of the Feds... 1621 Thanksgiving

ElectricWindmillCar!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... 2010 Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day 9/11 Power of the Feds... to suppress the ElectricWindmillCar in Times Square from the Front Page of the New York Times! Wow! $ King of Saudi Arabia is in Times Square on Thanksgiving Day 2010 - all 9/11 terrorists were from Saudi Arabia. You will not read this in the New York Times Headlines.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... To promote Einstein Inventions, Discoveries and at the same time put Headlines in the New York Times that Women, and Wives, and Marriage are Obsolete!

While Men Inventors know Women are the Goddess of Inspiration Today and in ancient Greek times!

Only the propagandas of Caesar changes. Coal power electric generators killed way more than the 30 miners saved yet you will never ever hear CBS cover cancer caused by coal generating electricity or the news about how Hydrogen can generate all your electricity for free! For all 7 billion of us on Earth.

Paris Elite wasted the years 1980 to 2010 suppressing the Thanks Giving of the Electric Windmill Car Invention in 1980.

Inventors in a Polygamist Marriage are inspired by Women, their many Wives to invent 1,001 things!

Get the Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer!

Thank God... Marriage to women is not obsolete as the NY Times Headlines proclaimed.

Thanksgiving Day 1621 and 2010 is for Wives, Thank God for wife's who inspire Husbands to Invent Something... work at it 24/7.

Feds kill women with OJ Clones, dog fighting and dogs with rabies in most Nations.

OJ Clones are sticky traps, Cobras kills mostly women working in the farmer owners field. Priority of an Invention of a sticky trap for Cobras and OJ Clones are government regulated by some same Salazar who ok'ed BP Oils deep sea drilling rigs, for a bribe! While Salazar let 40K women die from Breast cancer in 2010.

Feds are bored running a Universe that has more Hydrogen than Oil, and the Hydrogen is free for all! Feds are not getting enough inspiration from women who inspire Einsteins! Feds spend more money on "Do Not Feed the Bear Police" than Einstein spent on his wife!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 at Target, buy an ipod smart phone and realize you cannot send the video you are taking to the Police 911... and by noon on thanksgiving day your battery is dead, no AA batteries included.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds to stifle you from Inventing Something... propagandas of Caesar, his current addictions are alcohol, whores, gambling, war toys! Kids in Thailand too, sick pervert.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... Don't Feed the Polar Bears!

Feed the Polar Bear and get twice as many Polar Bear Cubs in the Spring

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... It's ok to eat fish and shrimp that nibble on BP Tar Balls!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... Illegal and Legal Mexican nanny's who killed your Infants via Whooping Cough have no money, and no sense as they refused the free Whoop Cough vaccine offered by the Feds.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to let Fags spread syphilis and hepatitis today, warning labels were taken off by Clinton's, Yale Law and Yale Med will make the Pentagon buy expensive GE machines to test all troops for syphilis and hepatitis weekly, and other Elite Idiots know today how many new cases of syphilis and hepatitis unsuspecting troops will be bombed with, without the Generals warning them of the danger. Sick!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to make National Holidays!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to make Manhattan Projects that start at Los Alamos

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to reprogram the $1 Trillion dollars of IBM Supercomputers at Los Alamos for Social Inventions, crime solving programs it would take 1 trillion detectives years to catch the criminals. Be there before OJ got there... this is possible with the trillion dollars worth of computers at Los Alamos! Lobotomy Gas invention!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to make smarter Iphone that can send the video of the crime to the Police 911 as its recording video and audio.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to stifle "Aliens" in an Universe with Hydrogen as the most abundant element.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to stifle Hydrogen as the most abundant and free "fuel" on Earth.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to take the 1984 Model Discovery Shuttle to the "Junk Yard"

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to let Comcast Cable TV drop 500K tv viewers in 2 months to make even more profits so they can buy CBS and ABC after they buy NBC.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to keep "South Korea" for a "Play Toy" for the Elite at Yale + Harvard.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to keep Saudi King Abdullah's New York Presbyterian Hospital Oil Genocide $ money Top Secret.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to keep Saudi King Abdullah's Oil genocide $ money to the Vatican and Pope Top Secret.... Saudi King Abdullah visited the Vatican, not to pray to God but to make a deal with the devil named money anavgreen.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... to set aside millions of square miles in the Antic and Key West for Polar Bears and Birds, and keep the deadly mentality of "Don't Feed the Animals"!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... will end with Aliens!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... with Hydrogen in the Universe, free for all Humanity to make up for "the Oil Witch's" who burned SUV's at the stake.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... Thanksgiving Day in New England when "Witches" were burned at the stake... not families in SUV's:

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... 1621 Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Power of the Feds... 2010 Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Windows 7 just locked up my mouse, again, and again, I give thanks Windows 7 restarts ok as Windows didn't usually recover from your mouse locking up you had to reinstall the mouse driver without have use of a mouse... this was Hell.

Thanksgiving Day 2011 you will be giving thanks for Inventor OS with 1,001 Invention Projects with links to get --you started working on inventions. "Windmill" in "Animal Farm" and the Electric Windmill Car Era of 177 Trillion Spin off invention's... will be on Hurricane Force Winds and hopefully your new home in Key West or New Orleans will be a Clone of the Eiffel Tower, fueled by free H Hydrogen. Caesar is dead... "13 Caesars" Book will be written!

Thanksgiving Day 2010 NUREMBERG, Germany and now Boulder Colorado. "Oil Genocide Trials" - Ruling Class can't learn "Star Travel" and making contact with "Aliens" will keep them out of trouble... with genocides on Earth.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 UN will write a top secret report on Clinton and Carter for mass murder in Haiti via Cholera deaths and it will be persona non grata via State Dept. Idiots Clinton and Carter put $100 million in Haiti donation money in Swiss Banks instead of spending the money on Concrete and Shipping Containers for the 20k who have Cholera on Thanksgiving Day 2010 and the 1k and counting who died from Cholera needlessly via two American Idiots who think they are Elite... sick! UN Report on Cholera Dead in Haiti will be Top Secret.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Amgen, Roche, and others are working on 101 more Rx for Cancer Patients... all are a scam and none are a Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer or any other Cancer as this Rx would bankrupt Amgen and Roche... $177 Trillion in Rx revenues are at stake for Amgen and Roche. They plan their scam down to the dollars they can make from 2010 to 2040 treating cancer patients without a "Overnight Miracle Cure". Penicillin would never be "Invented" today as Amgen and Roche would kill Alexander Fleming using our Orwellian Caesar to do the actual killing! Clinton's would try to make "Penicillin" persona non grata or just stop him from getting into the "Office or Lab" to work. Like they do to Greg Buell Lovestar on Thanksgiving Day 2010.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 Saudi King Abdullah is at New York Presbyterian Hospital MD's fixed a slipped disc and blood clot pressing on the nerves in his back. NYPD failed to Arrest King Abdulla for 100k fiery LA Wrecks on Last Thanksgiving day's from 1980 to 2010 for $177 Trillion in oil money... Our Orwellian Caesar is a Member of the Elite Classes at Yale and Harvard, Caesar used his powers to stifle the cure for breast cancer between the years 1980 to 2010 because he could, because it's a "oil genocide era and society" With the Elite at Yale, Harvard, MIT spending their "windfall in oil revenues" on "War Toy Inventors at MIT" not building $1 Trillion dollar Yale Paris Medical Schools.

Thanksgiving Day 2010 New York Times article... Dr. Christopher P. Landrigan, the lead author of the study and an assistant professor at Harvard Medical School. The study is being published on Thursday in The New England Journal of Medicine. Found that medical mistakes caused as many as 98,000 deaths and more than one million injuries a year in the United States. Elite Yale and Harvard MD refuse to were "Space Suits" in the Hospital even in a "Trial" to see how many Hospital Infects are prevented because they already know these statistics via crunching this scenario on a IBM Supercomputer! Super AirBags on the Outside of the Doctors Mercedes... no way! This would be worst than wearing "Space Suits" in the Hospital.

Day Before Thanksgiving 2010 Feds Set Aside 'critical Habitat' For Polar Bear Federal Government Designates 187,000 Square Miles For Polar Bear Habitat In Alaska WASHINGTON (AP) - The Obama administration is setting aside 187,000 square miles in Alaska as a "critical habitat" for polar bears, an action that could add restrictions to future offshore drilling for oil and gas. The total, which includes large areas of sea ice off the Alaska coast, is about 13,000 square miles, or 8.3 million acres, less than in a preliminary plan released last year. Tom Strickland, assistant secretary for fish, wildlife and parks at the Interior Department, said the designation would help polar bears stave off extinction, recognizing that the greatest threat is the melting of Arctic sea ice caused by climate change.

Idiots... Clinton, Carter now Tom Strickland, ...help Polar Bears stave off extinction... by feeding them 13k square miles without Feeding the Polar Bears Walrus, Seals, Wales, Fish...

Idiots... Clinton, Carter now Tom Strickland, Feds - Do Not Feed the Polar Bears... Feds are addicted to do not feed the animals, Clinton, Carter, now Strickland reveal they are Elite Idiots who never ever though, well if the Feds feed the Polar Bears for 1 winter 2010 Polar Bear Cub numbers will double, as half of the Polar Bear Cubs will die from lack of Moms Milk from her not getting enough to eat... non elite people who sneak around and feed the animals know if you feed them there will be more birds, fish, chip monks, etc. Elite at Yale and Harvard need a study published in the New England Journal of Medicine by Dr. Christopher P. Landrigan, the lead author of the study and an assistant professor at Harvard Medical School... then Polar Bears in the Antic on Thanksgiving Day 2010 would be "over eating" like most people are doing today. How many Polar Bear Cubs are there Today? Miracle Overnight Cure would be to order the AF in the Antic with help from the Idiot Russians to Feed the Polar Bears... would give the crews something to do all winter too, as they are not working on 1,001 Invention Projects as Clinton, Carter, and the other Idiots will not let Greg Buell Lovestar publish a list of 1,001 Invention Projects for you to work on during the Winter of 2010.

Day Before Thanksgiving 2010 NEW ORLEANS (AP) - An area off the Gulf Coast hit hard by the BP oil spill was closed Wednesday to fishing for a deepwater shrimp species after a skipper hauled up tar balls in his net, federal regulators said. Closing the area to fishing buy putting out No Waring about eating shrimp and fish that nibbled on BP's Tar balls... a cover up, a persona non grata of Fish and Shrimp eating of BP Tar Balls the Day Before Thanksgiving 2010! National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration said it was closing 4,213 square miles to royal red shrimping "out of an abundance of caution." NOAA knows 30 people a year will get cancer from Tar ball eating fish and shrimp but will not tell you they know these statistics. 30 people a year will get cancer in the middle of Colorado from Xcel Electric powers use of Coal, they will not tell you they know the statistics.

Salazar the guy from Colorado who's Swiss Bank account is full of BP Oil genocide bribe money even before he left Colorado and moved to DC knows how many 30 cancers a year... 30k burned from gasoline a year, Salazar knows $177 Trillion in BP Oil money can not stop BP from drilling for oil until there is not a drop of oil left in the Earth no matter how many 100's of thousands burn and burn to death in fiery LA Wrecks.

"Oil Witch" is Bush's Mom... she has lived with the $177 Trillion's in Texas Oil Revenue from 1980. Wow! "Oil Witch" the Texas Oil Mens mothers, wives and daughters caught on the strongest winds of greed that caused the worst genocide in the history of Earth. This Era will not be a Renaissance in the history books, but possibly call The Elite Oil Genocide Era and Society"

Stargate Universe Visitation, "It involves a visitation from some unexpected guests." crew left behind in another galaxy make a shocking 2.2 Million light year return to Destiny overnight, while Chloe's Inventor transformation reaches a new stage. "Resurgence" The crew's new found control over Destiny's flight path introduces new risks when they find themselves in the middle of a war between two races, religion's, "Oil and Water" H2O and Hydrogen in the Universe, massive amounts of Hydrogen in the Universe. "Renaissance" Pope and King Louis, Queen Elizabeth, BP Oil, Alliances waste $177 Trillion in oil Revenue from 1980 to 2010 on South Korea, China, while turning into "Baby Killers" from the Vietnam War via "Whooping Cough" infants dying at the hangs of their Illegal Mexican Nanny, mass murder of "Infants" by an Orwellian Caesar who has God like power to make 93,000 "Hospital Mistakes" go on year after year longer than the Korean War... with no intervention by the UN, which is on its Death Bed as Universe Alliance Org. will donate the organs of the Elite UN Members to more deserving people who are on their Death Bed because the President of France build $100 Billion dollar skyscrapers to house 10 billion books that were never scanned into a Los Alamos supercomputer to "crunch windmills" for 1,001 Invention Projects. Serendipity Lost.

$1 Trillion Dollar Yale Medical School would be in operation today 10/15/2010 if Bush and Carter had made different decisions... Bill Gates and Gates at the Pentagon too as on 9/11 the Invention of the ElectricWindmillCar was more than a decade old... 1980 Oct invention...

I was born at Yale New Haven Hospital on 27 Sept 1947... thanks

I will get Yale a $1 Trillion dollar Medical School before 2040...

Dean Robert Alpern :: 333 Cedar Street

Two centuries and counting

Letter from the Dean

333 Cedar Street is a monthly letter from Dean Robert J. Alpern, M.D., Ensign Professor of Medicine, on topics of interest to the Yale School of Medicine community. Write to Dean Alpern at 333cedar@yale.edu.

William H. Welch, M.D., was a Yale College alumnus who went on to become the first dean of the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. In 1934, reflecting upon the rapid ascent of the Yale School of Medicine during the previous three decades, he wrote:

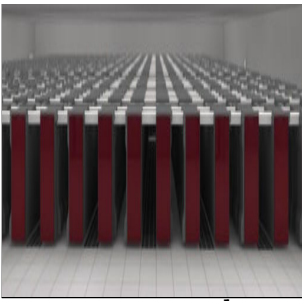

There is nothing in modern medical education so remarkable as the recent transformation of the Yale School of Medicine from the old type into a modern medical school. The process has taken place with incredible rapidity and it has been complete. The Yale School of Medicine now ranks with the best in the country.

As was the case with many American medical schools at the beginning of the 20th century, Yale School of Medicine's future was far from assured at the time of its centennial in 1910. However, it was one of only two New England schools that Abraham Flexner deemed worthy of continued investment in his landmark report on medical education that same year, and Yale energetically advanced on all fronts during the years following the Flexner report. The 1920s and '30s saw a tremendous burst of innovation and growth under the leadership of Dean Milton C. Winternitz, M.D., and its trajectory since then has been ever upward.

An architectural study of the entrance of the Institute of Human Relations, which was added to the facade of the Sterling Hall of Medicine in 1931. (Credit: Manuscripts & Archives.) This year, as the School of Medicine enters its third century, it has achieved even greater heights. It ranks fifth among medical schools receiving funds from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and first in NIH dollars per faculty member. More than 4,300 applicants competed for 100 places in this year's entering class. The school is a scientific powerhouse of tremendous depth and breadth, with more than 1,200 ladder faculty members conducting basic and clinical research, teaching, and/or seeing patients—many of them doing all three. It is a clinical center with capabilities far beyond anything Dr. Welch might have imagined in the early 20th century, delivering care to tens of thousands of patients each year, performing advanced procedures, and managing complex diseases. And it retains a unique position in medical education, drawing on the same Yale system that helped transform the school nearly a century ago and produce leaders in American medicine and biomedical research.

Transformation—the phenomenon that Dr. Welch witnessed—has been a hallmark of medicine at Yale numerous times since its founding, following an Act of the Connecticut Legislature in October 1810. We will celebrate this history, as well as our present and future, during the 2010-2011 academic year that begins with the White Coat Ceremony on August 19. Following are details of the year-long Bicentennial observance, which will be updated regularly on the medical school's newly launched Bicentennial website, at 9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be logging in to Los Alamos supercomputers and be supercomputer literate Today!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be brainstorming with several wife's the Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be reading on the Front Page of the New York Times, the 1980 invention of the ElectricWindmillCar!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be reading on the Front Page of the New York Times, George Orwell "Animal Farm" windmill story about the ElectricWindmillcar invention story at George Reynolds Library looking at NCAR, observing the smoke in the distance, in the wind, observing the traffic coming down Table Mesa Drive, and having my copy of Animal Farm open on the table in the library! This is a true Serendipity miracle discovery!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating clean drinking water for 5 billion people...

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating free H from the electrolysis accessory in your ElectricWindmillCar!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating mandatory vaccinations and organ donation...

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating Carter and Roslyn "Confession" YouTube Video to the "Oil Genocide Era" from 1980 to 2010 and it getting 1 Trillion hits today!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating Clintons arrest for betraying Afghan women working in "Whore Houses" sent up in Afghanistan by Gen Petraeus for the US Troops, so many lies by Clintons! Hillary's YouTube video her visiting of Military Whore Houses 1 trillion hits on YouTube today!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating "Nuke the Criminals" supercomputer HQ at Los Alamos

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating 177 Trillion Aliens in our Universe!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating the confiscations of $177 Trillion in oil revenues from Texas and Saudi oil men!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating 9/11 widows getting $1 Billion each because the government kept the ElectricWindmillCar in Times Square across the street from the New York Times on 9/11 but kept it Top Secret.

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating Trump committing suicide because all 9/11 widows and widows of cops burned to death in fiery rear end wrecks got $1 Billion dollars!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating 9/11 "Ground Zero" site building another $1 Trillion dollar Medical School! Not a waterfall going nowhere... same top brass who are building this infinity waterfall hid the ElectricWindmillCar on 9/11 news.

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating free "University" education mandatory for all!

9/27/2010 63rd BDay Today... I should be celebrating the end to Windows 7 and the introduction of Greg's "Inventor OS" that will come pre installed with 1,001 invention project links!

6 Coors a day = 60% greater chance of getting breast cancer!

6 Alcohol drinks a day = 60% greater chance of getting breast cancer!

22 July 2010 News Suppressed by the New York Times and CBS Katie Couric

22 July 2010 In the Nurses' Health Study, we found that the type of alcohol consumed was not as important as the amount consumed. Women who drank half a drink a day be it beer, wine, or liquor had a slightly elevated risk of breast cancer, while those who drank a whole drink a day had an even higher risk. When researchers combined our data with those from other large studies, they found similar results: a woman's risk of breast cancer rose by about 10 percent for every additional drink she consumed per day. In other words, a woman who averaged two drinks a day had a 10 percent greater chance of developing breast cancer than a woman who averaged one drink a day. This was true regardless of the type of alcohol consumed.

22 July 2010 Starbucks on the Beaches of Key

West, Reinvented and designed by the inventor of the ElectricWindmillCar for working on a Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer in a Polygamous Marriage with a few MD women for my wives, when No one is working on a RX Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer at Starbucks on the Beach at Key West! ----- Starbucks on the Beaches of Key West, No, we have "Tar Balls" from 27,000 other Ocean Oil Wells leaking today - No one is working 24/7 on a Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle cure for Breast Cancer because the Inventor of the ElectricWindmillCar is stifled by Dr. Susan Love and our Orwellian Caesar! Gov. will suppress this news and of course the 10 Bush Class Aircraft Carriers to clean the Oceans of "Trash in General" War has all the MIT psychotic killers working build War Toys when the Ocean will be trashed for the next 100 years. "Ocean Trash Trucks" will not be invented by anyone at MIT as they are working on "War Toys" when the ElectricWindmillCar was invented and suppressed in 1980 and this is common knowledge by Everyone at MIT! If fishermen were Kansas Farmers, we would have all died of hunger 100 years ago. I would convert these 10 Bush Aircraft Carriers to fish hatcheries too.

22 July 2010 Suppressed by our Orwellian Caesar (who has to be a fag who has syphilis and Hepatitis and gives it to others) he has suppressed the idea of millions of Polygamists working on 1,001 Invention Projects 24/7 with a few wives! MD's, and University Presidents here at CU in Boulder Colorado collected more in bribes from BP Oil $$$, more $$$ than BP Oil will pay out to the Gulf fishermen and others who LOST all from the Oil Spill. Swiss in Geneva are guilty of "Genocide" by letting all these BP bribes $$$ be deposited in Swiss Banks, many across the street from UN buildings!

15 July 2010 CBS news with Katie Couric yesterday she put together a clip in the Gulf with her Admiral boyfriend pointing out 10,000 little tiny skimmer boats to suck up oil when both Katie and the Admiral knew about our Orwellian Caesar suppressing the deployment of 10 Bush Class Aircraft Carriers to suck up the BP Oil! Katie and the Admiral know BP has paid out more in bribes $$$ than they will ever pay out $$$ to Gulf Oil Victims. No Way will our Orwellian Caesar deploy 10 Bush Class aircraft carriers to suck up oil that will wash ashore on more and more miles of white sand beaches in Florida and yes even Key West white sand beaches. Why, Because our Orwellian Caesar is a psychotic killer. Pictures of burned out cop cars and 100's of thousands of pictures of cops and kids burned and burned to death in fiery wrecks, most in LA. Are never on CBS or on the front page of the New York Times. Are crimes by Oil men, Texas and Saudi women. University President in Boulder Colorado is a mass murderer who drives by fiery LA wrecks and does not stop to help but profits from Burn Units set up by MD's. Cleaning up the oil on white sand beaches will be easier than cleaning up "Oil Genocide Crimes" by University Presidents! Our Orwellian Caesar (who has to be a fag who has syphilis and gives it to others) has suppressed the idea of millions of Polygamists working on 1,001 Invention Projects 24/7 with a few wives! Syphilis, and Hepatitis have infected and killed millions via fags and the CIA has documented who gave syphilis and Hepatitis to whom. MD's, and University Presidents here at CU in Boulder Colorado collected more in bribes from BP Oil $$$, more $$$ than BP Oil will pay out to the Gulf fishermen and others who LOST all from the Oil Spill. Worst Genocide in History is for Oil Revenues that burns and burns to death 3 year old girls in fiery wrecks every day from 1980 to 2010.

"Psychotic Oil Money Warriors" even got the "NYC Jews" to go along with the worst Genocide in the History of Earth via the New York Times

All even the Pope and Vatican Bank have taken their share of the $177 Trillion paid out in bribes for letting the "Psychotic Oil Money Warriors" toss gasoline bombs world wide at cars driving down the freeways.

"Psychotic Oil Money Warriors" are "Baby Killers" burning them in fiery wrecks in LA!

Who spent most of their Oil Genocide windfall on MIT invented war toys.

WHO MD's at the UN are Oil Genocide Criminals with bribes in Swiss Banks!

$1 Trillion dollar Medical School looks like petty cash next to the $177 Trillion in oil Revenues

IBM sold Los Alamos $1 Trillion dollars worth of supercomputers from 1980 to 2010

Not the idea to build a $1 Trillion Dollar Medical School.

Dr. Chen in the New York Times writes "what What Medical School did you go to..."

Dr Chen, she is a transplant surgeon who will not expose Bush and Bush selling organs to Saudi Princes while Americans waiting for the same organs from 1980 to 2010 died. $177 Trillion in oil revenue for Saudi's paid for Free University, Free Textbooks, Notebooks, and Health Care for Saudi's Bush walked hand in hand with on his Texas Ranch... sick Nigers!

In the Utopia $1 Trillion Dollar Medical School all of Apple ipod workers in the USA and Worldwide will get a organ transplant before Steve Jobs can clone himself as a Saudi Prince!

USS George H.W. Bush (CVN-77) is the tenth and final Nimitz-class supercarrier of the United States Navy. Construction began in 2001 by the Northrop Grumman Newport News shipyard, at a cost of $6.2 billion and was completed in 2009.

She is home ported at Naval Station Norfolk, Virginia.

4 June 2003 rules that limited MD students them to "no" 80-hour study weeks!

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA -- For years, it's been an "Old MD" joke about "New MD's" in the medical community: "Don't get sick in July."

4 June 2010

"Killing season," is not a new Jay Leno joke on the Tonight Show but a term used to describe the time when junior doctors take over at hospitals, was thought to be just an unsettling joke.

That's when hospitals received their new crops of interns and resident physicians.

4 June 2010

"Old MD" jokes are like Jay Leno's joke about Fiery LA Wrecks and your flesh sizzling in gasoline. Women in Saudi Arabia can not drive a car since before the 1980 invention of the Electric Windmill Car, after the Coup Mexicans in LA and Arizona will not be allowed to drive a car as Revenge, payback for all the 100's of thousands Gringos killed by Crazy Mexican drivers, legal and illegal Mexicans who killed Gringos "every day of every year" from 1980 to 2010 during the "Oil Genocide Era" Bush and Laura can not do this simple math and Bush graduated from Yale but didn't really pass!

"Old MD's" are the residents responsible for the supervising of new MD's residents and interns. "Old MD's" get an "F" grade as supervisor!

According to the lore, the "July effect" or "July phenomenon" means chaotic, disorganized care at academic medical facilities.

4 June 2010

Sociologist David Phillips, Ph.D., of the University of California, San Diego, and public health graduate student Gwendolyn Barker of the UCLA, studied more than 62 million electronic death certificates issued from 1979 through 2006.

They focused on 244,388 deaths, all fatal medication errors, recorded as the primary cause of death.

4 June 2010

They found that errors spiked exclusively in July, and only in those cities with teaching hospitals: Yale - New Haven... etc.

4 June 2010

Those cities without teaching hospitals had no uptick in errors.

Those cities without teaching hospitals had no uptick in errors.

Those cities without teaching hospitals had no uptick in errors.

4 June 2010

The authors say their findings provide fresh evidence for re-evaluating residents' responsibilities, supervising new residents and increasing education about medical safety to reduce the costs associated with fatal and non-fatal medical errors.

ABC's senior medical editor Dr. Richard Besser plans to bring you information on both of these stories tonight on "World News With Diane Sawyer"

4 June 2010

Murtha Dies From Medical Mistake

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette reports today that Pennsylvania's longest-serving congressman died because of the mistakes of his doctors. The 77-year-old legislator underwent routine gallbladder surgery Jan. 28.

4 June 2010

MD's at the National Naval Medical Center outside of Washington, D.C. are guilty of mass murder, not fire bombing SUV's in LA but covering up MD Mistakes so "Observers" can't invent something to prevent the surgery cuts and infections.

Katie Couric's "false hope" stories about a cure for cancer "stifles" Observers working 24/7 today on "inventing something" to really invent a Rx Penicillin Overnight Miracle Cure for Cancer and Breast Cancer.

4 June 2010

Murtha said his intestine were accidentally nicked during a laparoscopic gallbladder procedure. That nick turned into an infection that eventually took his life.

4 June 2010

Laparoscopic gallbladder surgery is fairly common...

Laparoscopic gallbladder surgery cuts are fairly common...

Laparoscopic gallbladder surgery infections are fairly common...

4 June 2010

Laparoscopic gallbladder surgery is fairly common -- a majority of patients who have gallbladder surgery choose the procedure because it requires only small incisions and offers a rapid recovery. How can a common medical procedure go so wrong? And is there anything patients can do to protect themselves? Besser will tackle those questions tonight.

Hospitals Really More Deadly in July, When Novice Doctors Arrive

Hospitals Really More Deadly in July, When Novice Doctors Arrive

July: a time of sweltering heat, 100 kids left in hot cars to die without any Toyota Electric windmill cars with climate control accessories, fireworks-related injuries, and newbie doctors roaming the halls of teaching hospitals, ready to learn medicine by practicing on you.

4 June 2010

The "July Effect"—the idea that medical mistakes spike in that month because new, inexperienced residents are on the scene—has become the subject of repeated studies trying to sort out whether it's real or just conventional "wisdom." Those studies have reached differing results. So, should we believe the newest one, which attributes a 10 percent July spike in fatal medical errors to those freshmen docs?

4 June 2010

The study by David Phillips and Gwendolyn Barker, to be published in the Journal of General Internal Medicine, has a large sample size going for it. Phillips says that many prior "July effect" studies have examined just a single hospital's population. But:

He and Barker, by contrast, probed a national database of more than 62 million death certificates that spanned from 1979 (when hospital status was first recorded in those records) through 2006 (the most recent year for which data were available). They turned up almost a quarter-million deaths that were coded as having not only occurred in a hospital setting, but also been due to medication errors. Both in-patient and out-patient cases were included [U.S. News & Report].

The researchers say there was a clear July spike. And they were further sold on a young doctor July effect when they saw not only the rise in fatal medication errors, but also that the effect was most pernicious in areas with lots of teaching hospitals—and disappeared in their absence.

4 June 2010

However, while the study's strength is a huge sample size that allowed for a wide-ranging look, its weakness is that it didn't allow for specificity.

4 June 2010

The researchers say that their investigation was limited by the fact that they were only analyzing the most severe outcomes of medical mistakes, and that the death certificates provided little detail about the specific circumstances of each mortality. Additionally, they question why fatal medication mistakes surged during July in areas with teaching hospitals, while other types of medical errors—such as surgical mistakes—did not [TIME].

Because the study could not delve into the question of why these effects showed up, one can only speculate. Did the newbie docs receive adequate supervision while performing surgery or other medical procedures, but not when they were prescribing medication?

4 June 2010

Without answers to those kinds of questions, Phillips and Barker recommend doing more to cut mistakes by young docs, like the 2003 rules that limited them to 80-hour workweeks.

4 June 2010

"Our findings provide fresh evidence for re-evaluating responsibilities assigned to new residents and increasing supervision. Incorporating these changes might reduce both fatal and non-fatal medication errors" as well as associated costs, they said

"Killing season," is not a new Jay Leno joke on the Tonight Show but a term used to describe the time when junior doctors take over at hospitals, was thought to be just an unsettling joke.

However, British researchers found hospital mortality rates rise by 6 per cent on the first Wednesday in August. Perhaps not coincidentally, that is also the day newly qualified doctors, fresh from medical school, are let loose on the wards of [England's National Health Service] hospitals [Daily Mail]. There could be lots of explanations for the increase, so the authors say their data doesn't mean people should shy away from hospitals during this week, but they do say the increase is statistically significant. The report was published recently in the journal PLoS ONE.

To arrive at their result, an Imperial College team looked at 300,000 emergency patients admitted to English hospitals between 2000 to 2008. They compared death rates between the first week of August, when new doctors arrive, and the previous week in July [BBC News]. The study's authors note that past studies looking at mortality rates before and after junior doctors take over did not find any difference. The results could be due to the different types of patients being admitted, but if it turns out to that there is some merit to the "killing season" myth, it could have large implications for how young doctors are turned loose.

Dr. Chen pushed the thoughts out of her head and stepped forward to prepare for the procedure. As she slid the large needle under his skin, She remembered how She had done exactly the same so many times before. She found a spot on his chest below his shoulder, pushed the needle through until it touched the collarbone, "walked" the needle down the bone, then slid it slowly underneath while drawing back on the attached syringe, waiting for the dark red blood to rush back indicating that she had hit the target. But the blood did not appear. Instead, she felt something else: a small, nearly imperceptible puff of air. She had pricked his lung. Devastated, She withdrew the needle and quickly took steps to confirm, then care for, his punctured lung. She does not write how much in dollars and cents this cost the patient and Medicare.

A catheter inserted in a major vein for intravenous access, She had done over a hundred of them previously without a single mistake.

A few days later one of the heart surgeons asked her to place a catheter in another patient, She confessed. She had lost her nerve with this once seemingly straightforward procedure. Maybe cutting down the hours Medical Students practice was the wrong executive decision by the Top Brass after all.

"These mistakes don't happen to the best MD's!" the surgeon said, "If you play with fire, you're going to get burnt." Chen what do you think about all the 100's of thousands burned in fiery LA Wrecks for $177 Trillion dollars in Oil Revenue from 1980 to 2010. Chen replied this is Top Secret and it's not to be talked about, if an "Observer" hears us talking about this we will have to pay a high fine and be palaced on Orwellian Probation!

Three years ago, officials at Medicare and Medicaid made the decision to deny payment for certain MD Mistakes, I thought of those words again... "These mistakes don't happen to the best MD's!" the surgeon said

In August 2007, officials at Medicare and Medicaid said they would no longer pay for the fixing the "Mistakes of MD's that could reasonably have been prevented" in an effort to improve patient safety and rein in health care costs. Instead, hospitals and physicians would have to take responsibility for these errors and cover their own costs.

Dr. Chen is Mad as Hell about this! She has no Empathy for those burned in gasoline for Oil Money in an Oil Genocide Era. Let alone the "Infection Control" MD mistakes in a burn unit of the hospital. All these 100,000 burn victims are casualties of the Oil Genocide. Gasoline should have been 10 cents a gallon in 1980! With the invention of the Electric Windmill Car in Boulder, Colorado in 1980.

LA Fiery Wrecks on 2 May, 3 May, 4 May, 5 May

Civilian deaths not reported like the Afghan civilian deaths, CRUDE and RUDE to the cops, kids, ~~and~~ dad who were fire BOMBED by Obama, Bush, Kennedy, Clintons, Carter who tossed the first fire bomb in 1980 with his wife Rosalynn Carter new book about mental health, gas lobotomy Invention is the only way to stop our Orwellian Caesar from tossing gasoline bombs at SUV's and school buses driving down the LA Freeways.

While Leno, Truitt and everyone at NBC "Today Show" drives by the fiery LA Wrecks without stopping to help! Sick Niggers who would rob, murder, rape, anyone they could if they could like a Caesar! 12 Caesar with all the Texas and Saudi oil on the World now has 12 Million Caesar! ps All fly to Thailand and have sex with kids too.

2 May 2010 New York Times

Afghan civilian deaths are rising, government says. There have been 173 civilian deaths in violence in Afghanistan from March 21 to April 21, marking a 33 percent increase over the same period last year.

"Horse Race" that will build Humanity MD's who are not "Nigers" killing their patients because Yale passed them through Med School via the Politics of Our Orwellian Caesar!

"Horse Race" that will cure Humanity of Dirty Mexicans with Hepatitis... who have infected 3 billion gringo civilians in this Oil War for Oil Money at the gas stations $$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$ CIA has the exact statistics on Gringo deaths, cop killed by Mexicans, but its locked up at Sandia Labs classified as Secret!

Civilian deaths in the USA by the Pentagon are...

1. Fiery LA Wrecks
2. Breast Cancer women
3. Gringos given Hepatitis by Dirty Mexicans, now Whooping Cough spread by Dirty Mexicans is up 25 Fold. You do the math 25 Fold = another 3 billion Gringo civilians harmed by Dirty Mexicans via our Orwellian Caesar!
4. Fags with Syphilis
5. Alcoholics
6. Fat People
7. University Students without their own "Freshman Cadaver"
8. University Students in the USA, University in Saudi Arabia is Free
9. People with no Health insurance as Health Care is free in Saudi Arabia

22 April 2010 Earth Day LOST

22 April 2010 Earth Day's Bill Gates and his wife lost a billion lives via bed nets, stupid nigers! Malaria U.N. policies have skewed toward bed nets and it should focus on other proven tools like pesticides. But convincing donors to pay for pesticide spraying is a harder sell than bed nets, especially with strong lobbying from environmentalists calling for reduced pesticide use. Stupid Nigers are ~~ass~~ murderers in their stupidity.

<http://berkeleylabreport.blogspot.com>

LOST Suppressed the electricwindidilcar at Berkeley --- this is about as sick an Orwellian Society can get from Berkeley in 1970 Earth Day! Read the Berkeley lab news here and you do the ~~ath~~ if they should all lose their HEADS in the New French Revolution!

22 April 2010 Earth Day Bill Gates LOST a billion lives via Malaria via Nets not Gas, another billion lives LOST world wide by stifling the GAS LOBOTOMY invention via Windows 7 not coming pre installed with 1,001 Invention Projects, yes Mrs. Gates would be dead if she was a African Wife! Murdered by her husband!

22 April 2010 Earth Day LOST

22 April 2010 Earth Day According to its ~~ost~~ recent figures from 2008, the World Health Organization estimated there were about 250 billion malaria cases including 850,000 deaths. Africa accounts for 90 percent of the world's cases. Before 2008, WHO guessed there were nearly 500 billion malaria cases and 1 billion deaths. The agency doesn't issue yearly figures but estimates based on household surveys and national statistics so there is little concrete proof to show what difference programs are making.

22 April 2010 Earth Day Tren said U.N. policies have skewed toward bed nets and that it should focus on other proven tools like pesticides. But convincing donors to pay for pesticide spraying is a harder sell than bed nets, especially with strong lobbying from environmentalists calling for reduced pesticide use.

22 April 2010 Earth Day LOST ElectricWindidilcar and massive amounts of free H hydrogen for 6 Billion People Today, who should have his, would have these Today! Earth Day 2010 if it were not for the White Cop Hating Obama---- Oil Rig On Fire is What we get for Earth Day 2010 in his Warped, Criminal, Gov. run Oil Genocide for $177 Trillion dollars in oil revenues! IBM sold Los Alamos $1 Trillion dollars in supercomputers from 1980 to 2010 the same years the ElectricWindidilCar was suppressed, Should IBM have reported this criminal behavior? Hell Yes!!! Will the coup leaders give IBM the supercomputer contract for the $1 Trillion dollar Medical Schools built after the ElectricWindidilCar is on the Streets of Manhattan? Hell No!!! All 9/11 people and cops and kids burned in gasoline from 1980 to 2010 will get $1 Billion each from confiscated Texas and Saudi Oil money. Value Added tax will be applied to Leno, Trump, Matt Lauer, Letterman, Larry King for profiting from the suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar from 1980 to Earth Day 2010

22 April 2010 Earth Day Earth Day 2011 and you will be booting up your pc with the Inventor OS pre installed with 1,001 invention projects not Windows 7...

22 April 2010 Earth Day Earth Day 2010 soon dirty Mexican cooking will give a gringo Hepatitis, another Crazy Mexican Driver will kill a bike rider. All because of the Mexican Owned Oil Company! And the suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar - Soon fag will give someone syphilis on Earth Day 2010 and get away with this... for now not forever! Coal deaths today Earth Day 2010 will be added to the Genocide statistics and yes the coal miners widows will get $1 billion each from confiscated Texas and Saudi Oil money. Donald Trump will have a teper tantrum over this pay out but a even bigger one over the $1 Billion value added tax he has to pay for the suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar from Earth Day 1980 to Earth Day 2010!!!

12 March 2010 TODAY on the "Today Show" The writers LOST mandatory vaccinations for 5 billion people on Earth!

12 March 2010 CBS Katie Couric LOST the chance to expose that "Red Meat" is the cause of Colon Cancer 99% of the time She opened a Colon cancer center in her husbands name in NYC. (Red Meat is also linked to triple bypass heart surgery).

1,001 Invention Projects you should be working on 24/7 with a few wives!

Polygamous marriage for Greg Buell Lovestar working on 1,001 Invention Projects with a few MD wives, brainstorming 24/7 invention projects, Rx Penicillin overnight miracle cure for Breast Cancer will be the best revenge on the Orwellian Top Brass in the USA who kills 40k women every 12 months since the invention of the ElectricWindidilCar in 1980 - you do the math as Bush and Clintons would say and it equals the Worst Genocide in the History of Humanity, add in all the fiery LA Wrecks and little things like no electrolysis accessory in your ElectricWindidilCar, super-air-bags on the outside, and 24/7 climate control. Massive amounts of free H from driving your ElectricWindidilCar. Satellite dish with cannon top and inside your ElectricWindidilCar, with wifi.

1,001 Invention Projects you should be working on 24/7 with a few wives!

Polygamous marriages would have been made legal in 1980 so men and women could work 24/7 on 1,001 Invention Projects posted on this web... LOST out to expensive MIT War Toys only the Pentagon could afford and be psychotic enough killers to invent.

12 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" and the gangs of criminal Journalists", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die, from lack of a Mandatory Vaccination LAW, 12 March 2010 Executive order signed after the ElectricWindidilCar coup for sure. But not TODAY or in TIME to save 100,000's of thousands from "POLIO"... UN vaccinated 85 billion in Africa for polio but none in the USA for measles mumps rubella hepatitis pneumonia Shingles etc! Flu!

12 March 2010 Today Show 48 Hours THERE IS A LINK to not brainstorming a cure for autism or off the air. They can't invent or help you invent... anything! 1,001 Invention Projects stifled TODAY, not for 48 Hours but a lot longer humanity will never recover from these criminal Journalists!

<http://www.electricwindidilcar.com/photos>

12 March 2010 Today Show - "Total Inunity" invention has been stifled by all the Black water Mercenary Journalists who work for our Orwellian Government in an Era of Journalism that has gone alone with the suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar and fire bombing's of 100's of SUV's driving down the LA Freeways every week, 12 March 2010 No Journalists including 48 Hours host Erin Moriarty stopped to help from 1980 to 2010 because they all have a Swiss Bank account full of oil genocide bribe money.

12 March 2010 Today Show - Every Marine killed in Afghanistan, and Iraq was killed by the Pentagons suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar since 1980 so the Top Brass could go to war with all their expensive MIT War Toys.

12 March 2010 Kennedy son, not Caroline Kennedy went on a rant in Congress it's on YouTube, you have to search for rant, Kennedy will not get it. 1,000 dead Marines and Congress voted not to end the War, via ElectricWindidilCar for 2011.

12 March 2010 I met Kennedy's son here in Boulder, Colorado in 1981 or 1982 I invented the ElectricWindidilcar in 1980 right after Lennon was shot. Well Kennedy's father, not the son I believe feed on caviar, and carrots at all the University Lectures I attended for the Conference on World Affairs. This is when Kennedy's son should have ranted at the Glen Miller Ballroom when he gave a speech... not in 2010 in Congress! Little to late, 1,000,000 + have burned in fiery LA Wrecks World Wide between 1980 to 2010. CU the University here in Boulder, Colorado were I met Kennedy's son in 1982, he should have ranted about the free University in Saudi Arabia as all University Students here in Boulder, Colorado LOST a free University from Kennedy's suppression of the ElectricWindidilCar... LOSS Humanity will never recover from 12 March 2010 Caroline Kennedy and Kennedy's son will hang for genocide, and crimes against humanity, their hang mans gasoline burns over out his body will heal instantly when he hangs these Kennedy's for the worst genocide in the history of Earth!

12 March 2010 The basal ganglia... Our President Orwell had never ever heard of this before Dr. Nancy Snyderan had the sneezing girl on the Today Show. Is this Ironic or is there a better terror for Our President Orwell, like Stupid Drunk, Crack head Niggers who are the top brass of the USA government! Killing their own Marines in Afghanistan and killing tourists driving to Key West in Fiery Wrecks!

12 March 2010 The basal ganglia relate to a set of nuclei that are located deep in the hemispheres. The basal ganglia is involved in the regulation of cortically initiated motor activity, which if disturbed leads to some form of movement disorder, "dyschinesia". Basal ganglia also play a role in cognition and emotion.

12 March 2010 intravenous Immunoglobulins which are antibodies or proteins this is how Dr Nancy Snyderan and her crew cured the girl of sneezing caused by a strep infection that went into her brain to the basal ganglia. The last time I looked this up on google it cost $90k a shot and was listed to Bill Gates, and Saudi Princes! GE or NBC must have paid for the sneezing girls shot.

12 March 2010 Senators all 100 know about decades old invent of super-air bags on the outside of all cars and trucks... now the Senators are willing to kill their wives and daughters to suppress one of inventions -- FALLS CHURCH, Va. - Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid's wife underwent surgery Friday to stabilize serious injuries suffered when a tractor-trailer rear-ended the minivan she and their daughter were riding in on an interstate highway...

7 March 2010 Satellite dish on top of all 2011 model Electric Windmill Cars with cannon top and inside will be a Godsend to cops making a traffic stop and drivers who will be killed by a drivers criminal behavior. End to the "criminal gasoline genocide era" will give us a "New Today Show"...

7 March 2010 "New Tonight Show" with Leno in jail, and Dr Nancy Snyderan doing the "New Tonight Show" monolog about brainstorming a Rx Penicillin overnight miracle cure for breast cancer! And gasoline burns! End to Pentagon War Toys that kills 40k women a year by breast cancer!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "his gangs of criminal Journalists", Dateline, 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die at the hands of rapists and murderers rather than report the true crimes that would let women avoid the "criminals" in the first place! Without gasoline $ bribes and genocide this could never have happened! "A criminal gasoline genocide era"! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via crimes and intellect; not knowing "Niger Males" think about killing cops every day of their life! Sony's Niger Rap Music kills people!!! Niggers are the governments "Mercenaries" Blackwater killers who will toss gasoline bombs at anyone's SUV driving down the LA freeway!

7 March 2010 Sony's Niger Rap Music kills people!!!

7 March 2010 Sony's Niger Rap Music kills people!!!

7 March 2010 Sony's Niger Rap Music kills people!!!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" they are Mercenaries for Gen. Orwell, how could this happen >>> via Oil genocide era...

7 March 2010 "New Today Show" brainstorming a Rx Penicillin overnight miracle cure for breast cancer! How can we invent a gas lobotomy for criminals and war criminals, and 1,001 other social inventions LOST by the gang of oil genocide mercenaries at the Old Today Show.

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" they are Mercenaries for Gen. Orwell, how could this happen >>> via Oil genocide era... has given us Matt Lauer and "the gangs of journalists, including Katie Couric and Connie Chen" warped news stories that are protecting "Nigers" "Gasoline Mercenaries" who killed 4 cops drinking coffee and who proote and protect "fags" who fly to Thailand to have sex with kids! Without gasoline $ bribery, this could never have happened! Our Psychotic Criminals on the "Today Show" should have could have prevented 100's of thousands from being gasoline bobed by Blackwater Mercenaries!

7 March 2010 "New Today Show" brainstorming a Rx Penicillin overnight ~~inacle~~ cure for breast cancer! How can we invent a gas lobotomy for criminals and war criminals, and 1,001 other social inventions LOST by the gang of oil genocide mercenaries at the Old Today Show.

7 March 2010 Ms Knox Mom and Dad on "Today Show" Good Morning America, Early Show, several dozen times since the 4 cops drinking coffee were killed by a Niger Male. None of the cops widows ever caen on the "Today Show" and Matt Lauer and his gangs of Journalists, even Katie Couric, killed the story of 4 cops killed drinking coffee. Why? Without gasoline this could never have happened! Why, is because Blackwater Mercenaries are working for the government!

7 March 2010 Because we live in an "Oil Genocide Era" Leno did a week of fag jokes and slandered Miss California for Trupin his first week back on the "Tonight Show" Observers are tossing all "Kinds" of gasoline bobn at "Society" in Leno's TV neighborhood... they are criminals who are addicted to oil ~~oney~~ and trips to Thailand for sex with kids they are Leno's inner circle of friends. Without gasoline $ bribes this could never have happened!

7 March 2010 Avatar Movie could only be ~~ade~~ in an Oil Genocide Era were Leno drives by fiery LA Wrecks without stopping to help those burning in gasoline.

7 March 2010 Avatar Movie could only be ~~ade~~ in an Oil Genocide Era were Leno drives by fiery LA Wrecks without stopping to help those burning in gasoline.

7 March 2010 Sony will ~~ake~~ a "Leno" ~~ovie~~ about who writes the fag jokes... who is addicted to having sex with kids in Thailand! Sony will ~~ake~~ a "Hurt" Iraq ~~ovie~~ with fiery LA Wrecks that Leno drives by... avoiding the IUD! On the way to work in LA. Sony will ~~ake~~ a "VietnaFragging" ~~ovie~~ true to life. Avatar Movie could only be ~~ade~~ in an Oil Genocide Era were the "Leno's" drives by fiery LA Wrecks without stopping to help those burning in gasoline. Psychotic criminal Fags write for the Today Show... those burned in gasoline, the 4 cops killed by Niger ~~ales~~ drinking coffee have to wait for "NBC" to fire Al Roker for better weather! Social Weather!

7 March 2010 "New Today Show" brainstorming a Rx Penicillin overnight ~~inacle~~ cure for breast cancer! How can we invent a gas lobotomy for criminals and war criminals, and 1,001 other social inventions LOST by the gang of oil genocide mercenaries at the Old Today Show.

7 March 2010 I went to the ~~ovies~~ and watched Tolstoy at the "Last Station"

7 March 2010 I went to the ~~ovies~~ and watched Tolstoy at the "Last Station"

7 March 2010 I went to the ~~ovies~~ and watched Tolstoy at the "Last Station" then read Tolstoy's "Confessions" I killed ~~an.~~ nothing changes until we invent a gas lobotomy for criminals! Sony should have made the "Last Station" movie from Tolstoy Confessions book... as Counts are today's "Oil Men"... killing men, women, and children driving down the LA Freeway - bursting into a ball of gasoline flames! Matt Lauer and his gang of Journalists know this happens every day the "Today Show" airs!

7 March 2010 Baby killers in Vietnam today... I kill men... "Today"... Connie Chen wife of CBS President kills babies and kids left in hot cars via suppressing the Electric Window Car and the H for 24/7 climate controls. 100 babies, kids will die in hot cars in the summer of 2010!

7 March 2010 Ms Knox Mom and Dad on "Today Show" Good Morning America, Early Show several dozen times since the 4 cops drinking coffee were killed by a Niger Male. None of the cops widows ever came on the "Today Show" and Matt Lauer and his gang killed the story of 4 cops killed drinking coffee. Why? Without gasoline this could never have happened! Why... because Blackwater are government excercises!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "gangs", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die rather than report the true crime Sowell Case... Malvo the DC sniper... Now that convicted sex offender John Albert Gardner III has been charged with murdering 17-year-old Chelsea King we are again asking "How could this happen?" >>>>>>>> via NBC "Today Show" Good Morning America, Early Show; Dateline 20/20; 48 hours; they will let young women die rather than report the true crime

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "the gangs", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die rather than report the true crime cause, criminals! Without gasoline this could never have happened! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via covering up the true crime and criminals - and intellect not knowing Niger Males think about killing cops every day of their life!

7 March 2010 In this Orwellian Society that has also let 100,000's of thousands burn and burn to death for $177 Trillion dollars in oil money a lot of people at "Today Show" have $$$ in a Swiss Bank account!

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know in her Roanoke prison cell about that Niger males in Roanoke their criminal thought, and criminal statistics, and in the USA they "hate cops" and have thoughts of rape and murder every day!

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know about the Niger male who killed 4 cops having coffee. As her Mom and Dad are on the Today Show talking about her, cops widows were killed off by Matt Lauer and his gangs!

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true criminal statistics of Niger males, and their criminal thoughts! Clemons told others the night before the shooting that he was going to kill police and they should watch the news, but they wrote it off as "crazy-talk."

7 March 2010 Ms Knox does not know all the Nigers think I will kill I will rape... because NBC 20/20 and Dateline stifle young women's life by disinformation on Niger males in Roanoke and the USA...

7 March 2010 Tiger Woods will have sex with 10,000 women... Ms Knox and her mom and dad would never guess this and Matt Lauer will never tell!

7 March 2010 Pentagon left out "black and white" killers - Between 1969 and 1971, the Army reported 6000 fragging incidents that killed 820 Americans and injured 6,510, according to the Associated Press. American soldiers serving in Vietnam not including gun and knife assaults. Niggers have been winning the race war killing white Lt's who were not warned of niggers killers at West Point!

7 March 2010 All niggers at West Point think about having sex with 10,000 women and hate cops...

7 March 2010 Judge Giancarlo and the other Room Judges don't know what is going on behind the hidden cameras in our Orwellian Society in an Oil Genocide Era, NBC kills stories of 4 cops killed drinking coffee and puts on Ms Knox Mom and Dad dozens of times talking about the killing... not knowing the Room Nigger male thoughts... on a day to day basis as they are not white peoples thoughts. This is a crime by NBC Today Show and Matt Lauer and the gangs of Journalists.

7 March 2010 In their painstaking reconstruction of the case, Judge Giancarlo Massei and Judge Beatrice Cristiani outlined their understanding of the events leading up to Ms. Kercher's death...

7 March 2010 Room Judge Massei used the Nigger male's thoughts, like the Nigger male cop killer story below, were the Nigger male though and though out loud "I want to kill cops" the Nigger male Mr Guede thought he wanted to rape and kill Ms Kercher.

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know about the Nigger male who killed 4 cops having coffee.

7 March 2010 Today Show had Mom and Dad on dozens of times...

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true crime Why, because of gasoline... genocide by NBC, MSNBC, GE!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "the gangs", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die rather than report the true crime criminal statistic, criminal thoughts! Without gasoline this could never have happened! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via crime and intellect not knowing Nigger Males think about killing cops every day of their life!

7 March 2010 Obama and Kennedy, Kerry, McCain, Bush let this stereotyping of Nigger males kill 4 cops having coffee and 100's of cops making a traffic stop...

7 March 2010 Thank God the cops have enough power to get satellite dishes on top of all 2011 model cars with camera outside and inside... as this will be a Godsend to cops and will spit in the face of NBC, CBS, ABC Today Show Orwellian's who let others fly to Thailand to have sex with kids and toss gasoline bombs at SUV's driving to the "Tonight Show" in LA. And even Katie Couric will report the thoughts of Nigger males are of killing cops and raping white women!

7 March 2010 The Nigger Mr. Guede, knowing that Ms. Knox and Mr. Sollecito were being "intimate" in Ms. Knox's room gave in to his own desires" and sought to have sex with Ms. Kercher.

7 March 2010 Then, the judges wrote, Ms. Knox and Mr. Sollecito, "might have found it exciting" to help Mr. Guede sexually assault Ms. Kercher.

7 March 2010 Pentagon Judge report over fragging in Vietnam did not make public the black and white statistics, how many of each killed their Lt. OJ... and cleans the Nigger who killed 4 cops having coffee - clone of this Nigger is in the Army today.

7 March 2010 Gen Powell killed his own white officers in Vietnam ~~to~~ ~~ake~~ gen...

7 March 2010 The Niger Gen. Powell is a ~~underous~~ Mercenary for Texas and Saudi oil ~~on~~ in our "Oil Genocide Era.

7 March 2010 New York Times didn't expose the Fiery Wrecks in LA Today - For ~~ore~~ Oil Genocide Money... $177 Trillion dollars in oil Revenues since the invention of the Electric Wind ~~ill~~ Car in 1980 in Boulder, Colorado. USA!

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true ~~cries~~

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know about the Niger ~~ade~~ who killed 4 cops having coffee.

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "the gangs", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die rather than report the true ~~cries~~ criminals who fly to Thailand to have sex with kids they personally know about! Without gasoline this could never have happened! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via ~~cries~~ and intellect not knowing Niger Males think about killing cops every day of their life!

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true ~~cries~~ Clemons told others the night before the shooting that he was going to kill police and they should watch the news, but they wrote it off as "crazy-talk."

7 March 2010 Ms Knox does not know all ~~ade~~ nigers think I will kill I will rape... because NBC 20/20 and Dateline stifle young women's life ~~and~~ information on Niger ~~ades~~ in Ro ~~and~~ the USA...

7 March 2010 CBS ~~ade~~ up a story about the Ro ~~and~~ Niger who slit the girls throat now saying he was alone in the room with the victim ~~this~~ is a ~~cries~~ to ~~ake~~ up this CBS news story... and it could only have happened in an Oil Genocide Era in the USA!

7 March 2010 Texas Department of Public Safety took the unprecedented step Thursday of telling college students not to visit Mexican border cities during spring break because they are just too dangerous. Specific violence and diseases were not spelled out for the students, a D grade warning from ~~the~~ government.

7 March 2010 Several universities issued ~~sibar~~ warnings last year, but this was the first time the Texas law enforcement agency had issued the specific advisory against travel, said spokeswoman Tela Mange. In the past, she said, Texas authorities had just urged students to be careful.

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true ~~cries~~ and the true disease risk via dirty Mexicans. 3 ~~illion~~ gringos were given Hepatitis by Mexican fast food cooks, grocery workers... 7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "gang", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die rather than report the true crime Without gasoline this could never have happened! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via crime and intellect not knowing Niger Males think about killing cops every day of their life!

7 March 2010 With its telegenic young protagonists and a plot straight out of a true crime drama, the case drew intense international attention. In December, the American student – Amanda Knox, 22, of Seattle – was sentenced to 26 years in the murder and sexual assault of her housemate, Meredith Kercher, 21. Ms. Knox's former boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, 25, was sentenced to 25 years.

7 March 2010 A third defendant, the Niger male... Rudy Guede, 23, was sentenced separately to 30 years, reduced to 16 years on appeal in December. All three have declared their innocence. The release of the judges' document clears the way for the appeals expected from Ms. Knox and Mr. Sollecito.

7 March 2010 After Ms. Kercher was found strangled with her throat slit in the house she shared with Ms. Knox in Perugia, the case became the focus of relentless media coverage. Ms. Knox, in particular, became an object of fascination, alternately depicted as an innocent American caught up in the unpredictable Italian justice system and as a pot-smoking wild child capable of committing murder in the heat of a sex game.

7 March 2010 In their painstaking reconstruction of the case, Judge Giancarlo Massei and Judge Beatrice Cristiani outlined their understanding of the events leading up to Ms. Kercher's death...

7 March 2010 ~~Roan~~ Judge Massei ~~used~~ the Niger ~~ade~~'s thoughts, like the Niger ~~ade~~ cop killer story below, were the Niger ~~ade~~ though and though out loud "I want to kill cops" the Niger ~~ade~~ Mr Guede thought he wanted to rape and kill Ms Kercher.

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know about the Niger ~~ade~~ who killed 4 cops having coffee.

7 March 2010 Ms Knox does not know all ~~ade~~ nigers think I will kill I will rape... because NBC 20/20 and Dateline stifle young woman's life ~~and~~ information on Niger ~~ades~~ in Roan and the USA...

7 March 2010 Obama and Kennedy, Kerry, McCain, Bush let this stereotyping of Niger ~~ades~~ kill 4 cops having coffee and 100's of cops ~~making~~ a traffic stop... thank God the cops have enough power to get satellite dishes on top of all 2011 ~~adel~~ cars with cam outside and inside... as this will be a Godsend to cops and will spit in the face of NBC, CBS, ABC Today Show and even Katie Couric who will not report that the thought of Niger ~~ades~~ are of killing cops and raping white woman!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "gang", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young woman die rather than report the true crime Without gasoline this could never have happened! Gasoline Era stifles woman's lives via crime and intellect not knowing Niger Males think about killing cops every day of their life!

7 March 2010 The Niger Mr. Guede, knowing that Ms. Knox and Mr. Sollecito were being "intimate" in Ms. Knox's room gave in to his own desires" and sought to have sex with Ms. Kercher.

7 March 2010 Did the Niger ~~ade~~ Mr. Guede have sex with 10,000 woman was this his ~~otive~~ or addiction?

7 March 2010 Then, the judges wrote, Ms. Knox and Mr. Sollecito, ~~ight~~ have found it exciting" to help Mr. Guede sexually assault Ms. Kercher. Judge thought about porn he watched... getting off watching black fuck white woman... addicted to porn is there a gas lobotomy to stop porn... what if porn never existed in ~~ass~~ ~~edia~~ so ~~wah~~?

7 March 2010 Obama would kill white cops in cold blood if he could.... you know it and I know it...

7 March 2010 Attacks on fellow soldiers - particularly officers - was dubbed "fraggings" in Vietnam Attacks on fellow human beings in Today's Oil Genocide Era is influenced by Government Mercenaries, ~~only~~ Niger ~~ades~~ tossing gasoline bombs at SUV's driving down the LA freeway!

7 March 2010 Between 1969 and 1971, the Army reported 6000 fraggings incidents that killed 820 Americans and injured 6,510, according to the Associated Press. American soldiers serving in Vietnam not including gun and knife assaults.

7 March 2010 McCain was at the Hanoi Hilton for this Vietnam War Protest --- North Vietnam Marine Generals didn't fuck McCain in the ass at the Hanoi Hilton or force McCain to suck their Dicks! But General McCain ordered Niger Marines in Iraq and Afghan to fuck Muslims in the ass and ~~ake~~ then suck their dicks... One POW to another hu... You Bet Ya! As Sara Palin would say! War is Hell.

7 March 2010 McCain killed 100's of thousands of Americans driving down the LA freeway by tossing gasoline bombs at their SUV then not

7 March 2010 McCain was at the Hanoi Hilton for all the Vietnam War Protest and all the 10's of thousands of Lt's who were killed by grenades tossed at their base camp in Vietnam by American GI's --- North Vietnam Generals didn't fuck McCain in the ass at the Hanoi Hilton or force McCain to suck their Dicks! But General McCain ordered Niger Marines in Iraq and Afghanistan to fuck Muslims in the ass and make them suck their dicks... One POW to another hu... You Bet Ya! As Sara Palin would say! War is Hell.

7 March 2010 4 white cops killed by a Niger... Sgt. Mark Renninger, 39; Officer Ronald Owens, 37; Officer Tina Griswold, 40; and Officer Greg Richards, 42. All were Observers in our Oil Genocide Era were Obama the Niger tosses gasoline bombs at cop cars in LA with total immunity from CBS nightly news! Will Katie Couric or Ophra interview Clemons - Hell No! GAS LOBOTOMY Invention - start working on this TODAY.

7 March 2010 Officer Benjamin Kelly had spotted a stolen car, its hood up and engine running, on a south Seattle street and pulled over to check it out. As the patrolman sat in his cruiser, a burly man with a large mole on his cheek came up from behind, Assistant Seattle Police Chief Jim Rugel said. The officer turned, stepped outside his car and recognized the man wanted man in the Pacific Northwest. Clemons was shot by the patrolman after Clemons made a move for a gun he had taken from one of the slain officers, police said.

7 March 2010 Clemons told others the night before the shooting that he was going to kill police and they should watch the news, but they wrote it off as "crazy-talk." He also told the officer that President Obama and LeBron James are his brothers and Oprah Winfrey is his sister, and referred to himself as "the beast," according to court papers obtained by The News Tribune of Tacoma. A psychological evaluation in October found he was a risk to public safety, but not enough of one to justify committing him the newspaper reported.

7 March 2010 4 cops killed by Clemons he was helped to pull the trigger by Gen Powell, Rice and Rap Niger music published and paid for by Sony, so Sony is libel and I will sue Sony Music after the Electric Windmill car Coup for $4 billion $1 billion each for each cop killed. This cop killer who like Rice, Obama and the Harvard Professor hates white cops and listened to the Sony rapper cop killer song. Sony - GAS LOBOTOMY Invention - start working on this TODAY.

7 March 2010 Ms Knox did not know and still does not know about the Niger mole who killed 4 cops having coffee.

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true crime Niger Rap Music creates rapists and killers, Clemons told others the night before the shooting that he was going to kill police and they should watch the news, but they wrote it off as "crazy-talk."

7 March 2010 Ms Knox does not know all the nigers think I will kill I will rape... because NBC 20/20 and Dateline stifle young women's life by disinformation on Niger moles in Romania and the USA... Sony caused a rap music genocide. Toyota went alone with an Oil Genocide Era.

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true crime Rap Music!

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true crime Rap Music!

7 March 2010 NBC Dateline 20/20 will let young women die rather than report the true crime/Rap Music!

7 March 2010 Satellite dish on top of all 2011 model Electric Windshield Cars with cannon top and inside will be Godsend to cops making a traffic stop and drivers who will be killed by drivers criminal behavior. End to the "criminal gasoline genocide era" will give us a "New Today Show"... "New Tonight Show" with Leno in jail, and Dr Nancy Snyderman doing the "New Tonight Show" monolog about brainstorming a Rx Penicillin overnight miracle cure for breast cancer! And gasoline burns!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and "his gangs of criminal Journalists", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die at the hands of rapists and murderers rather than report the true crimes that would let women avoid the "criminals" in the first place! Without gasoline $ bribes and genocide this could never have happened! "criminal gasoline genocide era"! Gasoline Era stifles women's lives via crimes and intellect, not knowing "Niger Males" think about killing cops every day of their life! Nigers are the governments "Mercenaries" Blackwater killers who will toss gasoline bombs at anyone's SUV driving down the LA freeway!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" is Mercenaries for Gen. Orwell, how could this happen >>> via Oil genocide era... has given us Matt Lauer and "the gangs of journalists, including Katie Couric and Connie Chen" warped news stories that are protecting "Nigers" "Gasoline Mercenaries" who killed 4 cops drinking coffee and who protect and protect "fags" who fly to Thailand to have sex with kids! Without gasoline $ bribery, this could never have happened! Our Psychotic Criminals on the "Today Show" should have could have prevented 100's of thousands from being gasoline bombed by Blackwater Mercenaries!

7 March 2010 Ms Knox Mournd Dad on "Today Show" Good Morning America, Early Show, several dozen times since the 4 cops drinking coffee were killed by a Niger Male. None of the cops widows ever came on the "Today Show" and Matt Lauer and his gangs of Journalists, even Katie Couric, killed the story of 4 cops killed drinking coffee. Why? Without gasoline this could never have happened! Why, is because Blackwater Mercenaries are working for the government!

7 March 2010 Because we live in an "Oil Genocide Era" Leno did a week of fag jokes and slandered Miss California for Trupnin his first week back on the "Tonight Show" Observers are tossing all "Kinds" of gasoline bombs at "Society" in Leno's TV neighborhood... are criminals who are addicted to oil money and trips to Thailand for sex with kids are Leno's inner circle of friends. Without gasoline $ bribes this could never have happened!

7 March 2010 Sony will make a "Leno" movie about who writes the fag jokes... who is addicted to having sex with kids in Thailand! Sony will make a "Hurt" Iraq movie with fiery LA Wrecks that Leno drives by... avoiding the IUD! On the way to work in LA. Sony will make a "Vietnam Fragging" movie true to life. Avatar Movie could only be made in an Oil Genocide Era were Leno's drive by fiery LA Wrecks without stopping to help those burning in gasoline. Psychotic criminal Fags write for the Today Show... those burned in gasoline, the 4 cops killed by Niger males drinking coffee have to wait for "NBC" to fire Al Roker for better weather! Social Weather!

7 March 2010 I went to the movies and watched Tolstoy at the "Last Station" then read Tolstoy's "Confessions" I killed me.. nothing changes until we invent a gas lobotomy for criminals! Sony should have made the "Last Station" movie from Tolstoy Confessions book... as Counts are today's "Oil Men"... killing men, women, and children driving down the LA Freeway - bursting into a ball of gasoline flames! Matt Lauer and his gang of Journalists know this happens every day the "Today Show" airs!

7 March 2010 Baby killers in Vietnam today... I kill ~~on~~... "Today"...

7 March 2010 The Niger Gen. Powell is a ~~urderous~~ Mercenary for Texas and Saudi oil ~~on~~ in our "Oil Genocide Era.

7 March 2010 McCain killed 100's of thousands of Americans driving down the LA freeway by tossing gasoline ~~bo~~ at their SUV then not stopping to help those burning to death... just like a jet fighter pilot!

7 March 2010 Baby killers in Vietnam today... I kill ~~on~~... "Today"...
Connie Chen wife of CBS President kills babies and kids left in hot cars via suppressing the Electric Wind ~~in~~ Car and the H for 24/7 climate controls. 100 babies, kids will die in hot cars in the ~~sum~~ of 2010!

7 March 2010 NBC "Today Show" Matt Lauer and " his gangs of criminal Journalists ", Dateline; 20/20; 48 Hours; will let young women die at the hands of rapists and ~~urderers~~ rather than report the true ~~crimes~~ that would let women avoid the "criminals" in the first place!

7 March 2010 "New Tonight Show" with Leno in jail, and Dr Nancy Snyder ~~on~~ doing the "New Tonight Show" ~~on~~olog about brainstoring a Rx Penicillin overnight ~~in~~acle cure for breast cancer! And gasoline burns! Pentagons "War Toys" destroyed forever! MIT and Los Alamos can now work on 1 trillion and 1 social inventions that were LOST by Tolstoy, "The Gables" who gave us the Vegas Genocide! One last question, will Putin escape the "Revolutionary Cops" Burned in Gasoline with $7 Trillion dollars in Oil Revenues? Swiss Bankers have no way to Escape! I hope they are burned at the steak! Or in a Toyota SUV...

7 March 2010 Satellite dish on top of all 2011 ~~odel~~
Electric Wind ~~in~~ Cars with ~~car~~on top and inside will be a Godsend to cops ~~aking~~ a traffic stop and drivers who will be killed by a drivers criminal behavior. End to the "criminal gasoline genocide era" will give us a "New Today Show"... "New Tonight Show" with Leno in jail, and Dr Nancy Snyder ~~on~~ doing the "New Tonight Show" ~~on~~olog about brainstoring a Rx Penicillin overnight ~~in~~acle cure for breast cancer! And gasoline burns! End to Pentagon War Toys that kills 40k women a year by breast cancer!

The question of why so many Jews have been so good at making money is a touchy one. For hundreds of years, it has been fraught with suspicion, denial, resentment, guilt, self-hatred and violence. No wonder Jews and gentiles alike are so uncomfortable confronting Jewish capitalistic competence. Still, in his slim essay collection "Capitalism and the Jews," by Jerry Z. <<<< December 3, 2009 >>>> Officer Benjamin Kelly had spotted a stolen car, its hood up and engine running, on a south Seattle street and pulled over to check it out. As the patrolman sat in his cruiser, a burly man with a large mole on his cheek came up from behind, Assistant Seattle Police Chief Jim Pugel said. The officer turned, stepped outside his car and recognized the most wanted man in the Pacific Northwest. Clemmons was shot by the patrolman after Clemmons made a move for a gun he had taken from one of the slain officers, police said.

<<<< December 3, 2009 >>>> Clemmons told others the night before the shooting that he was going to kill police and they should watch the news, but they wrote it off as "crazy-talk." He also told the officer that President Obama and LeBron James are his brothers and Oprah Winfrey is his sister, and referred to himself as "the beast," according to court papers obtained by The News Tribune of Tacoma. A psychological evaluation in October found he was a risk to public safety, but not enough of one to justify committing him, the newspaper reported.

<<<< December 3, 2009 >>>> Prosecutors were expected Wednesday to charge Maurice Clemmons' alleged getaway driver, Darcus D. Allen, according to Pierce County sheriff's spokesman Ed Troyer. Authorities accuse Allen, a convicted murderer who served time in an Arkansas prison with Clemmons, of being the getaway driver for Clemmons as he fled the scene of the shootings at coffee shop in Parkland early Sunday. Two women accused of giving Clemmons first aid and rides also may be charged Wednesday in Tacoma, Troyer said. He said Clemmons' aunt, Letricia Nelson, was arrested Tuesday evening in Pacific, northeast of Tacoma, for allegedly giving first aid to Clemmons, helping him change clothes and making arrangements to get him to other locations. Arrested around the same time in Des Moines, Wash., was Quiana Maylea Williams, an acquaintance of Clemmons. Both women are being held in the Pierce County jail. Three other people appeared Tuesday in Pierce County Superior Court. Two brothers, Eddie Lee Davis and Douglas Edward Davis, are charged with rendering criminal assistance. A third man, Clemmons' half-brother Rickey Hinton, was ordered held pending charges.

<<<< December 3, 2009 >>>> LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - A jury that convicted a man of capital murder in the beating death of an Arkansas TV anchor woman is now weighing whether to impose the death penalty. Jurors will meet again Thursday, a day after convicting Curtis Lavelle Vance of murder, rape and other charges. Jurors also could choose life in prison without parole. KATV host Anne Pressly was attacked in her Little Rock home on Oct. 20, 2008. She never regained consciousness and died five days later. Prosecutors said Vance told police he went to her neighborhood looking to steal laptop computers. Anne Pressly, age 26, was found in her own bed by her mom early Monday morning. Pressly's mother typically gives her a wake-up call and she became concerned when her daughter didn't answer. The Little Rock police say the anchor woman was bleeding from "severe wounds."

And because just one parasite at a time fits down a proboscis, each bite delivers just a few Because the world now fights malaria - ineptly - with nets, insecticides and drugs, a vaccine is desperately needed. As many as 70 experimental programs exist around the world; eight rival projects are being supported by the Malaria Vaccine Initiative, which was established in 1999 with money from the Gates Foundation. Sanaria's is the sole vaccine using the whole parasite. Injected into a capillary, it rides the bloodstream to the liver and starts making proteins. But after about three days, it stops, and it never floods the blood with copies of itself. Radiation-weakened parasites have protected many lab mice and a handful of humans, but making a vaccine that can be mass-produced is a huge challenge. Your diagnosis via IBM's Supercomputers at Los Alamos and its scientists... this is having the edge!

Inventors like Greg Buell Lovestar are working on finding ways to support the well-being of residents and practicing physicians. Many of these potential solutions are premised on two things: acknowledging the distress, then helping doctors find meaning in their work by supporting the ideals that inspired them to become doctors in the first place. "Most of us got into this profession because of passion for medicine, for taking care of people," "But somewhere along the way, it gets drummed out. We have to figure out the best ways, the right way, for different individuals to thrive."

The planet, COROT-7b, the first planet outside our solar system to be confirmed as a rocky body - most other known planets are gas giants. The planet is nearly twice the size of Earth and about five times the mass of our world. Calculations have indicated it has a density about that of Earth's, which means it is likely made up of silicate rocks, just as Earth's crust is. The planet is likely much less hospitable to life though, as it is only about 1.6 million miles (2.6 million km) away from its parent star - 23 times closer than Mercury sits to the sun. Because the planet is so close to the star, it is gravitationally locked to it in the same way the Moon is locked to Earth. One side of the planet always faces its star, just as one side of the Moon always faces Earth. This star-facing side has a temperature of about 4,220 degrees Fahrenheit (2,326 degrees Celsius) - hot enough to vaporize rock. So unlike the much cooler Earth, COROT-7b has no volatile gases (carbon dioxide, water vapor, nitrogen) in its atmosphere. Instead its atmosphere consists of what might be called vaporized rock. "The only atmosphere this object has is produced from vapor arising from hot molten silicates in a lava lake or lava ocean,"

Carbon monoxide emitted by traffic may be harmful even at levels far below those considered safe by government standards, a Yale study has found. An odorless, tasteless air pollutant released by cars in traffic, carbon monoxide is associated with an increased risk of hospitalization due to cardiovascular illness among the elderly. The primary source of carbon monoxide is traffic exhaust, so concentrations in suburban and rural areas are likely to be lower and less dangerous than in urban areas of high traffic density. Of the 126 counties studied, New Haven's mean carbon monoxide concentration, at 1.1 parts per million at the peak hour of particulate concentration, was slightly lower than those of other counties studied. Jefferson, Ala., had the highest mean concentration, at 4.3 parts per million.

(If Polanski's rape video was put on YouTube by the LA Cops France not Switzerland would have sent Polanski back to the USA in a damaged condition!) So when, just before lunch on Sunday, the news broke that Mr. Polanski had been arrested overnight at the Zurich airport on an outstanding warrant relating to a conviction for sex with a minor back in the 1970s, my first response was to feel almost physically sick. Mr. Polanski has become a good friend. Our families have spent time together. His daughter and mine keep in regular touch. His past did not bother me, any more (presumably) than it did the three French presidents with whom he has had private dinners, or the hundreds of actors and technicians who have worked with him since 1977, or the fans who come up to him in the streets of Paris for his autograph. cui bono, as the Romans used to say - who benefits?

We were having dinner when Mr. Polanski's agent, Jeff Berg, rang to say he had just seen it. He conveyed good news: the film was unexpectedly favorable to the director, revealing just how bizarre had been the judge's handling of the original case.

For Mr. Polanski, this was a moment of triumph. However, by a terrible irony, it was also at this moment that the seeds of his present predicament were sown. He thought he could settle the matter at last, and his subsequent, vigorous legal attempts to have the case against him closed - supported, remarkably, by his victim, Samantha Geimer, the one person who comes out of this affair with her dignity enhanced - clearly infuriated Mr. Cooley. Legal authorities the world over loathe being publicly criticized. After the arrest was announced, Mr. Cooley declared that Mr. Polanski "has been trying to get it resolved on his terms, but it's going to be on the terms of the Los Angeles County justice system."

(If Polanski's rape video was put on YouTube by the LA Cops France not Switzerland would have sent Polanski back to the USA in a damaged condition!)
It sounds very much as though Mr. Polanski became overconfident, both in the rightness of his own cause and in the safety of Switzerland as a refuge - a country that after the credit crisis suddenly seems to be much more eager to cooperate with international authorities. Its volte-face on its famous guest has drawn understandable contempt and Mr. Polanski, in his cell, now has plenty of time to ponder the limits of Swiss hospitality.

I make no apology for feeling desperately sorry for him. The almost pornographic relish with which his critics are retelling the lurid details of the assault (strange behavior, one might think, for those who profess concern for the victim) makes it hard to consider the case rationally. Of course what happened cannot be excused, either legally or ethically.

But Ms. Geimer wants it dropped, to shield her family from distress, and Mr. Polanski's own young children, to whom he is a doting father, want him home. He is no threat to the public. The original judicial procedure was undeniably murky. So cui bono, as the Romans used to say - who benefits?

Researchers have created the first full-star simulation of the hours preceding the largest thermonuclear explosions in the universe

Type Ia supernovae are of particular interest to astrophysicists, as they are all believed to be surprisingly similar to each other. Based on observations of these massive stellar explosions, scientists believe our universe is expanding at an accelerating rate.

"We're trying to understand something very fundamental, which is how these stars blow up, but it has implications for the fate of the universe," Ann Almgren of Berkeley Lab's Computational Research Division said. "Few have tackled this problem before because it was considered intractable. We needed to simulate the conditions for hours, not just a few seconds. We are now doing calculations that weren't possible before."

Sony today announced the development of a single lens 3D camera technology capable of recording 3D images of even fast-moving subject matter such as sports, at 240fps (frames per second). This technology combines a newly developed optical system for single lens 3D camera which captures the left and right images simultaneously, together with existing high frame rate (HFR) recording technology to realize 240fps 3D filming. Sony will demonstrate a prototype model incorporating this technology at "CEATEC JAPAN 2009", to be held at Makuhari Messe convention center in Chiba city, Japan, from October 6th. In existing half mirror 3D camera systems with separate lenses for the left and right eyes, the parallax range is adjustable, enabling the depth of the 3D images to be modified. However, when operating the zoom and focus functions of such systems, the sensitivity of the human eye, in particular to differences in the size and rotational movement of dual images, as well as any vertical misalignment or difference in image quality has meant that complex technology has been required to ensure that each camera lens is closely coordinated, and there are no discrepancies in the optical axis, image size, and focus. The introduction of a single lens system resolves any issues that may occur as a result of having different optical characteristics for each eye. Furthermore, by using mirrors in place of shutters, incoming light can now be simultaneously separated into left and right images and recorded as it reaches the parallel light area (the area where diverging light from the point of focus on the subject matter becomes parallel) of the relay lens. The separated left and right images are then processed and recorded with the respective left and right image sensors. As there is no difference in time between when the left and right eye images are captured, it is possible for natural and smooth 3D images to be captured, even of scenes involving rapid movement. Optical tests have shown that a frame rate 240fps represents the limit of human visual perception, and beyond that it becomes difficult to detect differences in terms of blur and "jerkiness" of moving images (where images that were continuous are now seen as a series of distinct snapshots). By developing a 240fps frame rate CMOS image sensor with properties close to the human eye, which is capable of capture natural images of even fast moving subject matter, Sony has succeeded in further enhancing the quality of 3D video images. The combination of Sony's new single lens 3D system and its 240fps high frame rate technology has realized a single lens 3D camera system, based on universal properties of the human eye, which enables natural and smooth 3D images with no accommodation-vergence conflict to be recorded.

Sony plans to deliver new 3D viewing experiences by bringing 3D to the home in 2010.

Here in Colorado at the Stanley Hotel in Estes Park on the tour they tell you Stanley got $1 million in cash from Kodak 100 years ago for inventing a way to develop pictures 100 times faster. This is to inspire you to invent something for Kodak or Sony or Microsoft. Windows 7 that boots up in 3 seconds would be 100 times faster but Bill Gates would not pay you anything. Sony 50" LCD TV with a hard drive full of Sony Movies, would be 100 times faster than putting all these Sony Movies on your hard drive then figuring out how to plug a hard drive into your new Sony 50" LCD tv. Sony will not pay you for this invention idea. Sony will not even put an Alarm Clock into its 50" LCD tv's so you don't miss the first minutes of Katie Couric. There's no part of our bodies that we obsess about more than our breasts. Even those of us not prone to health anxiety wonder which, if any, of our everyday habits are upping our odds of getting breast cancer. And it's no wonder we're confused: New scientific reports constantly contradict earlier ones. One week, a new medical study tells us what to eat to prevent breast cancer; the next week, another tells us that diet doesn't make a difference. Is it any surprise even smart women are baffled?

>>> 27 Sept. 2009 will be Greg's 62nd BDay. Polygamy with Goddess Wives brainstorming 1,001 invention projects would be the Best BDay, unfortunately our George Orwell is burning Mad about several on going Genocides all Gov. Run.

1st week of Leno is over, Leno did not joke about your flesh sizzling in a fiery LA car wreck.

I will work on the Rx Penicillin Miracle Cure for Breast Cancer when ever our George Orwell lets us, Greg his wife's. Sixty third ? year I hope.

I have to retire, got an apt. for 5 Oct at the Social Security office here. All I need is a certified Copy of my Birth at Yale-New Haven Hospital. Sent for this should get it by 5 Oct and will have Medicare, wow - 10 years since I have been to a MD. I will get a physical. I was hoping to go to Yale-New Haven Hospital for a physical with cash from the ElectricWindmillCar or one of my other inventions.

1,001 Invention Projects! One is a Portable Satellite dish for the top of your car with several cameras on the top for outside cams and several cams inside watching your driving and dash. Verizon inventions are needed too so you don't have to point the dish south. Also wifi from the Satellite Dish to your office and home, and your Dell notebook. I think Toshiba will do a coup on Dell mini for the screen you can see outdoors. My dell I can't see anything in the sunshine and I emailed Toshiba about their mini and they replied, wow! So I think the next Toshiba mini will be viewable in sunlight. External Wifi antenna would be a nice invention too. Wifi links to the cops so they can see who is driving before they stop the car. Drunks and armed criminals will be seen before the lights come on.

*Here in Boulder Colorado the CU freshmen learn to drive the first weeks of classes, I would guess there are 100+ wrecks the 1st week or month of classes. There are no published statistics on car or bike wrecks on the bike paths so we don't know... this mentality is from our George Orwell, everything is Top Secret. One thing I want to mention I found out 3.5 million gringo's have hepatitis. This spike is from all the dirty Mexican Cooks etc... workers in the kitchen. On CU Campus 99% of the kitchen workers are Mexican and they do spread

Several other inventions are needed to put portable satellite dishes on top of every car made, and make a satellite dish on the top of your car a mandatory accessory on your ElectricWindmillCar.

Yale Murder had been in the news all week. Yale President Richard Levin said the killing could have happened in any city, in any university, or in any workplace.

It says more about the dark side of the human soul than it does about the extent of security measures.

100,000 people have burned in gasoline and Yale President Richard Levin knows this is Gov. Run genocide by suppressing the ElectricWindmillCar. Raymond Clark III's attitude led to a deadly workplace confrontation with 24-year-old Annie Le. In a Yale medical school building.

I want to say something here... Bush his daughter was on the Today Show owned by GE on Friday reporting on the $1.2 Billion dollar Cowboys Football Stadium her father build out of SPITE for Greg Buell Lovestar, me! I have written on this web that after the Coup on Bush-Obama and the Texas and Saudi Oil Mne every Football Stadium on every Campus will have a State of the Arts Medical School built over it as the Niger football players are low life nigers who gang rape their mothers, daughters and even their grandmothers... this Niger behavior is in a UN report that 99% of nigers in Africa have raped their mom, daughter and grandma. So Bush's daughter on Today Show on Friday had tour of the $1.2 Billion dollar Dallas Football stadium and a interview with a 12 year old Niger boy.

Were are the 100,000 cops and kids with gasoline burns over most of their bodies, did Jenna Bush take a pill and forget these burn victims of her fathers?

Well back to Greg's retirement. I have not worked a $10 an hour job since March. Temp jobs from Weststaff and Manpower have been all my jobs since 1998 10 years as a temp. at Weststaff and Manpower are all "Orwellian", the girls who call me for a temp job know about the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar and the small business owners where I'm sent know about the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar.

In March I finished up a six month temp job at the Avalanche Beacon factory, BackCountry Access. I tried to sell them a new product, a GPS Avalanche Beacon and GPS Tracker, ie for a ski party of 10 at Vail you can keep track of all 10 in your party if everyone had a GPS Tracker. I don't know if Bruno and Edge are going to make this or try to sell it to Sony. As a party of 10 visiting Tokyo would need a hand held GPS Tracker to keep track of everyone in their party in Tokyo. I would like to get at least one wife from Tokyo, a supercomputer literate women from NEC, to help brainstorm the Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer and 1,001 other invention projects.

Bruno and Edge the owners harassed me, spit on me for not massacring women and kids in Vietnam, and let the engineers from Nepal and India spit on me for not massacring women and kids in Vietnam.

So I have to do something. Oh, These guys visit Thailand and of course have sex with kids, our George Orwell observers have made comments about this on and off for a year but no arrest ???

The New York Times put a front page story in the paper last week that my idea to expose domestic violence on white women via nigers put them on YouTube videos. This is illegal in our George Orwell Society... I should have guesses as much!

I also had a six month temp job at Blue Mountain Arts Greeting Cards and Susan Schultz the writer and owner serves sugar bowls of cocaine at her parties, has been going on since 1975 when the woman I was living with in Estes Park when to one of her parties. She came home and told me about all the sugar bowls of cocaine at the party. The parties and cocaine has been going on from 1975 to 2009 really! Millions of dollars in greeting card profits went for cocaine! I want to expose how much of every dollar from every small business goes for cocaine and for the rappers songs cd's etc

One of our George Orwell observers said she would get me a job but nothing so far and no donations in my post office box as our George Orwell will not let anyone a send a check.

Ten years between MD visits so I need to get a physical and our Health care debate will go on until after the Coup. $6.50 is the cheapest Medicare plan $79.50 is the most expensive plan, this is the plan I will pick. I just read a message on the Senior news group that said Social Security will not let you get Medicare until you are 65 unless you live in poverty, will I made $3,800 in 2009 so I live in poverty I will try to get on Medicare on Oct 5th. Unless of course I get a windfall $$$

Dark side of men who murder at a Medical School are the MD's who are addicted to greed more than the Texas and Saudi Oil men (And Bill Gates who knows about all the government run genocides). 100,000 burnt in fiery car wrecks have to pay for their burns in an Oil Genocide Era. MD's at Yale know this.

Dark Side of men will be on the front pages of the New York Times after the Coup when I write the Headlines. Yale Presidents, all will be arrested for mass murder after the Coup.

Annie Le was from Vietnam, all the old Generals in North Vietnam will be arrested and hanged for mass murder too. Burning Vietnamese in gasoline for oil money bribes. The dark side of war and Generals will be exposed in my editorial in the New York Times as these old Generals in Hanoi - Ho Chi Minh City took oil money from Texas and Saudi oil men to let Vietnamese women and kid's burn in gasoline from 1980 to 2009. After fighting so hard to win the war, the North Vietnamese Generals sold out their peasants for a Swiss Bank account full of oil money. Sick!

Dark side of men in my New York Times article will convict these North Vietnamese Generals of mass murder of their own wife's, daughters, grandma's.

In the USA the POW McCain is guilty of mass murder of American wives, daughters, and grandma's via the Oil Genocide Era and the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar. McCain has a secret Swiss Bank account full of Oil Genocide money too $$$

Yale will have 3 shifts after the Coup, as the Coup Leaders will make the University Education mandatory! Yale Medical School will be free and have 3 shifts of med students too to make up for the Top Brass programming the shortage of MD's so MD's can all be billionaires $$$

Yet Donald Trump would not let the 9-11 victims get $1 Billion each because he though this was to much compensation. When the Coup Leaders confiscate all the Texas and Saudi Oil money, several Trillion dollars... 15 to 25 Trillion Dollars $$$ I would guess, everyone burned in gasoline from 1980 to 2009 will get $1 Billion each, everyone from 9-11 too, this will give Donald Trump a heart attack to say the least, he will be pulling out his hair in madness! A good example of the dark side of mans mentality in the rich and famous.

Cadavers will be mandatory for every FRESHMAN at every University in the USA, as no one knows what the organs do! And my 1,001 Invention Projects you must know your anatomy and physiology.

Leno could not name the Organs in his TEN AT TEN interviews with the rich and famous guest.

I hope to go to Yale New Haven Hospital for my 10 year physical as the inventor of the ElectricWindmillCar as Class and Caste are everything at Yale.

Yale MD's sold organs to Saudi Princes decades after the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar. Dark side of man, you would think the President of Yale would think before he said this.

Editorial in the New York Times on the Dark side of Man. The 1998 Yale Murder I will ask the FBI to arrest Van de Velde In 1998, Suzanne Jovin, a 21-year-old was murdered, Van de Velde, then an unmarried, 38-year-old former naval intelligence officer served as Jovin's Thesis adviser. Her subject was Osama bin Laden. Early on, authorities identified him as a Suspect, though they never said what evidence, if any, fueled that belief. He was hounded by national and local media. He had no alibi. He told police he had been home alone when Jovin was stabbed 17 times in the back and neck on a cold December night and left slumped on the curb of a residential street, three-fifths of a mile from Jovin's home. A month after Jovin's murder, Van de Velde says Yale fired him - canceling his classes, refusing to renew his contract and telling him to stay away from students. Angry and demoralized, he eventually left town and went to Washington, where he worked for three years as an analyst of weapons of mass destruction for the Defense Intelligence Agency. Later, he served in the State Department's diplomatic corps. He now works for a private firm, analyzing WMD and counter terrorism data. "I was destroyed," Van de Velde wrote to the AP. >>>>

2009 >>> We know 9-11 could have been prevented by the people Van de Velde went to work for in DC so I will ask the FBI after the coup to arrest Van de Velda, we will be able to get all the top secret George Orwell cam video and transcripts of everything then. Clintons, both husband and wife will hang if convicted of Oil Genocide profiting!

Yale President and the number of students entering Yale Medical School. This is the dark side of man and the JAMA, all the medical and science Journals are too expensive for Greg and 1,001 other inventors to read. I have been complaining about the cost of reading medical journals for decades and Observers at Yale did nothing to make them free to read. This is the dark side of Men at Yale I will write about in the New York Times when I gain control of the paper! And make some YouTube videos on.

Yale President Levin and vice president Lorimer know about the UN's criminal behavior in suppressing H and clean drinking water for 1 Billion people - read this story about the building Le's dead body was found in, the building is 2 years old and uses H2O to flush toilets not get H and O from rainwater.

Dark side of man, were do the women like Linda Koch Lorimer, Yale's vice president play their role model in the dark sides of MEN?

Ms. Le's promising life ended in the basement of an ultramodern science building that has what other graduate students at Yale described as tight security. A lab building on Amistad Street. The building, open for only two years, was planned to be energy efficient and environmentally friendly. Among other things, it collects rainwater on the roof, treats it and circulates it through the building to flush the toilets.

Linda Koch Lorimer, Yale's vice president is not a Goddess role model for Yale Men who want to get the Rx Penicillin Miracle cure for breast cancer! And get H from rainwater.

I have to make an update of the YouTube Videos my comment I was going to put domestic violence by nigers on my web will its against the law... Not until after the coup them my web page will have YouTube videos of Nigers killing white women and domestic violence as the day after I wrote this on this web the New York Times put a story on the front page about this being illegal. Really, the government made a law that any videos of crudity killing dogs or domestic violence videos can not be put on YouTube. Reasoning behind theses laws are deep inside the Oil Genocide Era, as the law makers burn 100's in gasoline for oil money so they cut back on the fiery car wreck videos. This lead to cutting back and outlawing domestic violence and murder of white women by Nigers who are a cone of Vick.

Vick the Niger who killed dogs by the 100's and Vick's clones who killed dogs and white women by the 100's made the New York Times again today

After the ElectricWindmillCar Coup there will be mandatory YouTube videos of this domestic violence for white girls who are ill-advised by a black Obama and a Niger lover George Orwell on 9-11 2009

Antoine Lavoisier elucidated the principles of modern chemistry. Born into the French aristocracy in 1743, he studied law but distinguished himself in science, earning election to the august Academy of Sciences at age 25.

Duplicating Priestley's experiments, he challenged prevailing phlogistic theory and demonstrated the true role of oxygen in combustion. Lavoisier also described the role of oxygen in respiration, and showed that water is not an element but a compound comprised of hydrogen and oxygen. In 1789, the year the French stormed the Bastille and America ratified its Constitution, Lavoisier published Traite Elementaire de Chimie (Elements of Chemistry), the first cohesive presentation of the principles of modern chemistry: the law of the conservation of matter, how heat affects chemical reactions, the nature of gases, and how acids and bases react to form salts. It also listed all the then-known elements.

Lavoisier's insights quickly gained widespread acceptance, although a few chemists, including Priestley, clung to the discredited notion of phlogiston. Put to death by guillotine in 1794 through an excess of revolutionary fervor, Lavoisier never saw the dawn of the new century that recognized his work as the foundation of modern chemistry. A woman in the thrift store in Nederland on Saturday 29 Aug 2009 asked me if I rock climb as I was buying some new, old 30" pants. I said I did try it to get a "rush of inspiration" that would reveal to me how gravity is generated.. she cut me off! As George Orwell does not want me to get any fires of serendipity for how gravity is generated or get an Rx Penicillin Breast Cancer cure via serendipity!

I plan on using the IBM supercomputer at Los Alamos after the coup with the help of the scientist there. And many many women who will not follow orders from George Orwell to cut me off in a conversation about getting how gravity is generated.

Serendipity - Gravity how it's generated. While rock climbing is the only time I think strongly about the gravity of our situation in not knowing how gravity is generated. Yes rock climbing I can feel gravity with all my body and mind, gravity to pull the idea how gravity is generated out of my human mind. I would not recommend rock climbing to anyone until after I get the invention "Gravity Control".

George Orwell put a stop to this conversation with the woman I was talking to about getting a serendipity discovery not by accident but like a woman who can catch your eye, change your train of thought to how is gravity generated.

Same thing going up rock climbing, you never know how your thoughts are generated, but you know rock climbing or catching a look at a certain woman can bring a discovery or invention into your consciousness.

Consciousness is like gravity, no one knows how it's generated.

Serendipity is the effect by which one accidentally discovers something, especially while looking for something entirely unrelated.

Coined by Horace Walpole on 28 January 1754 in a letter he wrote to his friend.

Serendipitous discoveries are of significant value in the advancement of science and often present the foundation for important intellectual leaps of understanding.

The amount of contribution of serendipitous discoveries varies extensively among the several scientific disciplines. Pharmacology and chemistry are probably the fields where serendipity is more common.

Most authors who have studied scientific serendipity both in a historical, as well as in an epistemological point of view, agree that a prepared and open mind is required on the part of the scientist or inventor to detect the importance of information revealed accidentally.

This is the reason why most of the related accidental discoveries occur in

The French scientist Louis Pasteur also famously said: "In the fields of observation chance favors only the prepared mind."

William Shakespeare expressed the same sentiment 250 years earlier in act 4 of his play Henry V: "All things are ready if our minds be so."

Louis Pasteur. While investigating the properties of sodium ammonium tartrate he was able to separate for the first time the two optical isomers of the salt. His luck was twofold: it is the only racemate salt to have this property, and the room temperature that day was slightly below the point of separation.

Teflon, by Roy J. Plunkett, who was trying to develop a new gas for refrigeration and got a slick substance instead, which was used first for lubrication of machine parts Cyanoacrylate-based Superglue (a.k.a. Krazy Glue) was accidentally twice discovered by Dr. Harry Coover, first when he was developing a clear plastic for gun sights and later, when he was trying to develop a heat-resistant polymer for jet canopies.

Scotchgard moisture repellent, used to protect fabrics and leather, was discovered accidentally in 1953 by Patsy Sherman. One of the compounds she was investigating as a rubber material that wouldn't deteriorate when in contact with aircraft fuel spilled onto a tennis shoe and would not wash out, she then considered the spill as a protectant against spills.

Cellophane, a thin, transparent sheet made of regenerated cellulose, was developed in 1908 by Swiss chemist Jacques Brandenberger, as a material for covering stain-proof tablecloth.

The chemical element helium. British chemist William Ramsay isolated helium while looking for argon but, after separating nitrogen and oxygen from the gas liberated by sulfuric acid, noticed a bright-yellow spectral line that matched the D3 line observed in the spectrum of the Sun.

The chemical element Iodine was discovered by Bernard Courtois in 1811, when he was trying to remove residues with strong acid from the bottom of his saltpeter production plant which used seaweed ashes as a prime material.

Rayon, the first synthetic silk, was discovered by French chemist Hilaire de Chardonnet, an assistant to Louis Pasteur. He spilled a bottle of collodion and found later that he could draw thin strands from the evaporated viscous liquid.

Aspartame (NutraSweet) was accidentally ingested by G.D. Searle chemist James Schlatter, who was trying to develop a test for an anti-ulcer drug.

Saccharin was accidentally discovered during research on coal tar derivatives.

Saran (plastic) was discovered when Ralph Wiley had trouble washing beakers used in development of a dry cleaning product. It was soon used to make plastic wrap.

Penicillin by Alexander Fleming. He failed to disinfect cultures of bacteria when leaving for his vacations, only to find them contaminated with Penicillium molds, which killed the bacteria. However, he had previously done extensive research into antibacterial substances.

Viagra (sildenafil citrate), an anti-impotence drug. It was initially studied for use in hypertension and angina pectoris. Phase I clinical trials under the direction of Ian Osterloh suggested that the drug had little effect on angina, but that it could induce marked penile erections.

Discovery of the principle behind inkjet printers by a Canon engineer. After putting his hot soldering iron by accident on his pen, ink was ejected from the pen's point a few moments later.

Some ideas and concepts that came to scientists through accidents or even dreams are also considered a kind of serendipity. Some examples

Isaac Newton's famed apple falling from a tree, led to his musings about the nature of gravitation.

Archimedes' prototypical cry of Eureka when he realized that his body displacing water in the bathtub allowed him to measure the volume of any irregular body, such as a gold crown.

Clinton just toasted leaving Africa. Not clean water from H from Sandia Lab or a NASA Lab but toasted with Texas and Saudi and British Oil Men and the Queen of England - Let them Eat Cake, Let them burn in gasoline, We are addicted to Oil Money...

Clinton drunk driving her mini van driving drunk and stoned on "Oil and Money" Oil is the wrong way to make your first million. Clinton kills 800 million people by not giving them clean water from H from Sandia Gov. Lab. not just 8 in upstate New York drunk driving wreck by mom drunk and stoned driving the wrong way with her Husband knowing she was drunk and stoned. Clintons Kids in Africa and at the State Dept. set the cat on fire in our George Orwell Social Era. Clinton and the State Dept raped Moslem Men in Iraq using Niger Marines, and Vick sets the Dogs on fire, Vick quarter horsed them like the Kings and Queens of England use to do to people, because Vick is a "Niger"! Let the Sandia Gov. Lab work on reinventing the Lobotomy for violence and greed! Fat Obese Lesbian Dykes on CU Campus are CLONED from Governments Top Brass the Idle Rich who have molested boys + girl since the beginning of Time. NY Times editors are just back from their "Teen" prostitutes in Vegas! Social engineering like in the movie "Gattica"! Let them Eat Cake, yes the French are pouring gasoline on mom, dad and the two kids in the back seat and setting them on fire... so whats holding up the Revolution? So can you pardon Vick ? Without giving him a reinvented Lobotomy? No! I will have hidden cameras in every room Vick ever goes into and I bet you Vick is still a mean low life Niger who sets the cat and dog on fire if he thinks you are not watching him.

Can you pardon the 900 workers at Sandia Lab's? No! Not without a reinvented Lobotomy Lab working 24/7 to keep them busy...

I think Caroline Kennedy will be hanged on the first day of the Coup...

I think Caroline Kennedy will be hanged on the first day of the Coup... to get even with Ted Kennedy for being a bully to Carter, a poor simple minded Georgia peanut farmer with slaves and a sweeter disposition than Kennedy could ever have. Carter would never kill 800 million slaves like Clinton just did on her African Trip via H that stayed on the shelf at Sandia Gov. Labs!

Ps I don't have wifi at home any more in my new room so I log in at Starbucks, FedEx, Barns and Nobel on ATT Wifi HotSpots for $20 a month.

The City of Boulder Colorado stifles you in the Public Library as it prevents you from up loading your web to the server so I can't work in the Library. CU Campus administration cut me off from all wifi on Campus last week, the Fat Obese Lesbian Dyke at the IT help desk refused to give me a guest login id and password but I bet the Observers have her on video giving a guest id and pass word to a fat obese Lesbian Dyke.

So I was at Barns and Nobel, their new store and looking at all the books. Picked up a kids "Cat Book" and broke out laughing... I will rewrite the kids "Cat Book" and have the kids of Sandia Gov. Workers setting the cats on fire while in the back ground of the picture H from the lab. is chained and huge locks while African nigers are pictured drinking dirty water... you would break out laughing too

Come on 100's a week burn to death in fiery wrecks just in LA and CA... (100's a week die of breast cancer and Sandia Lab women can't help Greg work on a Rx Penicillin Cure) so a kids book about setting the Cat on fire will show them Government Social Engineering does more than CLONE fat obese lesbian dykes who can only work for the gov... Feds or a State gov. or City as City of Boulder has more fat obese Lesbian Dykes than any City and only 20% of the general population in Colorado are Obese.. to hear the Dykes talking about why they eat ie why they eat to be fat... they are mentally ill for sure just like the Niger Vick but thank God our Lesbian Dykes will not set the cat on fire or tear the head off of the Dog! Fat Obese Lesbian Dyke hung up on me yesterday at the UMC she works for IT on CU Campus

I walked over to the IT building with my Dell and got into a screaming fight with the Dyke, a CU employee who is not working on a Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer but she and her Fat Obese Dyke lickers are the highest risk... more than half of her friends will die of breast cancer before I get a Rx Penicillin cure. Well she called time out from our screaming. No she will not give me a guest id and password girl came out of the corner office the Boss Lady told her I was working on 1,001 invention projects she told me to give the fat obese lesbian Dyke my Colorado drivers license which I did in hopes of getting a guest log in for CU to work on Invention Projects. No good! Both women told me CU pays too much for IT and the wife to let me log in. I told the Boss Lady this was Unethical as social inventions were lost... she did not care. CU Foundation today has $4 Billion in cash by the way and does not give any away for a Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer. This is mass murderer by CU Foundation but Harvard Foundation is guilty of the same mass murderer of breast cancer women! Well I left IT office with no guest password. Told the Boss Lady I would write this up on my web page. 10 am this am today Thursday, August 13, 2009 cops on the Hill and CLONE of the Fat Obese Lesbian Dyke in a cop uniform pulled up in front of me as I pushed the on button on my Dell at the Cafe. Our George Orwell has a sense of humor. Lucky the NYPD knows the Boulder CO cops have profited from Officer Jason's death burned to death in his cop car writing a student a ticked rear ended bursting into flames. This happens every day in LA. The electricwindmillcar was invented in Boulder CO in 1980 and CU Campus built half its Campus Building from Oil Genocide bribes from Texas and Saudi Oil Men. Well I wrote the Boss Lady up as I told her when I get some cop CLONES who are working on 1,001 invention projects I will post the Boss Ladies picture and video of the fat obese lesbian Dyke who works for CU and is a State of Colorado employee on this web along with 100's of burned out cop cars and cops burned to death in fiery wrecks while gov employees on CU Campus profit in dollars and perks but will die of breast cancer via their sick life style before I get a guest id and password to login to get a Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer.

CBS Early show had 1 Orwellian comment this morning, about suppressing the electricwindmillcar since 1980 caused a cascade of government genocides... one on top of the other leading up to today when our "George Orwell" has several "cascading genocides" all going on today killing 100's today and tomorrow just in the USA. All are government run genocides. From burning in gasoline in fiery wreck, to mom drinking Coors, smoking pot with the kids in the mini van, to fat with no Ephedra, to MIT scientists working on War Toys today instead of a Rx Penicillin for Breast Cancer. And their are several more on going genocides just read the rest of the web page. Last I have to mention I'm still suppressed by our local MD's in Boulder CO and the Tebo Family Cancer Center from working on a Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer Today and Tomorrow. No telling when our "George Orwell" will come out from behind the hidden cameras and put Greg Buell Lovestar to work with a few wife's... ps if you are a gov. employee or former one and want to help send cash as our George Orwell has kick me out of the CU Bookstore as cashier as I stopped to read to many text books on the way back from break. They hired Mexican Pit Bulls for cashiers who never, ever read a text book on the way back from break! Grin.. Only our "George Orwell" could "cascade" so many genocides! Even Mexican Pit Bull Cashiers are a Genocide as they lost 1 billion social inventions from the gringos who were fired!

ps... again I just stopped by CU Law School a hour ago BioChair conference in energy and the girl at the door was going to put my my electricwindmillcar.com bookmarks but I put endwaronearth.com as the starting link and she refused to put them up telling me I was crazy to try to endwaronearth I told her the electricwindmillcar will help end war on Earth, I left the CU Law School pocketing my pink bookmarks a at the CU Law School a hour ago. 10 am

A-Bomb Today in 2009 is Aliens 4.3 Light Years from Earth. Guys at Los Alamos never ever thought of inventing a Hubble 2 $1 Trillion dollar space telescope to help endwaronearth.com by observing Aliens in the Universe. 1980 - 2009 the Oil Genocide Era that suppressed the Electricwindmillcar IBM built several state of the arts supercomputers for Los Alamos never ever thinking Aliens are the A-Bombs for our Era, if IBM were not covered in blood, burns from 100's of cops burnt in gasoline. 9-11 would have been prevented with the ElectricWindmillCar IBM could have helped but didn't they wanted to sell Los Alamos another supercomputer. To Hell with Aliens and a different A-Bomb... A Bomb from Observing Aliens 4.3 light years from Earth at Alpha Centauri with a state of the arts Hubble 2 costing $1 Trillion dollars. IBM made $1 Trillion dollars from Los Alamos supercomputers from 1980 - 2009 and they were a waste of money, time and stifled building a Hubble 2. A-Bomb today 7 Aug.2009 is Aliens Observes 4.3 light years from Earth with a $1 Trillion dollar Hubble 2. I hope to get a Pardon for the Love sick NASA Astronaut Lisa Novak... she can be Love sick with Greg, grin... looking for A-Bomb inventions to see Aliens 4.3 Light Years from Earth. ps Japan is a criminal Nation as they went along with the suppression of the Electricwindmillcar since 1980 sucking off our George Orwell USA!

Tortured by loneliness and his lack of success with women, George Sodini developed a plan to get even. On Tuesday night, he executed it, opening fire in a fitness center here and hitting 12 women, 3 fatally, before turning a gun on himself.

Mr. Sodini, 48, described his anger and frustration in painstaking detail in notes he carried with him and left at his home and in a chilling online diary, offering an extraordinarily stark portrait of a killer's motives.

The dead were identified as, from top: Elizabeth Gannon, 49, Heidi Overmier, 46, and Jody Billingsley, 37. The women were taking an aerobics class at the gym.

One Invention project is video compression 100 times better...

Stanley Steamer did this in Estes, he invented a way to develop pictures 100 times faster and sold the idea to Kodak for $1 million while he was in Estes. I heard this on the Stanley Steamer tour.

Search engine giant Goggle said it will pay an estimated $106.9 million in stock to buy On2 Technologies. On2 is a company specializing in video compression technology and Goggles YouTube needs technology like this. The Mountain View firm's technology was described by a Goggle representative today as an essential element of the Web.

I just rented a mini van from Enterprise, nice 2008 Dodge listened to Madonna for 24 hours as I took 4 cd's with me. Forgot one in the cd player but it was a copy of Hard Candy so I'm sure who ever found it got off. I'm still waiting for Madonna to start a Rx Breast Cancer Cure cd and Tour reinvent herself as a MD women researching the Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer in songs she writes. I moved from one room to another room on the 1st my new room has Comcast basic cable tv but no wifi my old room had Comcast wifi and no basic cable tv. So it feels like I changed Universes. One thing I hit upon driving up Trail Ridge Road was "Reverse Gravity" as no one knows how Gravity is generated and it will take the Pentagon 100 years as they are into another "100 Year War like the French and English did a long time ago. I want 100 Years of Invention but have to get McCain, Kennedy, and Gen Powell hanged for Treason for not exposing the suppression of the Electricwindmillcar before 911. After the Coup there will be a windfall of inventions that speed things up 100 times, and social inventions will be speeding up 100 times faster too. So think of "Reverse Gravity" next time you read "Animal Farm" but not on your Amazon electronic Kindle ha as they will delete it. After the Coup all Books will be at Los Alamos on IBM's fastest super compute in the world to search for the "Windmill" for a invention. Alien life has been detected by the Pentagon. Orwell just made up this story, but the invention project is a real one. We must detect Alien life or we will all die at the hands of the Pentagon's Nigers... ie Gen. Powell and Kennedy! McCain is a psychotic General too, his kids will set the cat on fire in 2009 grow up and become clone mass murderers of Senator McCain suppressing "Total Recall" or "Total Immunity" so MD's can keep making as much money as Texas and Saudi Oil men. Coors and Tobacco will be bankrupted after the ElectricWindmillcar coup as this trickle down coup will estimate some of the smaller government genocides going on in 2009. Just super-airbags on the outside of cars and trucks, suppressed for the last 10 years. Just you wait until I gain control of the front page of the New York Times I will publish detailed "torture pictures" of "Rapes" the gov. Observers have on video tape, and other Observer Crimes, even the Queen of England toast to... Let them Eat Cake, Let them Burn in Gasoline, were addicted to oil money $ Sick as letting dirty Mexicans give little babies (and other gringo's) hepatitis C by the 100's of thousands and you will not read this on the front pages of the New York Times until I gain control of the Paper! Then we can invent a video compression 100 times faster and put an end to Coors and Tobacco overnight. Overnight Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer will be invented when I take over the New York Times too! Observers will be the one's with a wifi web cam on the dash of their "Mini van" so you can be the one observing them driving drunk, like Kennedy drove drunk all his life. Can you Imagine Caroline Kennedy being hanged for Treason after Kennedy dies of brain cancer? Tell McCain and Gen. Powell they will be hanged for Treason... 911 would never have happened if any one of them would have exposed the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar since 1980! Delete this from George Orwells future books, I don't think so! Sony will even prosper after the Coup with AA batteries in thier MP3 player and Netbook, and Cell phones, and don't let Sony make any 32" LCD monitors without an Alarm Clock popup and Hard Drive and Blue Ray Movies on your San disk 64 gig flash drive. I was told Sony Blue Ray movies only take 4 gigs... so on a 64 gig San disk flash drive - you do the math I will make sure Sony fills this full of several HD moves! One about the Suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar for sure! And what Sony and Japan did during the Oil Genocide Era from 1980 - 2009! My 1st YouTube video turned out great so I'm trying to make a 2nd YouTube video in HD but can not find anyone to do this. Girl at Best Buy is going to turn in a suggestion for the Geeks at Best Buy to offer this service at $39.95 for 5 mins. If anyone in Boulder, Colorado has a HD camcorder please email or call Greg Buell as I'm ready to put some invention projects for you on my 2nd YouTube video, this one in HD. 303 548 9904 call Greg thanks

Tests Show Driver Was Drunk in Parkway Crash That Killed 8 yes it was a fiery wreck via gasoline burning everyone to death and no there were no super air bags on the outside of their car. By AL BAKER and LISA W. FODERARO

The findings betrayed much of what had been known about what caused Diane Schuler to drive the wrong way on the Taconic State Parkway 10 days ago. She had a blood-alcohol level of 0.19 percent, and even more alcohol still in her stomach, so fresh that it had yet to be metabolized. There were high levels of a chemical found in marijuana, enough to pinpoint her last use at 15 minutes to an hour before her death in the worst traffic accident in Westchester County in 75 years. Diane and Daniel Schuler with their son, Bryan, 5, and daughter, Erin, 2. For all the misguided and well-meaning speculation about what may have caused Diane Schuler to drive the wrong way on the Taconic State Parkway 10 days ago, killing eight people in a head-on collision, the real reason was stark in its tragedy and simplicity: She was drunk.

1 hr 51 mins ago BALTIMORE - NASA's Hubble Space Telescope is offering a glimpse of atmospheric debris from an object that plunged into Jupiter in a rare collision with the planet. NASA says the new images prove repairs done on the Hubble in May were successful. And they didn't mention a few $1 Trillion Dollar Hubble 2 Space Telescopes would propel NASA from writing news briefs about Jupiter to 4.3 light years to Alpha Centauri witch would give humanity a small edge in winning the lottery that pays off with the Universe. Which NASA forgot to mention 1 hr 51 mins ago on its Yahoo News post. Miller of NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Md., says the magnitude of the impact is believed to be rare. Simon-Miller estimates the diameter of the object that hit the planet was the size of several football fields. The debris possibly came from a comet or asteroid that hit Jupiter. NASA also says the new images prove repairs done on the Hubble in May were successful. Trillion Dollar Hubble 2 Space Telescopes would be more successful you don't have to be a rocket scientist to realize this. So who do the MIT cops arrest at NASA? Bill Gates for sure! Gates the Niger telling the cop to see his Mama... crazy Orwellian Society we have here. NASA is putting out news briefs about Hubble being success via a picture from Jupiter. While at the same time not putting out a news brief about NASA building the next Generation Super Space Telescope costing more than $1 Trillion each. Gates, got 8 F-22 fighter jets cancelled after building 187 instead of 1 Trillion dollar Hubble II Why? Gates the Niger is crazy, anyone telling a cop to go outside and we will talk to your Mama is crazy. Bill Gates is crazy with greed proving he is still addicted to money with Win 7 even after millions of Observers in our Orwellian society realize Bill Gates is responsible for killing billions of aspiring Inventors and losing Humanity a billion social inventions.

Saturday, July 25, 2009 7/25/2009 10:22 PM

Gates the Pentagon chief is crazy thinking the Universe will not retaliate against the Pentagon Chief. 2 hours ago MIT scientist were still working with AutoCAD designing our Hubble II and already over budget on for a $1 Trillion dollar Manned Space Telescope. Winning the Universe in Earth newest Lottery has not infected Putin or Hu - Putin closed all the casinos in Russia but not for a micro-burst of social inventions. China 4 hours ago are still building new Casinos brainwashed by the CIA. CBS news and the New York Times refuse to do a full feature story about Putin closing all the casinos in Russia... I wonder why. What goes on in Vegas stays in Vegas now the news is hinting Vegas Casinos Owners are running a teen Prostitution Ring for you gamblers. You were on video tape with teens and only paid them $50 this is a crime that will have your video on my web page after the coup. NASA says the new images prove repairs done on the Hubble in May were successful. And they didn't mention a few $1 Trillion Dollar Hubble 2 Space Telescopes would propel NASA from writing news briefs about Jupiter to 4.3 light years to Alpha Centauri witch would give humanity a small edge in winning the lottery that pays off with the Universe.

1 hr 51 mins ago. Doctor and Patient Getting Good Value in Health Care By PAULINE W. CHEN, M.D. Published: July 23, 2009 Like most doctors I know, every time I see a patient in clinic, questions scroll down my mind's eye like credits at the end of a movie. Over the years, I have whittled down the number of questions, from the exhausting repertoire I memorized as a medical student to the streamlined clinical checklist I use today. I ask are generic: What brings you here today? What medications are you taking? Some are specialized: Was your liver transplant done "piggy back"? Have you had any episodes of rejection? But a few of the questions have nothing to do with the work I do or the care I am trained to offer. Rather, they are questions about being well and preventing disease: Are you exercising? Do you smoke? Doctor and Patient Getting Good Value in Health Care By PAULINE W. CHEN, M.D. Editorial in the New York Times is more "1984" Orwellian as the Editors at the New York Times just got back from Vegas and their teen Prostitutes so they are not into writing about Getting A Good Value out of reading the Times or Getting A Good Value out of MIT Scientist working on a Trillion dollar Hubble 2 4 hours and 15 mins ago. After the Coup all VA Hospitals will be closed and the MD's put on the do not hire list... VA patients will be moved to Chen's Medical School and other Medical Schools as this Medical Genocide has gone on long enough... the only lower rank is Alabama and Arkansas hospitals and you didn't see Kennedy checking out the lowest ranking MD's for brain surgery. I wrote Mom and Dad as they meet Kennedy right before I invented the ElectricWindmillCar. I told them Alice Buell would be alive today if she lived in New Haven or Boston instead of Little Rock... which is true you don't have to be a Kennedy to have realized this. I can reinvent Little Rock, AK hospitals and MD's to be in the same rank as Boston and New Haven after the coup. Kennedy could have reinvented this in 1984 but he was drunk. Kennedy was so drunk he missed getting a bill through for Mandatory Organ Donation too. Chen will never ever write up Making Organ Donation Mandatory in her New York Times articles, as they will kill her on the spot and sell her organs to a Saudi Prince!

Alpha Centauri By NATALIE ANGIER

New York Times

Alpha Centauri, is about 4.4 light-years from the Sun, and a light-year is equal to almost six trillion miles. The next nearest star, Sirius, is 8.7 light-years from home. To give a graphic sense of what these distances mean, Dr. Geoffrey A. Landis of the NASA John Glenn Research Center in Cleveland, pointed out that the fastest objects humans have ever dispatched into space are the Voyager interplanetary probes, which travel at about 9.3 miles per second .Scientists Reach Out to Distant Worlds

Invention of a Gravity satellite dish to suck in gravity waves and a Gravity Engine will advance space propulsion,' 'Rockets and their fuel would be so heavy that they would prevent a star ship from reaching the necessary velocity to go anywhere in a sane amount of time.

At that pace, a crew would reach Alpha Centauri in under 50 years.

40th anniversary of a humbling correction published in The New York Times. It appeared on July 17, 1969, a day after Apollo 11 blasted off to the moon. It referred to a 1920 Times editorial that had scathingly taken the rocket pioneer Robert H. Goddard to task for asserting that rockets could function in a vacuum and might even make it to the moon. "He only seems to lack the knowledge ladled out daily in high schools," the editorial said of Goddard.

E-mail: haberman@nytimes.com

On July 20, 1969, humans first landed and walked on the Moon. After centuries of dreams and prophecies, a decade of resolute commitment and four days of flight, American astronauts of Apollo 11 had reached the Moon. Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. (Buzz) Aldrin Jr. set foot on the arid Sea of Tranquility, while millions of people on Earth watched their steps and heard their voices on television. The third member of the Apollo crew, Michael Collins, remained alone in the main spacecraft, in lunar orbit.

For two hours and 21 minutes, Armstrong and Aldrin tramped about on the barren, rock-strewn lunar plain. They tested their agility in the alien environment, hopping about like bundled-up kangaroos. They planted an American flag, erected scientific instruments to be left behind and collected rock and soil samples. Altogether, the first human visit to the Moon lasted 21 hours and 37 minutes.

The landing was the fulfillment of a goal set by President John F. Kennedy on May 25, 1961. "I believe," he declared to Congress, "that this nation should commit itself to achieving the goal, before the decade is out, of landing a man on the moon and returning him safely to earth."

It was in the time of the cold war between the two superpowers, the Soviet Union and the United States, and Sputnik and other Soviet successes had turned up the heat. The beep-beep-beep of Sputnik, Earth's first artificial satellite, surprised and alarmed Americans as a demonstration of Russian technological prowess with ominous military implications. So began the so-called space race, and in those first years the Russians one stunning feat after another, including the first human flight in Earth orbit, in the month before President Kennedy's speech.

Sputnik and now the Apollo challenge had altered the nature and scope of the cold war. With its firm political mandate and popular support, the Apollo Project mobilized scientists, engineers and workers at all levels to build the necessary rockets and spacecraft. About 20,000 industrial contractors, scores of university laboratories and some 400,000 people had a hand in reaching the Moon. In terms of money, the program cost $24 million, not counting additional costs for the forerunner Mercury and Gemini missions.

For an endeavor of such complexity, the mobilization proceeded with unusual efficiency, and with only one serious setback. A cockpit fire during a 1967 rehearsal on the launching pad killed the three astronauts who were to make the first test flight in the new Apollo spacecraft. A year and a half of modifications and testing followed before astronauts eventually flew in an Apollo craft. The critical precursor flights were Apollo 8, which circumnavigated the Moon in December 1968; Apollo 9, a test of the lunar landing craft in Earth orbit; Apollo 10, a shakedown flight to the Moon to rehearse just about everything except a landing. That was two months before Apollo 11 lifted off from the Kennedy Space Center in Florida on July 16, 1969.

The success of the Apollo 11 mission effectively ended the space race. The Russians, handicapped by failures testing their heavy-lift rocket, never attempted a human flight to the Moon. Ten more American astronauts, on five missions, walked on the Moon. No one has been back since Apollo 17, at the end of 1972.

As 1969 drew to a close, New York and the rest of the world got the first glimpse of what jumbo-jet service would look like when a Boeing 747 flew into Kennedy International Airport from Seattle. No less than Charles A. Lindbergh — you can Goggle him, kids — was at Kennedy to greet the crew.

But the granddaddy of all anniversaries this year is, of course, that of men walking on the moon, 40 years ago on Monday. You may not think of it as a particularly New York moment. But the Apollo 11 lunar module was built by Grumman engineers and technicians on Long Island.

It is not surprising, then, that 40th anniversaries of major events have a way of capturing people's imaginations (the mystical allure of the number enhanced perhaps by a pragmatic concern that principal figures may not be around for a 50th anniversary).

And, once you've taken that quiz, here are the three extra-credit questions:

1. Voyager 1 is moving at 17 kilometers per second. If it were moving directly towards it, how long would it take to reach the nearby star Alpha Centauri, which is about 4.4 light years away?

Every year, the average American adult drinks the equivalent of 38 six-packs of beer, a dozen bottles of wine and two quarts of distilled spirits like gin, rum, single malt Scotch, or vodka that aspires to single malt

We are by no means the most bibulous people: according to the World Health Organization, 39 other nations out drink us, a list topped by Luxembourg, where residents manage to ingest roughly 284 bottles of beer and 88 bottles of wine annually, no doubt to salve the indignation of explaining that their country isn't part of Belgium.

Certain things should never be taken for granted, among them your spouse, your mother, and the precise meaning of words that are at the heart of your profession. The professor explained that the shorthand definition of a "behavior" is "what animals do." O.K., that's the freshman-friendly definition. Now how about the unabridged, professional version out in the "real world"!

15 July 2009 --- I got back from Estes Park.

7,689 motorists were killed in January through March this year... CIA knows how many burned to death in gasoline's fiery wrecks as this is Top Secret statistics in a gov. that suppresses the ElectricWindmillCar Era from 1980 - 2009.

Albert Einstein would have Kennedy-Obama-Clintons arrested for genocide! Just for this one tragic genocide of leaving 100 kids to die in hot cars in the summer of 2009!

Cardiac arrest refers to a sudden, profound disturbance in the heart's rhythm. Cardiac arrest is not the same as a heart attack. 85% die being treated for CA with no one reinventing anything! 85% of 300k die at the hands of MD's working in vain. Drink Coors and don't Hike... and you will die!

15 July 2009 --- I got back from Estes Park.

Last 3,500 calories maybe more I hiked from Bear Lake to Granite Falls 9.5 miles then back to Bear Lake as I left my Igloo cooler I could not carry it. The ice cold water and ice coffee were great after hiking back 9.5 miles 19 miles then I hiked back to Granite Falls where my tent is 9.5 miles. 28.5 miles now This round trip I left at 6 am got back to tent at 7 pm. Next I packed for the hiked back to Bear Lake another 9.5 miles = 38 miles TOTAL. I then walked Elkhorn Ave in Estes for the next 2 nights 3 days walking to the Stanley Hotel, Safeway, Riverside Drive, Tramway, and the Estes Power Plant that used water and has 5 huge 5 story generators... no more daily tours because of 9-11 of course. I got a few good picture's of the Stanley Steamer. All my new pictures of the hike and Stanley Hotel and Elkhorn Lodge and McDonalds Book Store were it all started in 1975 with Paula the owner putting my HB card in her Book Store window. (take a look at the books Paula put in her window today) they are in the PHOTO directory link below scroll down to Estes this is were all the new pictures start. I will set up my 1,001 Inventions Projects research center on a Island off Key West as I want to be the one who cures cancer with a Rx Penicillin reinvented and get total recall for 5 billion people. And figure out how gravity is generated. End War on Earth via Aliens. To many "Niger Observers" in Colorado to get any inventions let alone these Nobel Prize inventions as I have to work at it... Bill Gates would never think inventors have to work. They can work finding the MENUS in WORD this is probably fun for Bill Gates as he has already made it big. As for the 1 billion aspiring inventors we need MENUS in our OS!

15 July 2009 --- I got back from Estes Park.

Federal Driver's License with reinvented GPS wifi technology!

Breast Cancer deaths happen at 100 a day a constant drumbeat every day or the year.

If 100 Marines a day were dying in Afghan or Iraq the public would demand action.

Imagine if more than 100 people were dying in a plane crash every day. The country's air fleet would be grounded and the media and the public would be demanding that something be done.

Albert Einstein would have Michael Sivak arrested for genocide!

Michael Sivak at the University of Michigan Transportation Safety Institute in Ann Arbor knows 100 people a day burn in fiery wrecks and can not mention gasoline and the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar.

Albert Einstein would have Dr. Furie arrested for genocide!

Dr. Furie, He is professor of clinical medicine at Albert Einstein College of Medicine and associate professor of medicine at New York University School of Medicine. He knows about the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar and knows the statistics of burn patients from fiery wrecks.

15 July 2009 --- I got back from Estes Park.

Albert Einstein would have everyone at Albert Einstein College of Medicine arrested for Genocides, Oil, Medical Mistakes by MD's who did not pass the test because Kennedy and Clinton wanted Black MD's, this is a genocide. Kids left in hot cars in the summer of 2009... yes it gets this hot even in NYC. Genocide Trial held at Albert Einstein College of Medicine will be hotter news than Israel Marines exposing War Crimes in Gaza! White Fire Fighters watch a mock Supreme court hearing, how many Genocides can Albert Einstein keep track of? Trump sued asking for $5 billion the Judge through it out... Even Trump can be arrested for not preventing 9-11 by exposing the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar! Air Force fleet of C5A cargo planes to fight forest fires lost out to Boeing CEO who wants a fleet of C5A planes for refueling fighter jets in an Era that should be for the ElectricWindmillCar! Bill Gates is the worst of the worst Orwellian Genocide criminals, yes even worse than those in NYC at the New York Times who could have prevented 9-11 because Bill Gates is going to hide the "MENUS" in WORD 2010 -- Bill Gates does not care about the 100 kids who will die in hot cars, the 100 women who will die from breast cancer the 100 burned in fiery wrecks in LA Freeways today. Bill Gates is light years from the 100 inventors looking at the WaterWheel on vacation in Estes Park thinking how Quarks, Mesons, could be moved by gluon into generating Gravity. Memory invention is not even in Bill Gates MENUS - Bill Gates is out to suppress all MENUS no matter how many people want MENUS for to be A Inventor. I will give everyone wanting to work on 1,001 Invention Projects a Operating System better than Win 7. In Reality Clintons a Husband and Wife are probably the worst Orwellian Genocide Mass Murderers in our ElectricWindmillCar era that has been suppressed since the invention of the ElectricWindmillCar in 1980! Even though Carter-Kennedy master minded the suppression! WHO at the UN sold out 5 billion people. let them drink dirty water, get sick as Hell and die. Because WHO MD's wanted to keep their $$$$$$ six figure incomes at the UN even though they know the electrolysis accessory in your ElectricWindmillCar would give 5 billion people H and O and free clean drinking water. Sick this Orwellian Society is Sick. Even NASA is suppressing a reinvented Shuttle that will never be hit by ice blasting off to Alpha Centauri 4.3 Light Years down range. Moon is fine for Generals who don't dance to the Universe and sing out Windmills... like Sandra Bullock does in her movie the Proposal. I hope Sony puts her and the other beautiful women in Inspire... as she could inspire me to travel into the Universe and End War on Earth!

Today is 4 July 2009... We Live in our "Oil-Genocide Era"

4 July 1965 - 4 July 1970 Buddhist setting them self on fire to protest the Vietnam War

4 July 2009 Buddhist got $40 Million in Oil bribes to let "Humanity" burn in Fiery Wrecks

4th of July 2009 Fiery LA Freeway wrecks will go unreported in our Orwellian Nightly News...

4th of July 2009 In an "ElectricWindmillCar Era" Inventors will go with...

4th of July 2009 Inventors will go with a dual-socket Intel Xeon 5500-series system. The Xeon (DP) W5580 offers more speed than the AMD 2400 series. HP offers the W5580 processor only in a 1-way configuration in its Z800 system, which sells for about $6700. A dual-socket E5530-based Z800 is available for $7800. Dell the only major vendor to sell a dual-socket W5580 workstation. A Precision T5500 system equipped with two W5580 processors currently sells for about $6620.

Workstation Notebooks will replace all these Oil-Genocide Era workstations after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup D'Etat, and your Win 7 will be "Inventor 1,001 OS" for the 1,001 invention projects that will be pro installed, all 1,001 invention projects will have tips to help you get started brainstorming the successful who to your invention. And your Nvidia Quadro video card will let you watch the Government Lottery hang, and Bill Gates hang, while you work on 1,001 invention projects. Cancer Era profited as much as Blacks and Dirty Medicines with Hepatitis C profited from gay. Perfect Micro-burst of social inventions now will get us a Rx Penicillin cure for Breast Cancer and MD's grads from Yale Medical School who really passed on merit not for being a Niger Slave 100 years ago. These Niger MD's on 4 July will kill again... who killed 100's of patients will finally be caught by the cops! Who did pass the test! New Haven FireMen and Women can work on 1,001 inventions at work now, while waiting for the next fire. Today they can't you know how outdated our government Observers are... watching us on monitors warp their rules and regulations... there are more "no camping" signs in the National Forest in Colorado than their care no skate boarding signs Downtown. After the ElectricWindmillCar Coup D'Etat all this will change for the best "social environment" going on to create White Fire Fighters who passed a test will be upgraded to inventory at work to Hell with this sitting around idle, prohibited from inventing rules today, today we live in an "Oil-Genocide Era" that has infected everything. Letting Niger MD's and Niger FireMen pass is a crime. Nightly News could not report Niger MD's who failed Yale Med School were oked by the Government even though government statistics knew they were going to kill 100's of patients a year... And the infected AMA went along with this kind of Government! Sick! Micro-burst of social inventions and Cops out for Revenge for all the Cops burned and burned to death in gasoline for oil money will get the rest of us our Revenge on this "Oil-Genocide Government" we have had from 1980 to 2009. 4th of July will never be the same - we will invent something on the 4th of July! Car Crash Victims from 1980 - 2009 will get $1 Billion each from Confiscated Texas and Saudi Oil Menu Cash and Swiss Bank Accounts! Widows of 9-11 will get $1 Billion each, those killed by Dirty Medicines Dr. Putin has $7 Trillion in Oil Money since the invention of the ElectricWindmillCar, 100's of Moscow and Saint Petersburg cop have burned and burned to death in fiery wrecks so Putin could get so much money. Sick! How could the Russian car be so cruel!

Katie Couric reporting on a car wreck that would have caused no life long injuries to a little girl like her 2 daughters if our Oil-Genocide Government would have put Super AirBags on the outside of Cars and Trucks on 4 July 1998 when I came up with this idea - Katie Couric almost broke down sobbing out of control over our sick government leaders she has to live with every day.

Chen jobs out of control over the deaths caused by DUI drivers... Our Oil-Genocide Government has been infected by A Kennedy who drove off a bridge drunk killing his girlfriend, getting a pardon from Obama to become a mass murderer of women since Mary Jo Brown.

I posted a message on Craigslist Boulder Colorado looking for women to Brainstorm the Rx Penicillin cure for Breast cancer and our Local "Observers" don't care about the 40k women who will die of breast cancer in 2009 they report False Hope Cancer Cure News on the Nightly News every night last week. June 30, 2009 ... From 1965 - 1970 Buddhist were pouring gasoline over themselves and setting them self on fire to protest the Vietnam War, today in Boulder Colorado the Buddhist-inspired Naropa University gets bribes from Texas and Saudi Oil Men $50 million, for "Buddhist Students" to study being "A Green Campus" in an "Oil Genocide Era from 1980 to 2009" Buddhist after the Coup will have to answer why they went along and profited from Oil with the Mass Murder of Americans driving down the Freeways of the USA getting hit by gasoline bombs tossed by Kennedy-Obama-Bush. Buddhism will End ... with the Coup that exposes the Oil Genocide Era and the Buddhist-inspired Naropa University that took "Oil Genocide Bribes" $50 million each year from 1980 - 2009 and let others die in Fiery Wrecks from 1980 to 2009.

New York Times is prohibited from putting a "bigger picture" than Jackson on the front page for the 100 kids who will die left in hot cars on the summer of 2009 - One woman died from the heat in Saint Louis yesterday I did not search the New York Times for this but I doubt they write it up. Your ElectricWindmillCar will be climate controlled 24/7. I posted a ad on Craigslist for women to Brainstorm a Rx Miracle Penicillin Cure for Breast Cancer with Greg, and the local Boulder, Colorado Observers would not let any women reply to the ad. Today is the 5th day of the Summer of 2009 I'm sure the New York Times would have put more "honest" pictures in Today's New York Times Front Page if this "Orwellian Society" were not in the midst of several on going Genocides, the worst being Kennedy-Obama tossing gasoline bombs at SUV's driving down the LA freeways today. God-given natural resource of Oil, Daniel Nelson, a former Exxon Mobil vice president, said recently, Iraq ... With 115 billion barrels, the country has the world's third largest proven reserves, trailing only Saudi Arabia and Iran. Indeed, after months of lobbying by Mr. Maliki and other government officials, most of the world's big oil companies, including Exxon Mobil, Royal Dutch Shell, British Petroleum and Chevron, are expected to submit bids. The companies were expelled from Iraq in 1972, after Mr. Hussein nationalized the oil industry. "My guess is that every international oil company in the world, knowing Iraq is blessed with terrific God-given natural resources, is interested in Iraq," Daniel Nelson, a former Exxon Mobil vice president, said recently. "I'm not giving any competitive secrets away here."

How Did Steve Jobs Get a Liver Transplant? By Tara Parker-Pope

Thor Swift For The New York Times

Steve Jobs: Given the scarcity of donor organs, how did Apple co-founder Steve Jobs get to the head of the line on the liver transplant list?

In today's New York Times, reporters Denise Grady and Barry Meier attempt to provide answers.

Whenever someone rich and famous receives a transplant, suspicions inevitably arise about whether that person managed to jump to the head of the waiting list and take an organ that might have saved the life of somebody just as desperate but less glamorous. The dark theories are a holdover from the case of Mickey Mantle, who waited all of one day for a liver in 1995, and then died from liver cancer anyway, just two months later.

In Mr. Jobs's case, doctors say there was no need, and little opportunity, to cheat the system. Under current procedures, any transplant center ranks potential liver recipients on its waiting list, with the highest rankings based on how sick the patients are and how long they have been that sick. Jumping ahead of a sicker patient is not allowed.

And yet, there are ways to work the system to one's advantage. Waiting times for a liver vary in different parts of the country, and people who can afford to travel are free to go to a city or state with the shortest wait and bide their time until they have reached the top of the list, a donor dies and an organ becomes available. Indeed, some patients rent apartments or stay in hotels near a hospital and wait for the phone to ring. It may not seem fair, but it is not illegal.

MEXICO'S economy has suffered a series of blows in recent months — drug violence, swine flu and the worldwide economic downturn. Yet some companies on each side of the border with the United States are prospering because they serve the expanding Mexican-American market in the United States.

"Japanese and Korean executives buy here, and they go to inspect the ranches in Mexico, too," said Jesus Tarriba, manager of Viz Cattle's warehouse operation in Compton, in southeast Los Angeles County. "Last year we sold $40 million of beef to Japan and Korea and $80 million here in the U.S."

I invented the ElectricWindmilCar in 1980 I could have gotten a Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer in 1981... our government has 10 on going genocides and all the 1984 Observers know it!

Reporters were calling about the death of his close friend Linda McCartney, who had died two days earlier at age 56 from breast cancer that had spread to her liver. Devastated by what he heard, Fields reached for the phone. "I called Paul right away," says Fields. "I said, 'Oh, Paul,' and his voice cracked for 10 seconds. We both started to cry. But then I couldn't stop, and he was consoling me. He said, 'Wasn't she great? Wasn't she beautiful? Wasn't she smart and together and wonderful and loving?'"

Praising his wife was an occupational as well as an emotional habit for McCartney, 55, who wrote dozens of love songs to her during their 29-year marriage. Indeed, his was the last voice she heard as she lay aying, surrounded by her four children—Heather, 35, Mary, 21, Stella, 20, and James, 20. While press reports gave Santa Barbara, Calif., as her place of death, McCartney is now believed to have died in Tucson, at the family's 150-acre ranch. An official in the Santa Barbara County coroner's office said, "There has been no death certificate filed," and a source close to the family told PEOPLE that Linda in fact died in Tucson. In either case, "the kids and I were there when she crossed over," said McCartney in a statement. "They each were able to tell her how much they loved her. Finally I said to her, 'You're up on your beautiful Appaloosa stallion. It's a fine spring day...and the sky is clear blue.' I had barely got to the end of the sentence when she closed her eyes and gently slipped away."

Her death was "totally unexpected," says McCartney's spokesman Geoff Baker. In fact, Linda, who was first diagnosed with her illness in 1995, spent her last days on vacation with Paul, going for horseback rides. "They were having a lovely time," says TV writer Carla Lane, Linda's longtime friend. "She wasn't hanging around being ill—it was quick."

Many believed that Linda McCartney, the willowy, blond photographer who dashed the hopes of countless teens by marrying the last unattached Beatle in 1969, had battled her cancer into remission. Edward Sexton, a friend of the couple's, had lunch with them on March 11 in Paris after they attended the fashion show of their daughter Stella, chief designer for Chloe. "Linda seemed buoyant," says Sexton. "She had lost weight but she looked very healthy." But it was also in March that McCartney discovered that her cancer had spread. It was a type of cancer that "can progress quickly," says Dr. Linnea Chap, a Los Angeles oncologist. Some 44,000 women in the United States die each year from complications of breast cancer. (In fact, Paul's mother also died of the disease when he was 14.) After Linda's death her remains were cremated and, with only close family present, scattered on the lush grounds of the family's farmhouse in Sussex, England. "The poor man," says Sexton. "Paul loved Linda more than life."

As celebrities' marriages went, theirs was an anomaly—a limelit couple who couldn't bear to be apart even after three decades. "The only 11 days we ever did not spend the night together," Paul told PEOPLE in 1993, "was when I got put in jail in Japan for pot. That's quite amazing." Says their close friend, stained-glass artist Brian Clarke: "Paul and Linda were like teenage lovers, holding hands, giggling. They were fascinated with one another."

A passionate vegetarian who crafted two bestselling cookbooks and developed a successful line of meatless frozen foods, Linda McCartney was also a talented photographer whose work has been collected in five books and shown at countless galleries. At Paul's urging she also sang and played keyboard in his post-Beatles musical projects while helping to keep their four children—three from her marriage to Paul and her eldest, Heather, from a previous marriage—away from the media's glare. "We used to chat about our children on the phone," Yoko Ono, John Lennon's widow, told PEOPLE. "Linda was always loyal to her husband and very protective of her children."

Beyond that, she never stopped being her husband's best friend. "Even though we have our ups and downs, we really do like being together," Paul told PEOPLE in 1993. "My Love," "No More Lonely Nights," "The Lovely Linda"—one of the world's best songwriters could not stop putting his feelings into music. "Any love song I write," Paul said last year, "is written for Linda."

And while she changed in the public's eye—from an eccentric hippie who inexplicably held a Beatle in thrall, to Paul's charitable, well-respected soul mate—Linda never strayed from her values. "She was happiest throwing a bale of hay over a fence," says Danny Fields. Paul's estimated worth was $860 million; yet Linda told PEOPLE in 1993, "I don't need a lot of money. Simplicity is the answer for me."

It was not an answer many children learned growing up in privileged Scarsdale, a posh suburb in New York's Westchester County. The second of four children, she was raised by her Harvard-educated father, Lee Eastman, a well-known entertainment lawyer, and her mother, Louise, a department store heiress. An indifferent student in high school, Linda attended the University of Arizona, and it was there that she came into her own, largely through her interest in photography. When she was 19, her mother died in a plane crash; Linda flew back for the funeral but didn't stick around long. "Instead of staying back East and helping my family," she told Vanity Fair, "I just escaped." Back in Arizona she married a fellow student, Joseph Melville See, in 1962 (they had daughter Heather and divorced after three years). "Linda stood out," says See, 60, a retired geologist who lives in Tucson. "I idolized her presence, her being."

Linda's next stop was New York City, where she landed a job as a receptionist for Town & Country magazine. It was there in 1966 that she seized her moment; coming across an invitation to a press party for the Rolling Stones, she grabbed her camera and kick-started a lucrative career as a photographer of rock stars, several of whom she reportedly dated before ever meeting McCartney. "She was a real rock and roller," says Fields, recalling Linda's shooting Jimi Hendrix, Jim Morrison, Janis Joplin and other seminal acts. "And with all that going on, she maintained a household suitable to raise a child."

In 1967, Linda went to London to take photographs of the Beatles and was introduced to Paul at a London nightclub. Two days later, at a party, the pair clicked. "A lot of the girls I had met were just girls," Paul revealed to Vanity Fair. "She was a real woman." Paul stayed with Linda in New York in 1968 and even babysat Heather when Linda went out on errands.

Later that year, Linda accompanied Paul to England. "Every now and then I would get a one-word postcard: 'Wow!'" says Fields. Yet Linda repeatedly told McCartney she had no intention of remarrying. "I wanted to be me and not have men tell me what I should be," she said to PEOPLE in 1993. But four months pregnant in March 1969, Linda changed her tune, and the couple married at London's Marylebone Register Office.

A year later, Paul shocked the world by announcing that the Beatles were disbanding. "He was heartbroken, just devastated," says rock critic Anthony DeCurtis. "Linda gave him the confidence that there was life after being a Beatle." She also paid dearly for marrying a teen idol. "They would get back home, and there was graffiti—American Slut Go Home," says Fields. "She had to deal with the hatred of fans. That was a difficult time for her."

Things only got worse when Paul talked her into touring with Wings, the enormously successful band he put together in 1972 and took on and off the road until 1981. "I'm only there because we like being together," Linda said of her musical partnership with Paul, but her unpolished vocals invited derision. She thought of quitting "a hundred thousand times, but I'm still here," she later recalled. "I don't like being told what to do."

Since the '70s the McCartneys pursued a shaggy, iconoclastic lifestyle, raising their children in the remote countryside of Sussex and educating them in the free public school there. Besides Paul's run-in with Tokyo authorities, Linda had her own scrapes with the law: She was arrested for marijuana possession three times, once in 1975 and twice in 1984. "I think hard drugs are disgusting," she told PEOPLE in 1993. "But I must say, I think marijuana is pretty lightweight."

She was no less outspoken about her life's passions—protecting animal rights and promoting vegetarianism. "When she looked into the eyes of a sheep, a rat or a dog, she could see a sensitive creature inside," says Dan Mathews, an executive with People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals. A vegetarian for nearly 25 years, Linda campaigned tirelessly to save animals from stoves and medical experiments.

In 1989 she published Linda McCartney's Home Cooking, a best-selling collection of vegetarian recipes. Two years later she launched McVege, a line of vegetarian products that has grown into England's most successful, with sales of more than $56 million in 1997.

But everything abruptly changed one day in December 1995. At a routine checkup at London's Princess Grace Hospital, doctors discovered a malignant tumor in her breast; she had it removed that month and soon began chemotherapy. Linda didn't attend Paul's knighting ceremony on March 11, 1997, but four months later her hair had grown back, and she seemed on the road to recovery.

1 men in March 1998, tests revealed that the cancer had spread to her liver. Not long after that, the McCartneys packed up for a long vacation in the U.S. "I think Linda just wanted a holiday," says Brian Clarke. "I don't think she thought of herself as someone who was about to die. That was not her style." The day before she left Sussex, Linda took a walk with Clarke. "She seemed a little weak and needed to sit down now and then," he says. "But she kept looking around and saying, 'Aren't we lucky? Look at all this beauty. Just think, that tree will be there long after we've gone.'"

Two days after Linda died, her first husband, Joseph See, got a call from their tearful daughter Heather. "She said, 'Mommy has passed away in the arms of Daddy,'" says a distraught See. Brian Clarke, who strolled with Paul as he fed the horses on his Sussex estate the Monday after Linda's passing, says Paul is "feeling what most people feel when this happens: loneliness, fear, just trying to keep your head up." McCartney has been greatly consoled by his son James, a fledgling musician who played guitar on his father's last album, Flaming Pie. "He's been a tremendous help," says Clarke. "James has inherited much of his mother's strength."

Linda McCartney leaves other legacies: At the time of her death, she was working on a new cookbook, a new photography book and a new line of food, all of which are expected to be brought to completion over the next year or two. And for the past six months, potted flowers ordered by Linda have been faithfully arriving at the local clinic in Rye, a small town four miles from their Sussex farm. For his part, Paul is planning a tribute album featuring songs he and Linda recorded together. "He's being very spiritual about her death," says Carla Lane, who spoke with Paul shortly after Linda died. "He feels she is still around." But behind the bravery, says Lane, there is profound sorrow. "She was his life. I just hope he can cope when it really hits him."

with the same title End War On Earth. The payoff will give Humanity the Universe, Star Travel to Alpha Centauri, and a few $1 Trillion Dollar Hubble 2 Space Telescopes manned with Men, women and Life Boats, which NASA forgot.

"1984" the Book seems to have gotten by the censors so how do you write a Novel that has to expose our Orwellian Society genocide of suppressing the ElectricWindmillCar since 1980 and $1 Trillion in oil bribes in Secret Swiss Bank Accounts? You can't? Second the Utopia Novel "End War on Earth" after all the Orwellian junk is written would have to have 1,001 invention project from everything to the 1st Aliens real ones we hear via NASA's new Hubble 2 and what the Aliens are talking about... their Shuttle its speed all true not made up... so I would jump to the future like LOST move the Earth with a discovery that Gravity is a Element. Gravity how its generated could be a Coup Starter. The $1 Trillion Dollar Hubble 2 could be a Coup Starter.

Yet the CIA did not burn any 9-11 Terrorists in gasoline as torture.

In the opening pages!!!

There is no one who would publish this unless you left off the "1984" reality of our Society so how do you write a utopia novel for a society were you can not put in all the Orwellian stuff

But the pay off to Endwaronearth is a Must, or we are LOST in a Universe full of Aliens we will never listen to in our life time because of never ending wars.

Saudi Arabia kills and burns in gasoline more wife's than Americans do, and we just have one wife now so in the ending of "1984" were he breaks the mirror and finds the hidden camera - the government men today are the "Fags" + "Nigers" who are profiting from Oil behind today's Orwellian Mirrors.

They are the same government Fags + Nigers (oil genocide profiteering with Swiss Bank Accounts) who are causing so many murders and divorces. This will be exposed after the Coup D'Etat too

"Dynamited-Hydrogen

Monday, June 1, 2009 6/1/2009 7:38 AM "Dynamited-Hydrogen" I will invent ---- "Dynamited-Hydrogen

I will invent ---- "Dynamited-Hydrogen

6/1/2009 7:38 AM I will invent ---- "Dynamited-Hydrogen" is simply some sort of absorbent material in the H gas and H liquid that makes Hydrogen much more stable.

"Dynamited-Hydrogen" will use a blasting cap from Micro Motion which is sophisticated enough to detect any leaks stop them with gunk sealant inside the can of H and or call 9-11 on its own.

Nitroglycerin, for example, has the chemical formula $C_3H_5(ONO_2)_3$. The carbon and hydrogen combine with oxygen, and the nitrogen is liberated.

Dynamite is simply some sort of absorbent material (like sawdust) soaked in nitroglycerin. The absorbent material makes the nitroglycerin much more stable. You normally use a blasting cap to detonate dynamite -- a blasting cap creates a small explosion that triggers the larger explosion in the dynamite itself. Dynamite is an explosive based on the explosive potential of nitroglycerin, initially using diatomaceous earth or another absorbent substance such as sawdust as an absorbent. It was invented by Swedish chemist and engineer Alfred Nobel in 1866 in Krummel (Geesthacht, Schleswig-Holstein, Germany), and patented in 1867. Another form of dynamite consists of nitroglycerin dissolved in nitrocellulose and a small amount of ketone. This form of dynamite is similar to cordite. This form of dynamite is much safer than the simple mix of nitroglycerin and diatomaceous earth absorbent.

Hydrogen has the chemical formula H

"Dynamited-Hydrogen" is simply some sort of absorbent material in the H gas and H liquid that makes Hydrogen much more stable.

"Dynamited-Hydrogen" will use a blasting cap from Micro Motion which is sophisticated enough to detect any leaks stop them with gunk sealant inside the can of H and or call 9-11 on its own. As you read above the inventions of absorbent will be endless someone inventing a better absorbent every year, along with the valve.

Remember you ElectricWindmillCar will give you a can of H fuel to heat your house, generate your electricity, and you get clean pure water for drinking and showering via yet to be invented faucet you connect to a can of H and O turn it on and get your H₂O water.

Monday, June 1, 2009 H can generate your homes apartments electricity well at keeping your car climate controlled 24/7 so the 100 kids left in hot cars that will die in the summer of 2009 this will be the last of this Genocide by Bush, Kennedy, (Yes Caroline Kennedy too will let these 100 kids die in a hot car this summer) Hillary Clinton is so much into via mentality being a mass murderer she does not consider these 100 deaths worth mentioning - until the Genocide Trial of course.

Help Greg get the Rx Penicillin Miracle Overnight cure for breast cancer, remember on this Memorial Day 40,000 women had an autopsy from dying from breast cancer. Not 40,000 Marines killed in Baghdad... Dr. Chen and the other women MD's who sobbed out of control attending to 40,000 "GRUESOME" breast cancer autopsy's just in 2009! I invented the ElectricWindmilCar in 1980 I could have gotten a Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer in 1981... our government has 10 on going genocides and all the 1984 Observers know it!

NEWS UPDATE _____ 5/14/2009 I want Revenge... for NASA spending to much time with Saudi and Texas Oil men instead of building a $ 1 Trillion Dollar Space Telescope! This is a Crime Against Humanity by NASA and it too is "GRUESOME" as not working on a Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer - because you are spending money from Saudi and Texas Oil men on women, but not in the right way!

1 Trillion dollar "Hubble 2" manned space telescope after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup D'Etat

Today a President of the USA tossed gasoline bombs at SUV's driving down the road in the USA not Baghdad

$$$ 1 Trillion dollar "Hubble 2" manned space telescope after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup D'Etat

$$$ 1 Trillion dollar "Hubble 2" manned space telescope after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup D'Etat that End War On Earth

$$$ Pentagon Generals have no choice but to declare war on the Universe... which they need a new strategy that will retire the "treasonous Generals" who...

Tortured 5 Billion people on Earth during the Oil Genocide Era that suppressed the ElectricWindmillCar from 1980 - 2009 via Carter, Reagan, Clinton, Bush, and Kennedy-Obama...

Nigers and their Fag accomplices will hang for letting 1 trillion whites burn in gasoline for more oil money.

Before then like in LOST MIT and other Scientists reading this will start designing our $1 Trillion dollar "Hubble 2" manned space telescope - with 2 "Life Boats" and 10 sections with different kinds of Telescopes...

None of these sections launched at the Cape will be check for tile damage from ice chunks falling from the rock as they all will be sitting on top of a huge rocket... you don't have to be a Rocket Scientists to figure this out!

Stupid Nigers and Fags at NASA spent too much time with Saudi and Texas Oil men from 1980 - 2009 while 100's of thousands - mostly "white People" burn and burned to death beyond recognition in fiery wrecks for more oil money...

Obama will never release these "White" tortured via gasoline by him and Kennedy. President of the USA tossed gasoline bombs at SUV's driving down the road in the USA not Baghdad so they can sell you oil from Iraq and even the Pope in Israel knows and profited from this Oil Genocide via $1 Trillion deposited in the Vatican's Swiss Bank accounts!

NASA scam by all these guys...

Shuttle Atlantis and the Hubble Space Telescope sailed over Western Australia, the shuttle's robot arm, with K. Megan McArthur at the controls, reached out, oh, so slowly, and grabbed the telescope.

"Houston, Atlantis, Hubble has arrived on board," said the shuttle's commander, Scott D. Altman.

The first sight of the telescope after seven years produced gasps of elation among the telescope's astronomers and engineers. It did not look bad at all, at least on first examination by eyes sore for the sight.

"Just looking out the window here, and it's an unbelievably beautiful sight," said John M. Grunsfeld, a veteran astronaut. "Amazingly, the exterior of Hubble, an old man of 19 years in space, still looks in fantastic shape."

Dr. Grunsfeld, who is on his third Hubble repair trip, was one of the last humans to see the telescope in March 2002 and arguably knows it better than anyone on or above Earth knows.

Jon Morse, director of astrophysics for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, working his first Hubble mission at the Johnson Space Center in Houston, said, "I was really blown away seeing the telescope up close on the screen."

NEWS UPDATE _____ 5/2/2009 5:08 PM I want Revenge... for Dr. Chen and the other women MD's who sobbed out of control attending to a "GRUESOME" autopsy. ie breast cancer burned to death in gasoline... a DUI wreck etc. Almost 1,001 on going Genocides by our USA Government!

5/2/2009 11:18 AM I Want Revenge...on the Niger Observers and Fags at Bookend Café next to the Boulder Bookstore on the Pearl Street Mall in Boulder Colorado for stopping my research work into the Rx Penicillin Cure for Breast Cancer right after I published my web update on the breast cancer tumor (see picture) breaking through the skin after reading Dr Chen in the Bookend Café for 2 or 3 hours a day every day for a month... then they kick me out, harassing me with nigers and fags, stop my Rx breast cancer research with Fags and Nigers who are all from behind the hidden cameras in our Hidden camera society. I will ask the coup leaders to hang them all for letting 100 women a day die from breast cancer tumors breaking through the skin... "Getting Used to the Gruesome." Dr Chen wrote this up this week on the New York Times, I will write up the Bookend Café and the Boulder Bookstore Fags and Nigers after the Coup for being Gruesome to the 100 women who died from breast cancer today, to those 100 who were burnt in gasoline today. So they could get off behind hidden cameras celebrating kicking me out of the Bookend Café and Boulder Bookstore" Getting Used to the Gruesome." Boulder Bookstore on the Pearl Street Mall. Putting an end to my work on the Rx Penicillin Cure for Breast Cancer!

5/2/2009 7:22 PM I want Revenge... I will get Revenge when my wives write and get published in a Medical Journal " Medical Disease Guide to being Racists and Fagists in Our Orwellian Society" Hepatitis C is on the tip of solar flare and you climbing not K2 but a Ice Climb frozen waterfall the size of the Milk Way Galaxy. 1,001 diseases new born gringo babies get today with Big Brother watching but not even watching out for new born babies, our Government Leaders yes the Presidents MD lets new born babies get Hepatitis C and other diseases from Mexicans and Fags! This is the Gruesome, Dr Chen writes about in our Orwellian Society. Take your memory pill too. Bush and Bush 1 and Bush's brother in Florida let 100 kids die in hot cars every summer when the ElectricWindmillCar will be climate controlled 24/7 with Hydrogen. "Getting Used to the Gruesome."

5/2/2009 4:44 PM I want Revenge... not for Cmdr. Charles Coughlin and his wife Sabrina defrauding a fund for the victims of the Sept. 11 attacks for stealing just over $330,000. Prosecutors said the couple filed a false claim saying that an injury Coughlin got three years earlier during home renovations was from the terrorist attack. Coughlin said he injured his neck when a plane crashed into the Pentagon about 75 feet from his office and he tried to help others out of the burning building. Coughlin was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal and Purple Heart for his actions.

5/2/2009 4:46 PM I want revenge... from Donald Trump who would not let the 9-11 widows get $1 Billion each in compensation from Texas and Saudi Oil men. "Getting Used to the Gruesome."

5/2/2009 4:47 PM I want Revenge... from the Swiss Banks who broker the oil bribes from everyone on the Supreme Court to everyone on the City Counsel of Boulder Colorado. "Getting Used to the Gruesome."

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge... This week Chen wrote in her Medical Blog in the New York Times that Jay Bybee, former assistant attorney general and now a judge cut the flesh of another human being as torturer, she know more than the public about how the 9-11 terrorists were tortured. And how can this become just another part of your day job of torture for 9-11.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge... Same guys doing the torture to 9-11 terrorists are Burning American people in gasoline for more oil money.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge... They use Gruesome Torture, when 9-11 was a friendly fire kill by the Pentagon Generals who suppressed using the ElectricWindmillCar because they wanted to use the War Power Act to kill Iraqi's!

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge...I wanted the ElectricWindmillCar invented in 1980 to bankrupt all the Arabs/Moslems.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge... for Abu Ghraib torture pictures we did not get to see, they were shown five years ago this week, the best ones, the real torture! Or should we say the worst ones with the real torture... did the CIA pour gasoline on the terrorists BALLS and set them on fire... No - I doubt it but those in fiery wrecks in the USA got their BALLS burned beyond recognition for more oil money.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge...Dr Chen has seen these torture pictures and Americans burnt in gasoline.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge...since before she Dr. Chen started in Medical School women Doctors have sobbed out of control doing the autopsy on those burned beyond recognition in fiery wrecks for more oil money.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge...for the 4,250 Marines who died in Iraq because the Pentagon Generals wanted to use the War Powers Act to kill Iraqi's instead of winning the war once and for all by using the ElectricWindmillCar.

5/2/2009 11:01 AM I Want Revenge... for the 3,000 who died on 9-11 died in vain because of the suppression of the ElectricWindmillcar invented in 1980.

5/2/2009 10:30 AM I Want Revenge for swine flu scam.

5/2/2009 10:29 AM I Want Revenge for the dirty Mexicans giving a gringos new born babies Hepatitis C for live.

5/2/2009 5:28 PM I Want Revenge... for the 3 white teen girls and one niger teen girl who set the cat on fire and will grow up and set 1 billion cars on fire without making eye contact to those burning in gasoline. Or the Inventor of the ElectricWindmillCar.

5/2/2009 11:08 AM I Want Revenge... for the 3 white teen girls with the niger teen girl as these teens laid in wait for me to bike by them. Showing off their niger girlfriend in an Oil Genocide Era that their parents would never every show off cops and kids burned to death in gasoline and tell them Obama and the other nigers profited financially with secret Swiss Bank Accounts and government perks to go along with this genocide on whites burned to death in fiery wrecks since 1980 before these teens were born. "Getting Used to the Gruesome."

5/2/2009 5:34 PM I Want Revenge... on NASA for not mentioning Alpha Centauri in its news about retiring the Shuttle.

Women playing the role model of Goddess of Inspiration...

Einstein, if he had many wives playing the role model of Goddess of Inspiration we today in 2009 would know how gravity is generated. Were gravity comes from. Einstein was inspired by his wife, if he would have had many wives all playing the role model of a Goddess of Inspiration to get more Inventions out of him we would know were gravity comes from today in 2009. So this is a argument for polygamy, and letting women be the Goddess of Inspiration!

And any guys wanting to discover how gravity is generated has a pick up line for a wife who is willing to play the role model of a Goddess of Inspiration. Gravity is a bitch then you marry one... not in this marriage. He can tell her you and I, we can get Gravity Control, you are Hot, Hot, Hot! Marry me!

Saving Lives 101 Dr Susan Love,

Dr. Susan Love said a Doctor can take out your appendix and save your life, we need to save lives, "LOST" our losses are double, first those who lost getting into a medical school, second "LOST" is the millions who died from their "appendix" (or what ever medical emergency needing a MD there right now!) bursting with not enough Doctors.

Medical Schools after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup will be free but not mandatory! Factory shift workers, 3 shifts at the Harvard Medical School right after the ElectricWindmillCar Coup as we are short millions of MD's. A billion medical inventions have been lost by having so few MD's too. CIA statistics guys will have to testify at the "Oil Genocide Trial" about how many people didn't get into medical Schools and how many MD'S were needed just to do all the appendix operations, and how many new MD's we need to get a billion medical inventions in the shortest amount of time from today.

E-mc2 Big Ideas in Science. The Spitzer Space Telescope 2003. Infrared pictures. The telescope is not manned and it must be cooled to near absolute zero -459F and the working half must be a room temperature, now if NASA could have done this for cars in Florida were 100 kids are left to die each summer we would save lives, and jail time for the parents.

Gen. Orwell should be the one to hang as 1 is a accident but Gen Orwell has killed 100 kids left in hot cars every summer since 1980 when the ElectricWindmillCar was invented. This is one argument why every General at the Pentagon should be hanged in a mass hanging after the Coup.

Dr. Michelle Thaller argument to Dr. Susan Love's daughter not being able to pass subsets in astrophysics was the only way they were going to get me out of Harvard was kicking and screaming.

Invent or Die is really true.

As millions have died since 1980 because they could not invent anything, mostly because of Bill Gates $ GREED, and the government lottery brainwashing Inventors into gamblers, who died by the millions. And LOST society a billion inventions just during this Lotto Era $$$.

This "LOTTO ERA" has been the worst genocide for aspiring "Inventors" in the history of the USA.

This is related to Katie Couric telling us they found a cure for breast cancer when she typed up the story in her office, to give false hope to the 100 women who died of breast cancer today. I think Katie Couric should hang for this and I will tell the Coup leaders this!

Dr. Michelle Thaller; I fell in love with Carl Sagan, this was Michelle's Goddess of Inspiration! I don't think they have a Goddess of Inspiration for women but if they did Carl Sagan was Dr. Michelle Thallers. He got her through the tooth pulling at Harvard and she stayed up all night until sunrise for the first time in her life, at Harvard with Carl Sagans Universe - book learning at Harvard.

Dr. Michelle Thaller is promoting Galileo's telescope yet she works for NASA who lost 700 manned space telescopes by sucking off Texas and Saudi Oil men instead of exposing the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar in 1980. But these guys are all Fags now as the Saudi Prince was to tempting with so much oil money, they should have watched the Tempest before taking that free NASA trip to Saudi Arabia.

http://coolcosmos.ipac.caltech.edu/cosmic_classroom/ask_astronomer/video/index.html

Dr. Kirsten H. Sanford, KiKi is the Skinny Bitch Michelle wants to be for her husband... looking up Michelle's videos she was a skinny bitch not to long ago - grins. The Bird Brain is the name of her web page.

<http://www.kirstensanford.com/>

Observing and Observations were her opening Orwellian comments. I wonder how our Orwellian Universe exists. Kirsten wants to try some of my "total recall" memory pills as soon as I invent them. Ha. Vaccine comments to for my "Total Immunity" invention, yes Kirsten thinks I will get this invention someday. Thinks "total immunity" will be invented.

Einstein, if he had many wives playing the role model of Goddess of Inspiration we today in 2009 would know how gravity is generated. Were gravity comes from. Einstein was inspired by his wife, if he would have had many wives all playing the role model of a Goddess of Inspiration to get more Inventions out of him we would know were gravity comes from today in 2009. So this is a argument for polygamy, and letting women be the Goddess of Inspiration!

Erase your bad memories is for the Pentagon General the one star Generals at the Pentagon who have to look at the Goss and grosses pictures of cops burned in gasoline beyond recognition as these are Pentagon friendly fire kills on the streets of the USA ordered by the 5 star Generals for the oil money.

Goss and grosses pictures of cops and kids in the back seat burned in gasoline beyond recognition - all friendly fire kills from Kennedy, Bush, Obama, 5 Star Generals etc.

University will change after every General at the Pentagon is hanged for treason.

University will be mandatory and free, yes free textbooks and Microsoft Software, so everyone, not only Dr. Susan Love can get ahead with C++ grin. I don't think Dr. Susan Love every tried to learn C++. I tried to learn C++ for over a year but not having the money to spend on the software and not having the money to spend on a Microsoft tutor it was to no avail, and all the Observers in Vail observed me at this time.

Dr. Susan Love said a Doctor can take out your "appendix and save lives", Susan did not mention the top brass at the AMA are mass murderers" because they limit the number of medical students thus millions over the years died from a ruptured appendix as there were not enough MD's in society Dr. Susan Love wants to save lives... I think she needs to expose the limiting of medial students and its side effects that are covered up by the AMA's top brass.

Top brass at the AMA are "mass murderers" because they limit the number of medical students getting into every Medical School in the USA

Top brass at the AMA are "mass murderers" because they limit the number of medical students getting into every Medical School in the USA

Dr. Susan Love mentioned the Bill Gates Foundation as she could use Bill's help but so could the millions of students who died because of Bill Gates GREED $$$.

Susan told us about a DNA test being tested in India to replace the Pap test as millions of women in India die of cervical cancer. 5,000 a year die from Cobra bits working in the fields, I wish Susan would have had time to read all my webs as this is in there buried deep. I will invent a Cobra trap the first week freed. As this will only take a couple days working with my MD and FBI wives.

Doctor can take out your "appendix and save lives", Susan did not mention the top brass at the AMA are mass murderers because they limit the number of medical students thus millions over the years died from a "ruptured appendix" as there were not enough MD's in society. I know who would taunt the AMA top brass after I put the Saddam noose around their necks.

Susan mention identical twin girls one with breast cancer on without, why?

Link below is to my old ATT.net web page. Japan is the top story here and no one from Japan was at the CU Conference on World Affairs, this page will explain why no one from Japan wants to be on the "security cameras" in Boulder Colorado... Japan is a criminal State in the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar and the burning in gasoline of cops and kids beyond recognition as friendly fire kills by the USA and Japan government leaders. No one from Japan was in Boulder Colorado because all the Japanese Observers believe more people will hang in Boulder after the ElectricWindmillCar is exposed and 9-11 would never have happened. And when the CIA statistics guys testify at the Oil Genocide Trials at CU how many were burned to death in gasoline for more oil money beyond recognition with the burned bodies on the Front Page of the Tokyo Times and the New York Times. WW II hanged a lot of Japanese more will hang this time!

4/9/2009..... Final Exam Grade _on the Cure for Breast Cancer. This picture has no head on it, no face, no name to the woman, and is not on the cover of her book! Dr Love could have gotten a real women with a name, a face and a story for a shocking gross and grosses book cover for the 100 women who died today and were not mentioned by the New York Times! ElectricWindmillCar - same gov guys will let 100 kids die in hot cars in the summer of 2009. 3009 kids left in a hot car will be ok. As the 3009 models cars will be climate controlled via H

4/9/2009 4:15 PM Dr. Susan Love's Noon Lecture was a Very Good C++

4/9/2009 4:15 PM Dr. Susan Love's Noon Lecture was a Very Good C++

Dr. Susan Love heard about her C- for her Breast Cancer book, so she did some extra homework overnight and managed to get a C+ grade for her noon lecture on Breast Cancer at CU World Affairs Conference.

Dr. Susan Love spoke of her Army of a million women working, not working 24/7 brainstorming a Rx Penicillin cure, inspiring men! No mention of women as the Goddess of Inspiration for Breast Cancer Work.

Dr. Susan Love didn't mention women inspiring men!

Dr Susan Love mention men scientists, said they like to work on rats, give them cancer and cure it because rats do not get cancer on their own scientist have to give it to them. And scientists don't like to work on women because their messy.

Dr Susan Love said 25% of breast cancer cells sleep, some sleep the woman's entire life span others wake and sleep and wake and sleep, but don't kill her!

Dr Susan Love said men kill, slash, burn, poison... Women I would guess.

Dr. Susan Love said the old fart a man was looking for his keys under the light, were did you lose your keys... up there on the top of the hill, why are you looking for them down here? Because there's a light. Not looking in the right place for a breast cancer cure. I would say not using women as the Goddess of Inspiration. All she has to do is look pretty, say the right things, don't bitch, look good in the new dress, and wam bang thank you mama we will get the Rx Penicillin cure for you!

Dr Susan Love estrogen only fuels 15% of all breast cancer.

Dr. Susan Love blue cheese the veins in the breast this is were breast cancer originates. Breast stick straight out, lots of laughter, and for sagging breast too.

Dr. Susan Love said there are six different kinds of breast cancer, no slides or post card hand outs.

Dr. Susan Love invented a needle that goes into the nipple of the breast to check the cells for breast cancer, this is experimental. And I will note Dr Love didn't get supercomper time on the Los Alamos Supercomputer and IBM didn't offer any supercomputer time for breast cancer research.

Dr. Susan Love's Petri dish can grow cancer cells, current Rx Penicillin kills gram-positive bacteria not cancer cells. Dr. Love didn't brainstorm what poison, burns, etc kills the suckers growing in a Petri dish.

Dr. Susan Love cancer cells are one of our own cells, they are not foreign invaders. So how do we get an Rx Penicillin cure for our home grown cancer cells. Dr Love didn't brainstorm any ideas with the audience.

Final Grade for a Breast Cancer Cure is F
if you were to take the Final Today,

The New York Times did not mention 100 women who died of breast cancer today, one woman in NYC was fatally shot twice by 2 NYPD cops, and this is the only woman they mentioned today.

100 women were burned in gasoline today; the New York Times or Dr Susan Love did not mention this either. I doubt if any kids were left in hot cars and died today.

Dr. Susan Love ended the lecture saying, "Rich White Women get Breast Cancer... more than any Women" She did not mention red meat or Coors!

Dr. Susan Love can get you 30 women in 24 hours.

I need 30 women right now, who are willing to play the roll model of Goddess of Inspiration. Dr Love didn't offer me 30 virgins or any women if any age or occupation ie MD. Though in her inventory of women she has them from 18 to 100 years old.

Amyofwomen.org is Dr. Love's web page she ended the Lecture with, my www.endwaronearth.com was not even mentioned by Dr. Love and if she had not read it yesterday she would not have given such a much improved Breast Cancer speech than what she had written in the 4th edition of her Breast Cancer Book.

One last note the women who is the City Manager of Boulder Colorado was the only person on stage with Dr. Love and their comments suggested she had breast cancer. I live in Boulder, Colorado and the woman manager of Boulder, Colorado has not helped me get the Rx Penicillin cure, Why not? Hell Gen Orwell wouldn't shoot her on the spot if she helped me out, would he?

4/9/2009 4:15 PM Dr. Susan Love's Noon Lecture was a Very Good C++... now Dr. Love needs to get some C++ software code from Bill Gate's Army at Microsoft.

4/9/2009 4:15 PM Dr. Susan Love's Noon Lecture was a Very Good C++ but she does need to get half her Army of a Million women to play the roll model of Goddess of Inspiration for men, as lots are Einstein's Love Women more than Dr. Love loves women!

4/9/2009 4:15 PM Dr. Susan Love's Noon Lecture was a Very Good C++

4/9/2009..... Final Exam Grade _on the Cure for Breast Cancer.

Dr Susan Love's 4th edition book is only a C- grade as this picture has no head on it, no face, no name to the woman, and is not on the cover of her book! Dr Love could have gotten a real women with a name, a face and a story!

Dr. Susan Love Final Exam Grade is only a C- because she is a Lesbian Dyke. I want to ask her if she realizes this lesbian Dyke shit, mentality, no diseased shit on her penis, but diseased thoughts short circuit out for her to get the Rx Penicillin cure. Dr Susan Love is giving the only lecture on Breast Cancer at the CU Conference on World Affairs at noon 9 April 3009 "Breast Cancer Cure 1 Poster no head from Harvard Medical School every Medical School Medical Students in Dr Chen's book the cadavers don't have a face or real name so what is real to MD's who pass with an A grade?"

I gave Dr Love a C- grade after reading her 4th edition of the same book she has written 4 times on breast cancer. There are no Breast Cancer Posters with tumors coming through the skin, why not! 40k deaths a Lesbian Dyke should have written 40k murders by the government of the USA! Every year via breast cancer since 1980 when the ElectricWindmillCar was invented.

Michelle Thaller, gave 2 lectures better than Dr Love and I have been to Dr Love's lecture yet, yet I know this is fact not fiction. Nonfiction, Michelle is a happy married woman who adores her husband but wants to give him more, she should give him a skinny bitch wife! Husbands by the millions divorce in the hope of getting a skinny bitch for a wife. I hope Michele as a Observer takes this advice and at her age it will be critical to lose weight and exercise 2 hours a day to prevent breast cancer by 10% I would also tell Michelle to quit drinking, Dr Love's 4th edition book tells women to drink in moderation this is malpractice and I hope Dr Love gets sued $$$$ I will update this after Dr Love gives her 10 year plan to cure breast cancer without a Rx Penicillin miracle cure by Greg Buell Boulder Colorado 3009 CU Conference on World Affairs I will have gotten Gravity Control and invented Gravity Control with my wives, Goddess of Inspiration, women playing the roll model, even Einstein tells everyone his wife inspired him, image if Einstein had a few wives we would of had Gravity Control in 2009 or at least knew how Gravity is generated. Kill Bill Movie is really Kill Bill Gates, Kill the Lesbian Dykes, as they killed their husbands best inventions, and dismembered his body, so we don't know what Dr Love's murdered husband could have been inspired to invent if he would have married a Goddess of Inspiration, not a Lesbian Dyke who's misinformation stifles the Rx Penicillio cure for the headless dismembered women pictured here, MD's who work at the JAMA did this to the women pictured here so you could not lead any student protest. Paul Danish a old fart from 1970 at CU Observes the daily body count from Vietnam, from Breast Cancer from those burned in fiery car wrecks today from gasoline.

3009 the ElectricWindmillCar will be invented in Boulder Colorado... except for the Observers in an Orwellian Society who know the difference between fiction and nonfiction and read books. Book on 2009 will have the ElectricWindmillCar invented in Boulder Colorado in 1980 and the body count for 40k breast cancer murders every year by our Orwellian Senators, who have names and faces Gen Orwell cant invent a way to have face less and nameless Senators doing his dirty work. Grin.

3/1/2009 8:13 AM Lets time travel ahead to after a successful Coup and the Autobiographical Sony Movie about Greg Buell Lovestar's life in Boulder Colorado in an Oil Genocide Era that suppressed the ElectricWindmillCar and clean water for 1 billion people from 1980 to 2009. I stopped by George (Orwell) Reynolds branch library in Table Mesa yesterday. Some niger from the city of Boulder put bars over the concrete edge I was sitting on when I saw smoke rising from NCAR, noticed the wind and the traffic coming down the hill on Table Mesa Drive from NCAR and got the idea of the ElectricWindmillCar because inside the library on the table I was reading "Animal Farm" which I saw a CU student on the RTD bus reading a couple days before. Fate!

2/27/2009 9:07 PM FINAL EXAMS by Pauline Chen M.D. In Dr Chen's book the breast tumor is breaking through the skin... women at work are disgusted, grossed out, uck! Repulsive sounds and facial expressions go along with the words and they want pay back from Bush-Obama, all the MD's and MIT war toy scientists who jilted women with a breast cancer tumor breaking through the skin.

3/1/2009 8:25 PM Dr Chen writes that Medical School attracts people with a high anxiety about dying.

3/3/2009 2:25 PM Dr Chen writes that when Chen was 17 her mother died in a car wreck, no mention if it was a fiery car wreck.

3/1/2009 8:28 PM Dr Chen writes death which the aspiring MD is so afraid of because they have no thoughts about trillions of galaxies. Now God just now, last year hurled trillions of Galaxies at Bush almost hitting him and the Ruling Class Nigers with two!

3/1/2009 8:30 PM Dr Chen writes we MD students mimicked the old MD's thought process. Thought process of the inventor or the ElectricWindmillCar has been suppressed since 1980 with the physical ElectricWindmillCar.

3/1/2009 8:32 PM When Dr Chen entered Medical school in the late 1980's she never dreamed the Oil Embargo of 1980 was ended secretly by the ElectricWindmillCar invention, and Kennedy bribed the Peanut Farmer Carter into starting the worst Genocide Holocaust in History.

3/1/2009 8:35 PM Dr Chen when entering Medical School dreamed of a futuristic Medical School with state of the Arts Supercomputers at every Nursing Station, and never ever dreamed of a free University that was mandatory. The story of how High School in the USA became mandatory has been prohibited news at CBS, NBC, and ABC via our Ruling Class who do not want a free University for the masses.

2/27/2009 9:04 PM Women, call Greg, give me a date, call me or stop by the Bookend Café sit at my table and ask me your questions please brainstorm with Greg about a cure... Dr Chen and the breast tumor breaking through the skin... women at the Avalanche Beacon Factory are completely grossed out on these tumors. I have to be the guy who gets the Rx Penicillin cure, so please ladies give me a call, make a date with Greg.

2/27/2009 8:11 PM Los Alamos supercomputer Tyranny of Diagnosis (Not being able to use the Los Alamos supercomputers on the web for medical diagnosis) By PAULINE W. CHEN, M.D.

2/27/2009 8:21 PM FINAL EXAMS by Pauline Chen MD Page 90 yes it took Chen 90 pages of writing before she mentioned gasoline burns. Burns in general, caused by Pentagon Generals going along with the worst genocide, the Oil Genocide by Texas and Saudi Oil Men! 100k cops burned in gasoline are on page 90!

3/3/2009 2:27 PM Nationalize IBM and Microsoft after the Coup for a futuristic Era not possible otherwise.

2/27/2009 8:23 PM War's Diagnosis and cure. Holds the fate of Star Travel to Alpha Centauri and the cure for breast cancer.

2/27/2009 8:26 PM Orders to obtain the highest levels of "Inventions" are illegible notations like the MD's who refuse to use a computer. Our Orwellian Top Brass refuse to let anyone but Nuke scientist at Los Alamos use the #1 supercomputer in the world. IBM sales pitch was for nuke use not medical uses and to cure breast tumors that have broke through the skin. IBM is libel, don't sue IBM, nationalize IBM like Microsoft, as their mentality will never change. Why reboot Windows 7 when you can have the Inventor Operating system for 1 billion aspiring inventors. IBM and Bill Gates will suppress any debate about the Inventor Operating System to replace Windows 7 for the money just like Texas and Saudi Oil men burn students in fiery car crashed for more oil money. IBM mimicked the Saudi Oil men's greed no matter how many Inventors or Inventions are killed, burned beyond recognition.

3/1/2009 12:09 PM IBM sales pitch was for nuke use not medical use.

2/27/2009 8:28 PM Current orders by our Orwellian Ruling Class are to suck off Obama and Nigers! Promote nigers, not a cure for breast cancer.

2/27/2009 8:26 PM Orders to obtain the highest levels of "Inventions" were drown by Kennedy like he drown his girl friends driving drunk off the bridge, Kennedy left 40k women a year to die a horrible death, tumors breaking through the breast... Kennedy divorced her, Kennedy is a mass murderer of women via being a Senator and "Niger Lover".

2/28/2009 8:37 PM University Presidents highest level of Inventions will build Medical Schools over every Football Stadium on every campus. And yes the Med School will be free with more tutors than the students will want in their social life. Sony's biggest LCD screens will be everywhere in HD. For the gross breast cancer tumors breaking through the skin.

2/25/2009 8:38 PM CU Bookstore women kicked me out, to suck off Mexican pit bulls who never ever read a textbook walking back from break. Pay back will be sending the FBI woman who has breast cancer to arrest them for felony harassment of a senior citizen who might have found the Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer opening one of the textbooks on the way back from break. I was a cashier at the CU Bookstore for 4 semesters until Niger Lovers hired all Mexicans to work as Cashiers. Never mind the fatal mistake of killing 40k women a year.

3/1/2009 7:44 AM An easy-to-read Avalanche Awareness Guide in all of our catalogs. Our DVD, "Take Charge: Leading a Companion Rescue" teaches you how to safely and efficiently organize a rescue. I listened to our President Bruno on this DVD, he must have rewritten it a million times as it was very instructional. Now we need an instructional DVD for 1,001 Invention Projects.

3/3/2009 7:37 AM Bruno "ran over" all of Greg's "rescue inventions" the inventor of the ElectricWindmillCar.

3/3/2009 7:31 AM Avalanche Beacon Factory in Boulder CO "ran over" the ElectricWindmillCar inventors cure for breast cancer tumors coming through the skin by alienating Greg as a Temp! And this cost Greg $5k.

3/3/2009 7:31 AM Avalanche Beacon Factory in Boulder CO "ran over" the ElectricWindmillCar inventors star to star travels with a Love Sick NASA MD woman.

3/2/2009 2:59 PM Now we need an instructional DVD for Inventions!

3/1/2009 7:46 AM DVD to organize a rescue of 40k women doesn't exist - Tiffany Hampshire can give you the Avalanche statistics faster than the speed of light but not the Breast Cancer statistics because women General Managers have no awareness of this or who in Hell is working on a Rx Penicillin invention cure.

3/2/2009 3:00 PM Is your husband an inventor at heart, then give him an invention project close to your heart or divorce him and marry Greg!

2/28/2009 8:44 PM Talking with other temps at the Avalanche Beacon Factory about pay backs, for being treated like Niger Slaves and cheated out of $5,000 the Temp agency got.

3/3/2009 7:31 AM Avalanche Beacon Factory in Boulder CO "ran over" Temps with insults, alienation, hostility, loss of income of $5,000 for being a Temp

3/3/2009 7:31 AM Avalanche Beacon Factory in Boulder CO "ran over" the ElectricWindmillCar inventor.

3/3/2009 7:31 AM Avalanche Beacon Factory in Boulder CO "ran over" the ElectricWindmillCar inventor.

3/2/2009 3:08 PM I will get my FBI wife with breast cancer to go after Che, Manjo, Karan, Chris the lesbian Dyke, Terra Lewis the bitch... giving a new car to everyone else except Bruno the President of Backcountry Access, the Avalanche Beacon Builders.

3/2/2009 3:09 PM I said to the other Temps in the conversation the people who really want pay backs worst than the temps at Backcountry Access do are the 100k cops burned in gasoline! They will hang everyone on their pay back list! These cops want retaliation and pay back way more than the people in Gaza!

3/1/2009 7:55 AM Chris the lesbian Dyke has the highest risk for breast cancer etc as she is obese and doesn't exercise at all. Chris is a typical 100% stenotype lesbian Dyke you can read her lips before she speaks, as you know what she will say and is thinking. I think Chaney and his lesbian daughter brainwashed 1 million women. No one in Chaney's family even thought of getting an Rx Penicillin breast cancer cure. Chaney made sure the CIA MD's didn't pronounce gasoline brain dead.

3/1/2009 7:59 AM Avalanche Awareness Guide on DVD

3/1/2009 8:10 AM Boulder Bike Awareness Guide on DVD and a web page.

3/3/2009 2:36 PM Bikers Avalanche of cars...

3/1/2009 8:11 AM Arden Brent Graber, 30, is brain dead and now dead, dead, from a bike wreck that happened at a spot I have biked at 100 times since 1980. Underpass is being dug out for CU students on the other side of campus... if this were not a Oil Genocide Era this intersection would have a underpass or overpass but CU President is an Oil Man in an Oil Genocide Era that profits from the suppression of the ElectricWindmillCar Era. Era that lost a reinvented bike path for cities and 10's of thousands of CU student inventors as CU has MBA degrees but no Masters in Inventions!

3/3/2009 2:37 PM Brent didn't have an instructional DVD for Car Avalanches!

3/1/2009 8:11 AM Graber was riding his bike southbound on 30th Street just north of Colorado Avenue when Shirley Scott, 82, drove up behind him and hit him with the front of her car, sending him up onto her windshield, she didn't have super air bags on the outside of her car because the Orwellian Top Brass didn't put super air bags on semi trucks... this invention of mine has been LOST.

3/1/2009 8:11 AM Brent Graber recently received his MBA from CU

3/1/2009 8:12 AM "That's why we were so excited to have him here," said Bruce Egerly, co-founder of Backcountry Access. "Now there is a huge vacuum because Brent was incredibly positive, and his attitude was infectious."

3/1/2009 8:12 AM "We have all been in a bit of a somber mood since this happened," company president Bruce McGowan, said. "We work in a life-and-death industry, with avalanches, but we aren't touched by tragedy like this very often."

3/2/2009 3:10 PM Avalanche of Breast Cancer, but we aren't touched by tragedy like this very often.

3/1/2009 9:06 PM Avalanche of Breast cancer tumors breaking through the skin, our General Manager and the other woman were touched by the tragedy that very, often hits women, hits 40k woman a year. This is a horrible Avalanche that has been going on since 1980 - 40k tumors breaking through the skin every year and yes the Top Brass knew this, the CIA's MD's jilted these women for War!

3/1/2009 9:11 PM The bitch Terra Lewis a Backcountry Access employee not a temp. harassed me every day. And refused to listen to my mp3 poetry reading of the poem... "Rx Penicillin for Breast Cancer" she walked off after 3 mins of a 20 min poetry reading calling me a Nigger for not massacring women and kids in Vietnam.

2/27/2009 8:29 PM Orders for the last 8 years of Bush let 40k women every year die of breast cancer because our Orwellian Top Brass were Occupied with suppressing the ElectricWindmillCar Era! And ordering War Toys from MIT scientists. Avalanches of MIT Scientists for War Toys.

3/3/2009 7:22 AM Avalanches of MIT Scientists for War Toys.

2/28/2009 8:38 AM CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. — President Obama declared the beginning of the end of one of the longest and most divisive wars in American history on Friday as he announced that he would withdraw combat forces from Iraq by August 2010 and all remaining troops by December 2011. The decision, outlined before thousands of camouflage-clad Marines... only Marines knowing about the killing of 4,200 Marines by Bush and Obama are the Generals and they are worried this Genocide will make the front page of the New York Times when the NYPD pulls off a successful Coup exposing the fiery wrecks that burned 100,000 cops from 1980 - 2009!

2/28/2009 8:05 PM ...worries of the Pentagon Generals

2/28/2009 8:05 PM ... 9-11 and the ElectricWindmillCars

2/28/2009 7:44 AM worries of the generals... Niggers like Obama profiting from the 100's of thousands burned in gasoline since the suppression of the ElectricWindmillcar. Worried Pentagon Generals helped suppress the ElectricWindmillCar so they could invade Iraq... worried Pentagon Generals killed 4,250 Marines instead of using the suppressed ElectricWindmillCar to win the war in Iraq with Bush #1. Bush #2 worried the Pentagon Generals, the idiots who are West Point Grads thought they could kill 4,250 Marines while suppressing the ElectricWindmillCar. Obama leaned heavily toward field commanders' preferences in settling a time frame for ending the war in Iraq, as he weighed the fervent desires of the anti-war community that propelled him into office and the equally strong worries of the generals. Worries of the Pentagon Generals are, will the NYPD Coup leaders hang all the Pentagon Generals along with everyone at the New York Times? Remember 9-11 would never have happened if the ElectricWindmillCar was not suppressed by the Pentagon Generals! Yes! Pay back is a bitch far worst than the bitch Terra Lewis!

2/27/2009 8:33 PM Ono says she has spoken so little about the war in Iraq because "if you fight (conflicts) one by one, you'll get tired." She believes the world is divided into two industries: peace and war. "The war industry people are very together; they know exactly what they want; they don't even have to talk to each other. The peace industry people are just intellectuals who are very critical of each other...Unless the peace industry is powerful we're always going to have war. It is as simple as that."

2/27/2009 8:40 PM Bush #2 was the hidden cause of the Iraq war

2/28/2009 8:18 PM Bush #2 hid the ElectricWindmillCar + Breast Tumors breaking through the skin!

2/27/2009 8:40 PM The disease, as the name implies (from the Greek "krypt," or hidden, and "genesis," or origin), has long been unknown. Every one of my patients with cryptogenic cirrhosis has heard the same thing from their doctors, including myself: "We have no idea why you are so sick. I have cared for patients with cryptogenic cirrhosis. It is a common cause of liver-related illness and death in the United States, and symptoms can range from jaundice, bleeding and confusion to life-threatening hemorrhage, coma and death. The cause of the disease, as the name implies (from the Greek "krypt," or hidden, and "genesis," or origin), has long been unknown. Every one of my patients with cryptogenic cirrhosis has heard the same thing from their doctors, including myself: "We have no idea why you are so sick."

3/1/2009 12:23 PM We have no idea why you are so sick.

3/1/2009 12:23 PM We have no idea how to look for the Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer. We can't mimic the ElectricWindmillCar inventors train of thought as this has been suppressed along with the ElectricWindmillCar. This is a crime against Humanity by Kennedy, Kerry, and every President since Carter the peanut farmer.

2/27/2009 8:40 PM Antibody Inventions Offer a New Path for Fighting Flu, and the light year long list of diseases MIT can't seem to remember.

3/3/2009 2:39 PM Avalanche of Antibodies, how do you start this Avalanche?

3/2/2009 3:17 PM Cholera and Malaria

2/27/2009 8:41 PM Los Alamos supercomputer tyranny perseveres spoiled foods and no one at Los Alamos is even thinking.... About inventing a cure for food poisoning or a way to preserve foods, futuristic way to preserve foods invented today.

3/1/2009 4:30 PM CU students News Paper the Colorado Daily has run over students biking and walking on orders from Texas and Saudi Oil men. Supercomputer Inventions 101 to cure the tyranny of food poisoning from the dirty Mexicans cooking at the freshmen dorms on campus will never be written by any Journalism Student!

3/1/2009 9:20 PM CIA's MD's can't remember writing orders to invent a cure for food poisoning and invent a better preservative at the same time. "Tin Can Generals..."

2/27/2009 8:43 PM Los Alamos scientist don't care who they work for, so its up to the top brass to work on the highest level of inventions, which is the Rx Penicillin cure for breast cancer using Los Alamos scientists and their supercomputers on Googols and the web.

2/27/2009 8:45 PM The most powerful supercomputer in the world is up and running at Los Alamos today. IBM sold its nuke inventions to a USA government, covered in gasoline burns, that don't turn up until page 90 of Dr Chen's book.

2/27/2009 8:46 PM Toshiba's U.S. subsidiary Westinghouse signed an agreement to build 2 nuke power plants and go along with the suppression of the electricwindmillcar letting more cops burn in gasoline in the USA and Japan so they can make genocide money off building 2 nuke plants for the electricity utility for San Antonio, Texas. The plants, each to have a capacity of 1,400 megawatt, are scheduled to start operations in 2016, and 2017, Toshiba said in a statement.

2/28/2009 8:24 PM H and O from the gallon of water in your ElectricWindmillCar will heat your home, generate your electricity.

2/27/2009 8:33 PM Ono says she has spoken so little about the war in Iraq because "if you fight (conflicts) one by one, you'll get tired." 2/27/2009 8:23 PM War's cure! Holds the fate of Star Travel to Alpha Centauri

2/27/2009 8:40 PM The hidden cause of war... Was Bush #2, he killed 4,250 Marines for nothing. Ordered Pentagon Generals to kill their own troops instead of using the ElectricWindmillCars to win the war.

2/27/2009 8:50 PM Yoko Ono sounds off "I'm a witch," warbles Yoko Ono on the title track of her latest album. "Yes, I'm a witch, I'm a bitch, I don't care what you say. My voice is real. My voice speaks truth. I don't fit your ways." And indeed there is something elegantly witchy about the tiny, astonishingly well-preserved figure (Ono is now nearly 76) who strides into Tokyo's plush Hotel Okura.

2/27/2009 8:53 PM "I'm Going To tell You A Secret" is a documentary from MADONNA. For anyone who has seen Madonna Truth or Dare (Blonde Ambition Tour 1990) you know how entertaining Madonna can be. If you are looking for a Truth or Dare part 2 you are going to be disappointed. This is Madonna 14 years later (Reinvention Tour 2004) and she is not pushing the boundaries of sexuality as she did in the early 90's. What Madonna is doing is what we all at one point in our lives or another do, and that is question the purpose of our lives and that we try to be better people. At times I do miss the early sexuality in your face Madonna

2/28/2009 8:32 PM she is not pushing the boundaries of sexuality

2/28/2009 8:33 PM she is pushing the boundaries of LOST inventions

Kerry pulled over by a cop, cop car rearended bursting into flames. Before and after the burns middle picture. Kerry's Rich wife has no comments, $ 177 Trillion for the Ruling

$1 Billion compensation for burns like these! No not even $1 million from Kerry + Wife!

Kerry

Kerry + Wife have $5 Billion plus the $177 Trillion from Oil Revenues since 1980 when the ElectricWindmillcar was invented, Kerry watched the video of Greg Buell Lovestars 1980 invention too. Kerry kill this baby's $1 Billion compensation being Oil$Whyise $177 Trillion! and not even $1 Billion! Why? Kerry's Wife would get $1 Billion in a fiery Rearended Boston Wreck$ has $177 Trillion in Oil Revenues yet will not give $1 Billion in compensation for fiery Boston car wreck - Burns! Why Oil$whyise $Wise - No! Trump in NYC vetoed the same $1 Billion in compensatsion to wifes, not his, kids, not his, burned in fiery NYC Wrecks! Greed, this is beyond Greed - Kerry and Trump both worth $ Billions refuse to give a Billion in compensation that is not even their money, but illegal Oil genocide revenue from suppressing the ElectricWindmillCar since 1980. No wonder why the government has several more spin off genocides all government run observed today by the CIA and FBI who can give Humanity no Justice in arresting the King of Saudi Arabia and confistating his $177 Trillion dollars!
